Good Old Boys Women Who Love Them:

The Good Old Boys and The Smiling Country Elmer Kelton, 2016-11 Two complete novels one price Front cover Love and the Fighting Female Allison P. Palumbo, 2020-08-06 The fighting female archetype a self reliant woman of great physical prowess has become increasingly common in action films and on television However the progressive female identities of these narratives cannot always resist the persistent and problematic framing of male female relationships as a battle of the sexes or other source of antagonism Combining cultural analysis with close readings of key popular American film and television texts since the 1980s this study argues that certain fighting female themes question regressive conventions in male female relationships Those themes reveal potentially progressive ideologies regarding female agency in mass culture that reassure audiences of the desirability of empowered women while also imagining egalitarian intimacies that further empower women Overall the fighting female narratives addressed here afford contradictory viewing pleasures that reveal both new expectations for and remaining anxieties about the strong independent woman ideal that emerged in American popular culture post feminism

Henry James and the 'Woman Business' Alfred Habegger, 2004-08-26 This is a historical critique of Henry James in relation to nineteenth century feminism and women's fiction Habegger has brought to light extensive new documentation on James's tangled connections with what was thought and written about women in his time The emphasis is equally on his life and on his fictions This is the first book to investigate his father s bizarre lifelong struggle with free love and feminism a struggle that played a major role in shaping James The book also shows how seriously he distorted the truth about the cousin Minnie Temple whose self assertive image inspired him and how indebted he was to certain American women writers whom he attacked in reviews but whose plots and heroines he appropriated in his own fiction American Agriculturist ,1909 Report of the Proceedings Church congress,1894 Our Boys and Girls Oliver Optic,1873 My Study Bubba,2015-07-25 The Bible teaches us to seek God diligently The Bible also teaches that we reap what we sow in other words what we work for with effort we will justly receive Time is of great essence It takes time to truly understand the mysteries of life As a mature adult time well spent is our reward in life We once were blind but now we see When we are very young we do not see the reality of life It takes time The author Charles Traina has spent years and countless hours studying the scriptures You may read what he has found in just a few hours but understanding still takes time Will you take the time before your time runs out Once you close your eyes in your eternal slumber your time is of no use Read My Study it then will become your study It may encourage you to study scripture and your own time will be well spent Praise be to God The Detective Novels of Agatha Christie James Zemboy,2016-03-15 The most popular mystery writer of all time concocted a rich recipe of intrigue character and setting All of Agatha Christie s 66 detective novels are covered here in great detail Each chapter begins with general comments on a novel s geographical and historical setting identifying current events fashions fads and popular interests that relate to the story A concise plot summary and comprehensive character listing follow and each novel is discussed within Christie s overall body of work with an emphasis on the development of themes narrative technique and characters over the course of her prolific career An appendix translates Poirot s French and defines the British idiomatic words and phrases that give Christie s novels so much of their flavor

Out of the Shadows Marilyn Pemberton, 2013-01-15 Who was Mary De Morgan and why should she be dragged out of the shadows cast by her illustrious parents her male siblings and the members of the Arts and Crafts circle in which she moved Why should the academic spotlight be shone onto her life and works De Morgan 1850-1907 was undoubtedly a woman of her time she was unmarried and therefore one of the million or so odd women who had to earn their own living which she did mainly by writing She was one of the many who took part in the great effort to improve the lives of the poor in the East End of London she was caught up in the spiritualist phenomena not only because her mother was an ardent supporter and practitioner but also because De Morgan herself was considered to be a seer she like many Victorians suffered from the curse of tuberculosis but despite going to live in Egypt for health reasons she then became the directress of a girls reformatory until her death Through the analysis of her fairy tales her sole novel her non-fictional articles and her unpublished short stories De Morgan is revealed to be an early feminist and New Woman an advocate of William Morris's philosophies and a social reformer but also a rather disappointed and disillusioned woman Letters to and from her family and friends paint a colourful picture of family life during the second half of the nineteenth century and extracts from well-known people's biographies reminiscences and diaries flesh out De Morgan's character and help explain why George Bernard Shaw considered her to be a devil incarnate

Spider Woman's Granddaughters Paula Gunn Allen, 1990-05-12 Impressive Haunting Enchanting Every story in the book which covers nearly a century of tradition is interesting written with intelligent passion THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW Native American scholar literary critic poet and novelist Paula Gunn Allen who is herself a Laguna Pueblo Sioux Indian became increasingly aware in her academic career that the writings of Native Americans especially women have been marginalized by the Western literary canon Allen set out to understand why this was so and more importantly to remedy the situation The result is this powerful collection of traditional tales biographical writings and contemporary short stories many by the most accomplished Native American women writing today including Louise Erdrich Mary TallMountain Linda Hogan and many others
