Old Testament Quotations in the Fourth Gospel M. J. J. Menken,1996 From the very beginning of Christianity Jesus followers have tried to legitimize their views of him with the help of the Scriptures This means that if we wish to understand the beginning of the Christian church and of Christian theology we have to examine the early Christian use of the Old Testament A conspicuous way of using the Scriptures consists in directly quoting from them Eleven OT quotations in the Fourth Gospel are the topic of this study These eleven quotations in fact the majority of John s OT quotations differ from the known versions of the OT but are not free paraphrases of the OT text in some cases it is not immediately clear from which passage precisely the evangelist quotes This state of affairs raises the questions which OT passages in which versions John used and how and why the quotations were modified In this study the questions of source and of redaction are dealt with in their interrelationship Can we adequately explain the form of a quotation by taking into account Johannine redaction of an OT passage in a textual form which we know which we can reasonably argue Results of research in the field of early Jewish and early Christian exegetical techniques and devices are of course taken into account Each of the eleven quotations is scrutinized on the points of source and redaction It appears that John mostly used the LXX but that where that translation did not suit his purposes he either translated the Hebrew himself or used an other translation He modified the quotations in agreement with extant exegetical rules and for christological reasons This study gives new insight into an aspect of the early Christian use of Scripture The Ballad Book of John Jacob Niles John Jacob Niles,2021-12-14 A legend in the folk music community John Jacob Niles enjoyed a lengthy career as a balladeer folk collector and songwriter Ever close to his Kentucky roots he spent much of his adulthood searching for the most well loved songs of the southern Appalachia The Ballad Book of John Jacob Niles brings together a wealth of songs with the stories that inspired them arranged by a gifted performer This new edition includes all of the melodies text commentary and illustrations of the 1961 original and features a new introduction by Ron Pen director of the John Jacob Niles Center for American Music at the University of Kentucky The

Witness Function of the Old Testament Characters in the Gospel of John Sanghee M. Ahn,2014-06-16 This book investigates the narrative function of the Old Testament characters in the Gospel of John The intriguing thesis is that the Hebrew characters in John's narrative uniformly function as a witness for the messianic identity of Jesus. The Jewish scriptural traditions Hebrew and intertestamental ones are compared to shed light on John's indebtedness for its formation of his Christology. A compelling argument ensues that informs our understanding not only of the Gospel itself but also of Jesus Christ revealed in the Gospel.
