The Métis of Senegal Hilary Jones, 2013-03-18 The Métis of Senegal is a history of politics and society among an influential group of mixed race people who settled in coastal Africa under French colonialism Hilary Jones describes how the métis carved out a niche as middleman traders for European merchants As the colonial presence spread the métis entered into politics and began to assert their position as local elites and power brokers against French rule Many of the descendants of these traders continue to wield influence in contemporary Senegal Jones's nuanced portrait of métis ascendancy examines the influence of family connections marriage negotiations and inheritance laws from both male and female perspectives

Muslim Interpreters in Colonial Senegal, 1850-1920 Tamba M'bayo, 2016-07-01 This book investigates the lives and careers of Muslim African interpreters employed by the French colonial administration in Saint Louis Senegal from the 1850s to the early 1920s It focuses on the lower and middle Senegal River valley in northern Senegal where the French concentrated most of their activities in West Africa during the nineteenth century The Muslim interpreters performed multiple roles as mediators military and expeditionary guides emissaries diplomatic hosts and treaty negotiators As cultural and political powerbrokers that straddled the colonial divide they were indispensable for French officials in their relations with African rulers and the local population As such a central concern of this book is the paradoxical and often contradictory roles the interpreters played in mediating between the French and Africans This book argues that the Muslim interpreters exemplified a paradox while serving the French administration they pursued their own interests and defended those of their local communities In doing so the interpreters strove to maintain some degree of autonomy Moreover this book contends that the interpreters occupied a vantage position as mediators to influence the construction of colonial discourse and knowledge because they channeled the flow of information between the French and the African population Thus Muslim interpreters had the capacity to shape power relations between the colonizers and the colonized in Senegal

The French Encounter with Africans William B. Cohen, 2009-07-22 As French and American historians of France are revisiting the history of French racism today William B Cohen's book is more important than ever It has become a classic Nancy L Green In this pioneering work William B Cohen traces the ways in which negative attitudes toward blacks became deeply embedded in French culture Examining the forces that shaped these views Cohen reveals the persistent inequality of French interactions with blacks in Africa in the slave colonies of the West Indies and in France itself Now a classic The French Encounter with Africans is essential reading for anyone engaged in current discussions of European relations with non Europeans and with issues of racism ethnicity identity colonialism and empire

"Portuguese" Style and Luso-African Identity Peter A. Mark, 2002-12-05 In this detailed history of domestic architecture in West Africa Peter Mark shows how building styles are closely associated with social status and ethnic identity Mark documents the ways in which local architecture was transformed by long distance trade and complex social and cultural interactions between local Africans African traders from the interior and the Portuguese explorers and traders who settled in the Senegambia region What came to be known as Portuguese style symbolized the wealth and power of Luso Africans who identified themselves as Portuguese so they could be distinguished from their African neighbors They were traders spoke Creole and practiced Christianity But what did this mean Drawing from travelers accounts maps engravings paintings and photographs Mark argues that both the style of Portuguese houses and the identity of those who lived in them were extremely fluid Portuguese Style and Luso African Identity sheds light on the dynamic relationship between identity formation social change and material culture in West Africa Slave Sites on Display Helena Woodard, 2019-08-23 At Senegal s House of Slaves Barack Obama s presidential visit renewed debate about authenticity belonging and the myth of return not only for the president but also for the slave fort itself At the African Burial Ground National Monument in New York up to ten thousand slave decedents lie buried beneath the area around Wall Street which some of them helped to build and maintain Their likely descendants whose activism produced the monument located at that burial site now occupy its margins The Bench by the Road slave memorial at Sullivan s Isle near Charleston reflects the region s centrality in slavery s legacy a legacy made explicit when the murder of nine black parishioners by a white supremacist led to the removal of the Confederate flag from the state s capitol grounds Helena Woodard considers whether the historical slave sites that have been commemorated in the global community represent significant progress for the black community or are simply an unforgiving mirror of the present In Slave Sites on Display Reflecting Slavery's Legacy through Contemporary Flash Moments Woodard examines how select modern day slave sites can be understood as contemporary flash moments specific circumstances and or seminal events that bind the past to the present Woodard exposes the complex connections between these slave sites and the impact of race and slavery today Though they differ from one another all of these sites are displayed as slave memorials or monuments and function as high profile tourist attractions They interpret a story about the history of Atlantic slavery relative to the lived experiences of the diaspora slave descendants that organize and visit the sites The Cambridge History of the British Empire John Holland Rose, Arthur Percival Newton, Ernest Alfred Benians, Henry Dodwell, 1929 The Old Empire, from the Beginnings to 1783 John Holland Rose, Arthur Percival Newton, Ernest Alfred Benians, 1929 Wicked Flesh Jessica Marie Johnson, 2020-08-28 The story of freedom pivots on the choices black women made to retain control over their bodies and selves their loved ones and their futures The story of freedom and all of its ambiguities begins with intimate acts steeped in power It is shaped by the peculiar oppressions faced by African women and women of African descent And it pivots on the self conscious choices black women made to retain control over their bodies and selves their loved ones and their futures Slavery's rise in the Americas was institutional carnal and reproductive The intimacy of bondage whet the appetites of slaveowners traders and colonial officials with fantasies of domination that trickled into every social relationship husband and wife sovereign and subject master and laborer Intimacy corporeal carnal quotidian tied slaves to slaveowners women of African descent and their children to European and African men In Wicked Flesh Jessica Marie Johnson explores the nature of these complicated intimate and kinship ties and how they were used by black women to construct freedom in the Atlantic world Johnson draws on archival documents scattered in institutions across three continents written in multiple languages and largely from the perspective of colonial officials and slave owning men to recreate black women's experiences from coastal Senegal to French Saint Domingue to Spanish Cuba to the swampy outposts of the Gulf Coast Centering New Orleans as the quintessential site for investigating black women's practices of freedom in the Atlantic world Wicked Flesh argues that African women and women of African descent endowed free status with meaning through active aggressive and sometimes unsuccessful intimate and kinship practices Their stories in both their successes and their failures outline a practice of freedom that laid the groundwork for the emancipation struggles of the nineteenth century and reshaped the New World Making and Remaking Mosques in Senegal Cleo Cantone, 2012-04-03 This book constitutes a seminal contribution to the fields of Islamic architectural history and gender studies It is the first major empirical study of the history and current state of mosque building in Senegal and the first study of mosque space from a gender perspective Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa Dallen J. Timothy, 2023-03-13 Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism

Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa. However, despite its salience, there has not been a systematic examination of Africa's heritage resources, markets, policies, practices, successes, and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent's immense heritage value. This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes. It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent. The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage mobilities, globalization, colonialism, and indigeneity, conflict, identity, and nation building, connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade, and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives. The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists, most being from Africa, offering a truly African perspective. The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent. This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism, cultural studies, heritage studies, geography, anthropology, sociology, history, and global studies. The Native Problem in Africa Raymond Leslie Buell, Bureau of International Research of Harvard University and Radcliffe College, 1928 South-eastern Asia, Indian archipelago, Australia and Polynesia, Africa, America Andrew Davidson, 1892 Geographical Pathology: South-eastern Asia, Indian archipelago, Australia and Polynesia, Africa, America Andrew Davidson, 1892 Africans In Colonial Louisiana Gwendolyn Midlo Hall, 1995-07. Although a number of important studies of American slavery have explored the formation of slave cultures in the English colonies, no book until now has undertaken a comprehensive assessment of the development of the distinctive Afro-Creole culture of colonial Louisiana. This culture, based upon a separate language community with its own folkloric, musical, religious, and historical traditions, was created by slaves brought directly from Africa to Louisiana before 1731. It still survives as the acknowledged cultural heritage of tens of thousands of people of all races in the southern part of the state. In this pathbreaking work, Gwendolyn Midlo Hall studies Louisiana's creole slave community during the eighteenth century, focusing on the slaves' African origins, the evolution of their own language and culture, and the role they played in the formation of the broader society, economy, and culture of the region. Hall bases her study on research in a wide range of archival sources in Louisiana, France, and Spain and employs several disciplines: history, anthropology, linguistics, and folklore in her analysis. Among the topics she considers are the French slave trade from Africa to Louisiana, the ethnic origins of the slaves, and relations between African slaves and native Indians. She gives special consideration to race mixture between Africans, Indians, and whites; to the role of slaves in the Natchez Uprising of 1729; to slave unrest and conspiracies, including the Pointe Coupee conspiracies of 1791 and 1795; and to the development of communities of runaway slaves in the cypress swamps around New
