How can Christians effectively engage today's world while staying true to Scripture? Calling us to listen well to both the Word and the world, John Stott shows how Christianity can preserve its authentic identity and remain relevant to current realities. With pastoral wisdom and clear biblical exposition, Stott helps readers understand the central role of the Word of God in the church and the individual lives of all followers of Jesus. New-York Observer, 1910

Stewardship Mandate Ashley L. Hodge, 2005-06 Christ says From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded. Luke 12:48 We live in an age of unparalleled resources and comfort. To the Christian, this represents an opportunity and a responsibility. Christians have a tremendous opportunity to do the maximum amount of good to the maximum amount of people. We also have a responsibility to be good managers of all that God entrusts to us: time, abilities, health, and finances. If you desire to become an increasingly excellent steward of all the resources God has given you, then you will benefit from reading Stewardship Mandate. Stewardship Mandate will give you a blueprint for living and making progress in the area of whole life stewardship, making the most of time, abilities, health, and finances. You will learn how to develop a stewardship plan for your life. This plan will help you set goals, monitor, and track your progress in the crucial area of stewardship in your Christian life. J. C. Ryle says Heaven is a prepared place for a prepared people. We will be asked to give an account of our stewardship at death. Will you be prepared to do so on the day you meet God? Interior, 1918 The Interior, 1905 Issues for Jan 12, 1888; Jan 1889 include monthly Magazine supplement Continent, 1912 Directory of Churches in New Jersey New Jersey Historical Records Survey Project, 1941 The Christian Advocate, 1899

Threescore and Ten Barry Blackstone, 2024-12-23 Threescore and Ten is a book of reflections and remembrances of a country boy turned city pastor compiled throughout his seventieth year of life. These are the observations and opinions of a man who has been a preacher of the gospel for over fifty years, who became a widower during his seventieth year, and who had to alter and adjust his ministry far beyond his comfort zone because of the COVID pandemic. Travel with this pastor from the coast of Maine as he takes the reader through the dramatic and difficult changes that have engulfed Christianity in his lifetime in ways not always to his liking. Within these pages, the reader will discover that this old-fashioned man of the cloth believes that the philosophy of the Stranger of Galilee and the theology of Jesus of Nazareth are still relevant and could be prevalent again in the twenty-first century just like they were in the first century if only Christianity would return to the tenets and truths of the faith established by its founder. The Christ contained within this book is a lifetime of study, service, and supplications of a nobody who has tried to tell everybody about somebody that can save anybody. This is the prayer of this threescore and ten pastor heading for fourscore: The days of our years are threescore years and ten, and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Ps 90:10

Reopening the Word Marie Noonan Sabin, 2002 In Reopening the Word, Marie Sabin argues that Mark's gospel represents an early and evolving Christianity which shaped its theological discourse out of the forms familiar to early Judaism. The Christian Witness and Advocate of Bible Holiness, 1899 The Churchman
