Goodbye God, We're Going to Texas John Suddath, 2013-02-28      The Coming of God Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl, 2004-07-27 Winner of Grawemeyer Award In this remarkable and timely work in many ways the culmination of his systematic theology world renowned theologian Jurgen Moltmann stands Christian eschatology on its head Moltmann rejects the traditional approach which focuses on the End an apocalyptic finale as a kind of Christian search for the final solution He centers instead on hope and God s promise of new creation for all things Christian eschatology he says is the remembered hope of the raising of the crucified Christ so it talks about beginning afresh in the deadly end Yet Moltmann s novel framework deeply informed by Jewish and messianic thought also fosters rich and creative insights into the perennially nettling questions of eschatology Are there eternal life and personal identity after death How is one to think of heaven hell and purgatory What are the historical and cosmological dimensions of Christian hope What are its social and political implications In a heartbreakingly fragile and fragment world Moltmann s comprehensive eschatology surveys the Christian vista bravely envisioning our horizons of expectation for personal social even cosmic transformation in God      The Protestant Clergy in the Great Plains and Mountain West, 1865-1915 Ferenc Morton Szasz, 2004-01-01 The mainline Protestant churches played a vital role in the settlement of the West Yet historians have for the most part bypassed this theme This account recreates the unique religious and cultural mix that sets this region apart from the rest of the nation From itinerant circuit riders to powerful urban bishops western clergy were continually involved in the maturation of their communities Their duties on the frontier extended far beyond delivering Sunday sermons they also served as librarians counselors social workers educators booksellers peacekeepers and general purveyors of culture Weaving together the varied experiences of men and women from the five major Protestant denominations Baptist Methodist Presbyterian Congregational and Episcopal the author discusses their responses to life on the frontier the violence the tumultuous growth of the cities the isolation of farm life and the widespread hunger especially among women for refinement      Always Say Goodbye Stuart M.
