Stay Away from Him Andrew DeYoung, 2025-07-08 Had me hooked from the first line The characters are complex in a way that makes it impossible to tell who to trust Tasha Coryell author of Love Letters to a Serial Killer On the evening she met exonerated murderer Thomas Danver Melissa Burke let him help put her five year old son to bed before coming back upstairs to enjoy the dinner party Thomas was so nice and a pediatrician She didn't know anything then about his wife's suspicious death Relocating with her 5 year old son to a new city after an ugly divorce Melissa Burke isn't looking for a new relationship right away only distance from her ex and space to rest and heal from the emotional scars of a broken marriage But an unexpected relationship is exactly what she finds at a friend's dinner party when she meets Thomas Danver a charming widower who asks for her number at the end of the night Intrigued Melissa learns from her neighbors that Thomas is a dedicated father of two girls one of the most respected pediatricians in the city and an exonerated murderer Thomas's first wife went missing three years ago presumed dead and Thomas was eventually cleared of her murder in an investigation that became a local media sensation But while some still believe he killed his wife Melissa's friends insist that he was unfairly targeted by the police and couldn't hurt a fly Attracted to Thomas and also fascinated by the case Melissa agrees to one date and finds herself quickly swept into an obsessive whirlwind romance But when Melissa receives a chilling anonymous threat or perhaps it's a warning she begins to question how much she truly knows about the man she's falling in love with Is he really innocent A powerful cautionary thriller William Kent Krueger New York Times bestselling author for The Day He Never Came Home

At the Age for Love Reginald N. Shires, 2006 At the Age for Love A novel of Bangalore during World War II is an extraordinary story of a soldier's family waiting for his safe return from the Africa Front where he serves with a British tank unit pressing hard against the Germans in the desert of Libya The chronicle begins with the soldier Capt Edward Thompson saying goodbye to his wife Amelia and son Paddy and ends with his return at the end of the war The story narrated in incredible detail tells how the boy and his mother with their relatives and friends live in this hectic military city in South India where those who stay behind are swept along into the rushing wild stream of British history in India during a time of war The lives of these women and their children provide a bold story of Anglo India in this multihued Indian landscape where rogues and villains and the honest hard working church going form relationships in this bold saga as men and women cross family and racial boundaries in their search for love The city of Bangalore with its cluster of towns around British army barracks comes alive with memorable characters and this novel follows their tense and gripping relationships The ending where these fun loving characters come together in a frail boat on the peaceful Cauvery River at Seringapatnam near sunset has much to say about life and the human mystery and the vision it offers us as we live in a changing world
