Ending Autocracy, Enabling Democracy Robert I. Rotberg, 2004-05-13 In this comprehensive narrative of the political and economic evolution of Africa Robert I Rotberg explains the critical events players and policies in the continent's tumultuous shift toward democracy The book reviews the process of decolonization throughout the continent and subsequent debut of democracy and authoritarianism the transition of settler run Rhodesia into African Zimbabwe and the battle for Southern Africa Rotberg then traces the epic struggle to free South Africa from the yoke of apartheid including the contributions of leaders such as Nelson Mandela He concludes with a look at how current developments will affect Africa's continuing transition to democratic rule into the 21st century The book includes a collection of Rotberg's best opinion pieces and analytical articles from 40 years of reporting on Africa's democratic efforts

Leadership and the Problem of Electoral Democracy in Africa E. Ike Udogu, 2016-12-14 This volume explores the notion that African leaders are fundamentally responsible for electoral malfeasance throughout the continent The quagmire of fixing elections in order to stay in power ad infinitum has frequently led and will continue to lead to political violence civil wars internal displacement of citizens international refugee crises and economic malaise with its attendant crisis of underdevelopment This book provides five case studies selected from Anglophone Francophone and Lusophone Africa that illustrate some variations and similarities in the dilemma of electoral democracy in this epoch of Africa's democratic experiment It suggests among other factors Colin Powell's and Abraham Lincoln's theoretical templates as pointers for African political chiefs in their struggle for democratic consolidation a successful move that could advance national legitimacy and political stability critical for impressive development in this millennium

State, Land and Democracy in Southern Africa Arrigo Pallotti, Corrado Tornimbeni, 2016-03-03 Each country in southern Africa has a unique history but in all of them socio economic inequalities and high poverty levels weaken the governments legitimacy and represent a challenge to models of economic development One key issue appears to be the solution of the land question This vital concern affects both citizenship and democracy in the political systems of the region yet no government has shown the capacity or commitment to solve it In this volume leading European American and African scholars explore in detail the relationship between state land and democracy They examine the historical background of asset allocation and its impact on questions of nationality the definition of citizenship human rights and the current political and economic processes in southern Africa

Transformative Political Leadership Robert I. Rotberg, 2012-05-09 Accomplished political leaders have a clear strategy for turning political visions into reality Through well honed analytical political and emotional intelligence leaders chart paths to promising futures that include economic growth material prosperity and human well being Alas such leaders are rare in the developing world where often institutions are weak and greed and corruption strong and where responsible leadership therefore has the potential to effect the greatest change In Transformative Political Leadership Robert I Rotberg focuses on the role of leadership in politics and argues that accomplished leaders demonstrate a particular set of skills Through illustrative case studies of leaders who have performed ably in the developing world among them Nelson Mandela in South Africa Seretse Khama in Botswana Lee Kuan Yew in Singapore and Kemal Ataturk in Turkey Rotberg examines how these leaders transformed their respective countries The importance of capable leadership is woefully understudied in political science and this book will be an important tool in exploring how leaders lead and how nations and institutions are built      Exodus From Empire Terrence E.

Paupp,2006-11-20 This book lays out a comprehensive vision for a new world order based on cooperation between the developing world and leading Left countries in Latin America Arguing that the ravages of corporate capitalism are unsustainable Terrence E Paupp presents an energetic critique of the problems of empire and looks ahead to a global countermovement against the IMF and US hegemony      New Leaders, New Dawns? Chris Brown,David Moore,Blair Rutherford,2022-06-17 In late 2017 and early 2018 South Africa and Zimbabwe both experienced rapid and unexpected political transitions In Zimbabwe Robert Mugabe the only leader the country had ever known was replaced in a soft coup by his erstwhile vice president Emmerson Mnangagwa Over a twelve day period in February 2018 South African president Jacob Zuma was prematurely forced from office by his former deputy president Cyril Ramaphosa The widespread popular rejoicing that accompanied their arrival compounded the shock of these sudden transitions New Leaders New Dawns explores these political transitions and the way they were received Contributors consider how the former liberation heroes Mugabe and Zuma could have fallen so low the underlying reasons for their ouster what happened to their liberation movements turned ruling parties and perhaps most importantly what the rise to power of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa foreshadowed Bringing together fourteen leading international scholars of southern Africa and adopting a political economy framework this volume argues that the changes in leadership are welcome but insufficient While the time had come for Zuma and Mugabe to go there is little in the personal histories or early policy actions of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa that suggests they will be capable of addressing the profound social economic and political problems both countries face New Leaders New Dawns reveals that despite what these new leaders may have promised a new dawn has not yet arrived in southern Africa

Post-colonial Africa Godfrey Mwakikagile,2014-08-06 This work is a general survey of Africa during the post colonial era The author looks at how African countries have fared under post colonial governments the challenges they have faced through the years and their successes and failures He also looks at Africa as a whole during the lost decades wasted years when performance of most countries in the political and economic arena was not what the people had expected They were some of the worst years in the history of post colonial Africa Poor economic performance abuse of power the brain drain caused by bad government policies and authoritarian rule forcing tens of thousands of Africans to flee their countries mostly to the West and most of them highly educated what Africa needs to do in order to develop why there is an imperative need to empower the people at the grassroots level land grab by foreign investors at the expense of peasants and others and how globalisation has affected Africa since the nineties when it became such a potent force after the end of the Cold War are some of the subjects the author has also addressed in the book It is sweeping survey of the continent intended for the general reader and for members of the academic community

Confronting the Challenges and Prospects in the Creation of a Union of African States in the 21st Century E. Ike Udogu, 2010-02-19 Confronting the Challenges and Prospects in the Creation of a Union of African States in the 21st Century frames the discourse around the important issue of African unification against the backdrop of the region s political and economic marginalization Arguably the richest continent in the world in terms of its abundant untapped natural resources and human capital it still lags behind the other regions of the world developmentally Undeniably Africa is at the crossroads in this millennium within the context of the powerful events and effects of the New Globalization One of the central issues that academics and political actors interested in African development must tackle immediately is how to make the region politically and economically relevant in global affairs These objectives could be attained through continental amalgamation Accordingly this book debates and suggests inter alia strategies that might advance Africa s unification effort in order to provide the politico economic clout needed to spur continental development Further it argues that such a Union of African States is critical for promoting the good political life for all Africans

Rotberg,2009-10-01 Africa has long attracted China We can date their first certain involvement from the fourteenth century but East African city states may have been trading with southern China even earlier In the mid twentieth century Maoist China funded and educated sub Saharan African anticolonial liberation movements and leaders and the PRC then assisted new sub Saharan nations Africa and China are now immersed in their third and most transformative era of heavy engagement one that promises to do more for economic growth and poverty alleviation than anything attempted by Western colonialism or international aid programs Robert Rotberg and his Chinese African and other colleagues discuss this important trend and specify its likely implications Among the specific topics tackled here are China s interest in African oil military and security relations the influx and goals of Chinese aid to sub Saharan Africa human rights issues and China s overall strategy in the region China s insatiable demand for energy and raw materials responds to sub Saharan Africa s relatively abundant supplies of unprocessed metals diamonds and gold while offering a growing market for Africa s agriculture and light manufactures As this book illustrates this evolving symbiosis could be the making of Africa the poorest and most troubled continent while it further powers China s expansive economic machine Contributors include Deborah Brautigam American University Harry Broadman World Bank Stephen Brown University of

Governance and Leadership in Africa Robert I. Rotberg, 2014-09-29 Many of the problems in Africa today including widespread poverty and civil unrest can be traced to the continents legacy of bad governance In the post independence period authoritarian strongmen took control of many countries enriching themselves and their cronies by exploiting the peoples labor and their countrys resources In recent years however a growing number of African states have embraced democratic principles and established transparent and open governments In this book the noted Africa scholar Dr Robert Rotberg examines the current state of governance and leadership in Africa He discusses the various types of government found in the continent clearly showing the correlation between the quality of a countrys leadership and the quality of life enjoyed by that countrys people

West Germany and Namibia's Path to Independence, 1969-1990 Thorsten Kern, 2019-06-05 Namibia s main liberation movement the South West Af rica People s Organisation SWAPO relied heavily on outside support for its armed struggle against South Africa s occupation of what it called South West Africa While East Germany s solidarity with Namibia s struggle for national self determination has received attention little research has been done on West Germany s policy towards Namibia which must be seen in the light of inter German rivalry The impact of the wider realities of the Cold War on Namibia s rocky path to independence leaves ample room for research and new interpretations In this study Thorsten Kern shows that German division played a vital role in West Germany s position towards Namibia during the Cold War The two states deeply diverging policies characterised in this context by competition for influence over SWAPO were strongly affected by the Cold War rivalry between the capitalist West and the communist East Yet ultimately the dynamics of rapprochement helped to bring about Namibia s independence This book is based upon a doctoral dissertation presented to the University of Cape Town in 2016 Kern conducted research in the National Archives of Namibia and in German archives and his work draws on interviews with contemporary witnesses

Building a New Afghanistan Robert I. Rotberg, 2007-08-29 In the wake of the Taliban nightmare Afghanistan must tackle serious problems before it can emerge as a confident independent nation Security in this battered state continues to deteriorate suicide bombings convoy ambushes and insurgent attacks are all too common

Effective state building will depend upon eliminating the national security crisis and enhancing the rule of law This book offers a blueprint for moving the embattled nation toward greater democracy and prosperity Robert Rotberg and his colleagues argue that the future success of state building in Afghanistan depends on lessening its dependence on opium and enhancing its economic status Many of Afghanistan s security problems are related to poppy growing opium and heroin production and drug trafficking Building a New Afghanistan suggests controversial new alternatives to immediate eradication which is foolish and counter productive These options include monetary incentives for growing wheat a viable local crop Greater wheat production would feed hungry Afghans while reducing narco trafficking and the terror that comes with it Integrating this land locked country into the Central Asia or greater Eurasia economy would open up trading partnerships with its northern and western neighbors as well as with Pakistan India and possibly China Developing a sense of common purpose among citizens would benefit the economy and could help to unite the nation Perhaps most important bolstering better governance in Afghanistan is necessary in order to eliminate chaos and corruption and enact nationwide reforms Fresh and insightful Building a New Afghanistan shows what the country s leadership and the international community should do to resolve dangerous issues and bolster a still fragile state Contributors include Cindy Fazey University of Liverpool Ali Jalali former minister of the interior Afghanistan and National Defense University Hekmat Karzai Centre for Conflict and Peace Studies Afghanistan and Institute of Defense and Strategic Studies Singapore Alistair J McKechnie World Bank Country Director for Afghanistan Paula Newburg Skidmore College and S Frederick Starr Central Asia Caucasus Institute and School of Advanced International Studies Johns Hopkins University
