Gospel Ferment In Malawi Theological Essays:

Gospel Ferment in Malawi Ross, Kenneth R., 2018-06-14 This book is a collection of essays written in the early 1990s. Some are an attempt to think theologically about the social and political changes and challenges that Malawi was navigating during those years. Others are critically reflecting on the nature and content of the Christian faith as it was coming to expression in an African context. The essays are a plea for relevancy and contextuality in Christian praxis and theological reflection in Malawi and indeed in Africa as a whole.

Gospel Ferment in Malawi Kenneth R. Ross, 1995-01-01 Many scholars have noted the importance of Christianity in Malawi and have written on the social economic and political influence of the Christian faith. What is harder to find is study of the nature of the faith analysis of the substance and inner logic of the religious consciousness which developed in Malawi as its peoples responded to the Christian message. By bringing forward a selection of key primary sources this book provides the opportunity to read the story of Malawian Christianity from the inside. It allows some Malawian Christians to speak for themselves so that church history might be formed by listening directly and critically to voices from the past. The book is one of the first fruits of a Church History Project launched in 1991 by the Association of Theological Institutions in Southern and Central Africa ATISCA. The aim of the project is to improve the teaching and learning of church history throughout the region particularly by enabling students to engage thoughtfully with their own church history. This book will admirably serve that purpose and will also be an excellent resource for all readers seeking to understand Malawian society and in particular the role played by Christianity.

Mission in Malawi: Essays in Honour of Klaus Fiedler S. Nkhoma, 2021-10-29 The first four essays in Mission in Malawi reassess the meaning, nature and place of mission in a postmodern world. Subsequent essays examine various issues that missionaries and the Church in Malawi have and continue to struggle with. These range from the problem of administering church discipline, the challenge of Bible translation, the question of how to deal with corruption in the corridors of power, to the challenges of dealing with initiation rites, HIV/AIDS, patriarchy, gender inequality, the exercise of the Church's prophetic role, lack of contextualized theology, and the difficult task of creating an inclusive church and society. The last three essays are an attempt to describe a contextual theology appropriate for the African church, construct a theology for Malawi, and project a future for mission in Malawi in the context of a changing world. These essays offer a rare window into the life and struggles of the Malawian Church even as it faces the postmodern future. The essays are not only informative but also challenging and thought provoking. Scholars, students, and other readers who share an interest in mission and the life of the Church in Malawi will find this collection of essays indispensable in the many years to come.

The Warm Heart Kenneth Ross, 2024-09-17 Kenneth R. Ross is Professor of Theology and Dean of Postgraduate Studies at Zomba Theological University. Seminary Boston USA Series Editor of the Edinburgh Companions to Global Christianity Edinburgh University Press and Associate Minister at Bernvu CCAP He is the author of many books and articles on World Christianity including the forthcoming co authored volume Hope in Times of Crisis Reimagining Ecumenical Mission He has been researching and writing about Malawi church history and theology since he first arrived in Zomba in 1988 This book brings together a collection of essays written during the early 2020s in which Ross characteristically brings theological questions to the study of history while often adopting an historical approach to the study of theology All ten essays are grounded in the Malawi context while their themes also have relevance far beyond it a very valuable addition to Malawianist scholarship Dr Markku Hokkanen University of Oulu Church, State, and Society in Malawi James Tengatenga, 2006 Missionary history in Africa asserts that political history on the continent cannot be understood without an in depth understanding of the workings of the missions missionary activities and ideologies were central to political consciousness The Anglican Church was involved in society education health and politics right from its first foray into Malawi This study considers the nature of the involvement of that Church in society and how it engaged with the State from its genesis in the colonial period through the post independence period to the new post Banda political dispensation in 1994 It illustrates how the Church was involved on both sides of the independence struggle and interrogates why it fell conspicuously silent thereafter Christian Reflection in Africa Paul Bowers, 2018-07-05 This reference collection presents academic reviews of more than twelve hundred contemporary Africa related publications relevant for informed Christian reflection in and about Africa The collection is based on the review journal BookNotes for Africa a specialist resource dedicated to bringing to notice such publications and furnishing them with a one paragraph description and evaluation Now assembled here for the first time is the entire collection of reviews through the first thirty issues of the journal s history The core intention both of the journal and of this compilation is to encourage and to facilitate informed Christian reflection and engagement in Africa through a thoughtful encounter with the published intellectual life of the continent Reviews have been provided by a team of more than one hundred contributors drawn from throughout Africa and overseas The books and other media selected for review represent a broad cross section of interests and issues of personalities and interpretations including the secular as well as the religious The collection will be of special interest to academic scholars theological educators libraries ministry leaders and specialist researchers in Africa and throughout the world but will also engage any reader looking for a convenient resource relating to modern Africa and Christian presence there Politics, Christianity and Society in Malawi Ross, Kenneth R., Mulwafu, Wapulumuka O., 2020-02-27 With the death of John McCracken in 2017 Malawi lost a pre eminent historian This book celebrates McCracken s contribution to the study of Malawi s history and seeks to build on his legacy Part of his genius was that he identified themes that hold the key to understanding the history of Malawi in its broader perspective The authors contributing to this volume address these themes assessing the progress of historiography and setting an agenda for the further advance of historical studies The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and all who are interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Malawi s past and present

Decolonizing the Theological Curriculum in an Online Age Chimera Nyika,Y. Mvula,2022-10-28 The second annual conference of the Theological Society of Malawi was held at the historic Ekwendeni Campus of the University of Livingstonia from 14 to 16 September 2021 It took up the urgent theme of the decolonization of the theological curriculum Though Malawi has been an independent country for 58 years coloniality still stalks the land This book calls theologians to take a lead in decolonization while navigating the educational task in an online age With more than twenty institutions teaching theology at tertiary level in Malawi and now united in the Theological Society of Malawi there is huge potential to learn from each other in developing the theological curriculum in the country While the primary audience is unashamedly a Malawian one this book might also prove relevant in other contexts where there is a reckoning with past and present experience of colonialism The book is a call to action and is published in the hope that it will have lasting impact on the teaching and learning of theology in Malawi and beyond

God, People and Power in Malawi Ross, Andrew C.,2018-06-28 Between 1992 and 1994 Malawi underwent a remarkable transition from dictatorship to democracy Truly a transformation of power Yet this period of profound change raised many issues of power and accountability In this book some of the key questions are explained and addressed from a theological perspective The work originated as a case study on the World Council of Churches Theology of Life programme It was then presented as a Kachere Monograph in the belief that it will not only contribute to the reconstruction of politic in Malawi but also be an important resource for all those concerned with the formation of a viable theology of power for today s world It is now presented here again as a Luviri Reprint The contributors are all drawn from the University of Malawi Department of Theology and Religious Studies Kenneth Ross has written on The Transformation of Power in Malawi 1992 94 the Role of the Christian Churches and A Practical Theology of Power for the New Malawi Felix Chingota on The Use of the Bible in Social Transformation Isabel Apawo Phiri on Marching Suspended and Stoned Christian Women in Malawi 1995 James Tengatenga on Young People Participation or Alienation An Anglican Case J C Chankanza and Hilary Mijoga on Muslim Perspectives on Power Hilary Mijoga on Christian Experience in Malawi Prisons and Klaus Fiedler on Power at the Receiving End the Jehova s Witnesses Experience in One Party Malawi and Even in the Church the Exercise of Power is Accountable to God

Historical Dictionary of Malawi Owen J. M. Kalinga,2011-12-09 Malawi established as the British protectorate of Nyasaland in 1891 gained its independence in 1964 and moved immediately into three decades of one party rule Since the mid 1990s however the country has held multi party elections as directed by its constitution and President Bingu wa Mutharika is currently serving his second term The fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of Malawi now newly expanded and updated covers a wide range of areas in Malawi history including the rise and fall of state systems religious and socio political movements the economy environment transportation war disease and natural sciences Author Owen J M Kalinga charts developments from pre history to the post Banda Malawi from Tom Bokwito to James Sangala and from the UMCA mission at Magomero to the second term of Bingu wa Mutharika's presidency paying particular attention to the individuals groups communities and forces that have molded this South African country The dictionary itself contains over 1 000 cross referenced entries on crucial aspects of Malawi history and it is the most extensive single volume reference work on Malawi available In addition to the dictionary entries Kalinga provides a chronology containing important dates and events and an informative bibliographical section organized by subject The final part of the bibliography gives the reader a list of current and obsolete newspapers and periodicals related to Malawi an ideal resource for further research This newly updated edition is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malawi

Democratization in Malawi M. Phiri, 2020-11-17 The vote in favour of multi party politics at the National Referendum of 1993 and the subsequent General Election of 1994 heralded the advent of a democratic system of government in Malawi It soon became apparent however that there remained many obstacles to overcome before Malawi would be a truly democratic country In this volume a multi disciplinary approach has been employed to examine both the progress and the pitfalls of the democratization process Political scientists lawyers historians theologians literary critics linguists economists and educationalists apply the tools of their respective disciplines to take stock of democratization in Malawi This book is an indispensable guide to anyone seeking to understand the social and political situation in Malawi in the early years of the Second Republic

A Malawi Church History 1860 - 2020 Kenneth R. Ross, Klaus Fiedler, 2025-02-15 This is the first attempt to comprehend the whole of Malawi's church history in a single volume It aims to unfold this history from beginning to end considering every expression of Christianity and taking account of its every dimension This revised edition includes additional material to take account of developments in Malawi church historiography between 2020 and 2025 A great achievement offering a comprehensive analysis of the history of Christianity in Malawi a must have book for institutional and personal libraries in Malawi and for all those interested in the impact of Christianity in Africa Isabel Apawo Phiri Vice Chancellor University of Blantyre Synod The significance of this book cannot be over emphasised a one stop account for understanding Malawi's church history captivating and refreshingly informative Wapulumuka O Mulwafu Deputy Vice Chancellor Mzuzu University

Reading Romans at Ground Level Jonathan D. Groves, 2015-02-14 Many pastors in the provincial towns and rural villages of Malawi struggle to find practical relevance in the letter to the Romans While the majority of church leaders have received little or no formal Bible and ministry training they often face formidable challenges from African traditional practices folk Islam poverty and poor education creating barriers to authentic Christian discipleship Reading Romans at Ground Level uses field research to characterize pastoral ministry in provincial rural Malawi By examining current preaching practice it shows that Malawian pastors mostly use individual verses from Paul's letter within inductive needs driven sermons or gospel calls for conversion In this book a three horizon contextual approach is used to investigate how the letter might be applied biblically to address contemporary African socio cultural and pastoral issues It demonstrates surprisingly rich parallels between the way Romans might have been heard by its original recipients in the slums of Ancient Rome and its potential meaning for Christians living in poverty in rural Africa today Umunthu

Theology: An Introduction Chingwala Musopole,2021-12-31 What is the key to understanding in a truly Malawian way After a lifetime s theological reflection the author finds the answer in the concept of uMunthu personhood or human ness Drawing on Malawi s cultures and languages the biblical text and the evangelical faith he casts a theological vision that can be transformative for church and nation Crisis Yet Continuity Kenneth R. Ross,2025-04-13 Studies on the history of the Blantyre Mission in Malawi often suggest that 1881 marked a turning point in the mission s tradition following a crisis triggered by a series of scandals that resulted in the dismissal of its top leadership Kenneth Ross challenges this interpretation arguing that while a crisis did occur it did not significantly disrupt the mission s work Ross maintains that there was a strong element of continuity between the earlier and later phases of the mission largely sustained by African missionaries trained for the work a core group of dedicated missionary personnel and female staff who played a vital role in maintaining the Mission s stability Through a thorough and detailed examination of archival records Ross s work offers a fresh and deeper understanding of the Blantyre Mission and its enduring influence insights that previous accounts have not fully captured Gift Wasambo Kayira Head of the Department of History Archaeology and Heritage Studies University of Malawi In this book Kenneth Ross enables readers to step into the footsteps of our ancestors and to closely experience the travails they endured From this treasure trove we can discover where we are coming from where we are and where we want to be tomorrow As Blantyre Synod marks its 150th anniversary in 2026 I commend this volume to all Presbyterians and to all who cherish our Malawian history Anderson Lovemore Jester Juma Chulu General Secretary CCAP Blantyre Synod A History of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians 1989-2007 Fiedler, Rachel NyaGondwe,2017-09-28 When African Theology was first formulated women played just a small role In 1989 Mercy Amba Oduyoye set out to change this by creating the Circle of Concerned African Theologians in order to give them a voice The Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians is an African Baby born in an ecumenical surrounding Though there were other movements addressing the issue of gender inequalities in church and society circle theologies are distinct from other women s liberation movements in that they are theologies formed in the context of African culture and religion This book traces the Circle history from 1989 to 2007 How We Preach Eben Kanukayi Nhiwatiwa,2016-09-01 This book is the second of two volumes on Preaching in African Context For both seasoned preachers and beginners including students in seminaries Bible colleges and universities this second volume explores how we preach and the practice of contextual preaching in Africa The two volumes go hand in hand and Nhiwatiwa demonstrates that the principles need good practice to become contextual preaching and our practice needs principles to ensure integrity Read these volumes to see why preaching is an urgent aspect of ministry that can open new horizons and give fresh outlook for the future Here Comes your King! R. Ross, 2020-09-21 More than twenty years have passed since this book was first published yet its themes remain vital for understanding the way in which Christian faith is coming to expression in a context like Malawi It begins with Christology with the question of the identity of Jesus Christ that is perennially at the centre of the Christian theological task For a century and more Malawians have been hearing the proclamation here comes your king This has struck a chord in millions of hearts as individuals families and communities have named Jesus Christ as Lord It has also posed the challenge of discovering what this Lordship means in every dimension of life Much of the rest of the book pursues this question as it explores how church identity has been formed and consolidated how the faith has been a resource for the nation at critical moments and the ways in which the faith has shaped national identity and helped to meet political challenges Christians by Grace-- Baptists by Choice Hany Longwe, 2011 The Baptist convention of Malawi BACOMA grew out of the Baptist Mission in Malawi's work that began almost 50 years ago as a result of plans by the Central African Southern Baptist Convention Mission to expand their works from Zimbabwe to Malawi Although BACOMA owes much of their tradition to the white Southern Baptists of the US they are typically a Malawian expression of the Church In five chapters the author a long standing Principle of the Baptist Theological Seminary of Malawi offers a history of the Baptist convention of Malawi The five themes being BACOMA's Polygenetic Nature Evangelistic Zeal and the Development of BACOMA 1970 1989 Women and Youth in Evangelism and the Development of BACOMA Separation and Cooperation A Loose Partnership and The People Politics and Christianity in Malawi, 1875-1940 John McCracken, 2008 First published in 1977 and now in its third edition this book has been recognised as one of the most successful studies to be made of the impact of a Christian mission in Africa Starting with a survey of the economy and society of Malawi in the mid ninetieth century the book goes on to examine the home background to the Livingstonia Mission of the Free Church of Scotland and the influence of David Livingstone upon it It then describes the failure of commerce and Christianity around the south end of Lake Malawi and the subsequent positive response which the mission evoked among the people of Northern Malawi African responses and the relationship between Christianity and politics dominate the second half of the book Comprehensive reassessments are made of the origins of the Watch Tower movement the growth of Christian independence and the character of interpolitical associations This revised edition includes a new introduction and up dated bibliography and some revised text
