There's no way he understands who or what he's up against. We're defenseless against the evil in front of us until he unlocks something powerful inside of me. Something I didn't know was there. Now the question is whether I can connect the dots before the madhouse I'm stuck in breaks apart and reveals a truth I can't handle. I'm in love. Calabaz I'm no stranger to deception and breaking the rules is all right in my book. Especially when it's to help my people avoid the apocalypse. So they send me to go undercover on Mars to locate a Guardian to help in our quest. Unfortunately it's at the crazy house. Almost humorous how well I fit in. A beautiful woman that doesn't quite seem to belong in a padded white room attaches herself to me. And I push her back but the more I resist the harder fate works to keep us together. A man can only resist for so long. Little did I know what she was capable of or I'd have made my moves from the start. I'm just hoping to keep my sanity long enough to help her recover hers.
