Henderson ... on the relation of baptism to Christian missions George Newbury, 1831 The Complete Idiot's Guide to the Gnostic Gospels J. Michael Matkin, 2005 The founding of the early Christian Church had as much to do with politics and intrigue as it did with theology and religion This history and the documents uncovered at the Nag Hammadi site in Egypt have formed the basis of some of the most interesting and mysterious questions today Was Mary Magdalene a disciple of Jesus What role did Jesus mother Mary play What does the Gospel of Thomas tell us Enter The Complete Idiot's Guide to the Gnostic Gospels Expert author J Michael Matkin has provided easy and understandable overviews to all these major works and more With chapters discussing each of the major and minor documents found at Nag Hammadi the book also includes an overview of Gnosticism and its most influential people Readers get an easy understandable view of the early Church these relatively new documents and their meaning to modern religion and philosophy today The New Testament, in an Improved Version, Upon the Basis of Archbishop Newcome's New Translation: with a Corrected Text, and Notes Critical and Explanatory. Published by the Unitarian Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge ... Fourth Edition, with Corrections and Additions. [Edited by Thomas Belsham.], 1817 A Reply to the Second Postscript in the Supplement to Palaeoromaica [by John Black.] William Grant Broughton (Bishop of Sydney.), 1825 Concluding Unscientific Postscript Søren Kierkegaard, 2019-03-12 Contents include Foreword Editor's Preface Introduction by the Editor Preface Introduction BOOK ONE The Objective Problem Concerning the Truth of Christianity Introductory Remarks Chapter I The Historical Point of View 1 The Holy Scriptures 2 The Church 3 The Proof of the Centuries for the Truth of Christianity Chapter II The Speculative Point of View BOOK TWO The Subjective Problem The Relation of the Subject to the Truth of Christianity The Problem of Becoming a Christian PART ONE Something About Lessing Chapter I An Expression of Gratitude Chapter II Theses Possibly or Actually Attributable to Lessing 1 The subjective existing thinker has regard to the dialectics of the process of communication 2 The existing subjective thinker is in his existential relation to the truth as negative as he is positive he has as much humor as he has essential pathos and he is constantly in process of becoming i e he is always striving 3 Lessing has said that accidental historical truths can never serve as proofs for eternal truths of the reason and that the transition by which it is proposed to base an eternal truth upon historical testimony is a leap

4 Lessing has said that if God held all truth in His right hand and in His left the lifelong pursuit of it he would choose the left hand

A A logical system is possible B An existential system is possible

PART TWO How the Subjectivity of the Individual Must be Qualified in Order that the Problem May Exist for Him

Chapter I The Task of Becoming Subjective The conclusion that would be forced upon ethics if the attainment of subjectivity were not the highest task confronting a human being

Considerations left out of account in connection with the closer understanding of this

Examples of thinking directed towards becoming subjective

Chapter II The Subjective Truth Inwardness Truth is Subjectivity

Appendix A Glance at the Contemporary Effort in Danish Literature

Chapter III Real or Ethical Subjectivity The Subjective Thinker

1 Existence and Reality 2 Possibility as higher than Reality Reality as higher than Possibility Poetic and Intellectual Ideality Ethical Ideality 3 The Simultaneity of the Individual Factors of Subjectivity in the Existing Subject The Contrast between this Simultaneity and the Speculative Process 4 The Subjective Thinker his Task his Form his Style

Chapter IV The Problem of the Fragments How can an Eternal Happiness be based upon Historical Knowledge

Section I For Orientation in the Plan of the Fragments

1 That the point of departure was taken in the pagan consciousness and why 2 The importance of a preliminary agreement concerning what Christianity is before there can be any question of mediating between Christianity and speculative thought The absence of such an agreement favors the proposal of mediation while at the same time making any mediation illusory the presence of such an agreement precludes mediation

3 The problem of the Fragments viewed as a problem introductory not to Christianity but to becoming a Christian

Section II The Problem Itself The eternal happiness of the individual is decided in time through the relationship to something historical which is furthermore of such a character as to include in its composition that which by virtue of its essence cannot become historical and must therefore become such by virtue of the absurd

A Existential Pathos

1 The Initial Expression for Existential Pathos the absolute direction respect toward the absolute telos expressed in action through the transformation of the individual's existence

Aesthetic Pathos The deceptiveness of the principle of mediation The medieval monastic movement The simultaneous maintenance of an absolute relationship to the absolute telos and a relative relationship to the relative ends

2 The Essential Expression for Existential pathos Suffering Fortune and misfortune as the expression for an aesthetic view of life in contradistinction to suffering as the expression of a religious view illustrated by reference to the religious discourse

The Reality of suffering humor The reality of suffering in the last instance as evidence for the possession by the existing individual of a relationship to an eternal happiness

The illusion of religiosity The category of Anfechtung The primary ground and significance of the religious suffering The dying away from the life of immediacy while still remaining in the finite

An edifying divertimento Humor as an incognito for religiosity

3 The Decisive Expression for existential pathos Guilt That the investigation goes backward instead of forward The eternal recollection of guilt is the highest expression for the relation between the consciousness of guilt and an eternal happiness Lower expressions for the consciousness of guilt and corresponding forms of satisfaction Self imposed penance Humor The religiosity of hidden inwardness Intermediate Clause between A and B B The Dialectical 1 The dialectical contradiction which constitutes the breach to expect an eternal happiness in time through a relationship to something else in time 2 The dialectical contradiction that an eternal happiness is based upon something historical 3 The dialectical contradiction that the historical fact here in question is not a simple historical fact but is constituted by that which only against its nature can become historical hence by virtue of the absurd Appendix to B The retroactive effect of the dialectical upon the pathetic and the factor simultaneously present in the pathos a The consciousness of sin b The possibility of offense c The smart of sympathy Chapter V Conclusion About Childish Christianity Appendix For an Understanding with the Reader First and Last Declaration Notes Index Originally published in 1941 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
