THE GOTHIC TEXT Marshall Brown, 2005. Combining a new genealogy for the gothic novel with original research into gothic contexts in German idealist thought and romantic psychology. The Gothic Text offers lively readings of British and Continental novels pointing back toward the Enlightenment and ahead toward Freud.

Globalgothic Glennis Byron, 2015-11-01. The dead travel fast and in our contemporary globalised world so too does the gothic. Examining how gothic has been globalised and globalisation made gothic, this collection of essays explores an emerging globalgothic that is simultaneously a continuation of the western tradition and a wholesale transformation of that tradition which expands the horizons of the gothic in diverse new and exciting ways. Globalgothic contains essays from some of the leading scholars in gothic studies as well as offering insights from new scholars in the field. The contributors consider a wide range of different media including literary texts, film, dance, music, cyberculture, computer games and graphic novels. This book will be essential reading for all students and academics interested in the gothic in international literature, cinema and cyberspace.

Ecogothic in Nineteenth-Century American Literature Dawn Keetley, Matthew Sivils, 2017-11-15. First Published in 2017. The first of its kind to address the ecogothic in American literature, this collection of fourteen articles illuminates a new and provocative literacy category: one that exists at the crossroads of the gothic and the environmental imagination of fear and the ecosystems we inhabit.

Secular Theology Clayton Crockett, 2021-12-24. Secular Theology brings together new writings by some of America's most influential theological and religious thinkers on the viability of secular theology. Critically assessing Radical Orthodoxy and putting American radical theology in context, it provides new resources for philosophical theology. Themes covered include postmodern theology, ethics, psychoanalysis, the death of God, and medieval theology.
