and Movie Stars Ron Briley, Michael K. Schoenecke, Deborah A. Carmichael, 2021-05-11 Sports films are popular forms of entertainment around the world but beyond simply amusing audiences they also reveal much about class race gender sexuality and national identity In All Stars and Movie Stars Ron Briley Michael K Schoenecke and Deborah A Carmichael explore the interplay between sports films and critical aspects of our culture examining them as both historical artifacts and building blocks of ideologies values and stereotypes The book covers not only Hollywood hits such as Field of Dreams and Miracle but also documentaries such as The Journey of the African American Athlete and international cinema such as the German film The Miracle of Bern The book also explores television coverage of sports commenting on the relationship of media to golf and offering a new perspective on the culture and politics behind the depictions of the world s most popular pastimes The first part of the book addresses how sports films represent the cultural events patterns and movements of the times in which they were set as well as the effect of the media and athletic industry on the athletes themselves Latham Hunter examines how the baseball classic The Natural reflects traditional ideas about gender heroism and nation and Harper Cossar addresses how the production methods used in televised golf affect viewers The second section deals with issues such as the growth of women s involvement in athletics sexual preference in the sports world and the ever present question of race by looking at sports classics such as Rocky Hoosiers and A League of Their Own Finally the authors address the historical and present day role sports play in the international and political arena by examining such films as Visions of Eight and The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner This important and unique collection illuminates the prominent role that sports play in society and how that role is reflected in film Analysis of the depiction of sports in film and television provides a deeper understanding of the appeal that sports hold for people worldwide and of the forces behind the historic and cultural traditions linked to sports Merchant Vessels of the United States... United States. Coast Guard, 1976 Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries Zachary Ingle, David M. Suter, 2013 Nonfiction films about sports have been around for decades yet few scholarly articles have been published on these works In Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries editors Zachary Ingle and David M Sutera have assembled a collection of essays that show how myth and identity national religious ethnic and racial are constructed perpetuated or questioned in documentaries produced in the United States France Australia Germany and Japan This collection is divided into three sections American Identity and Myth contains essays on consumerism religion in sports and post 9 11 America Race and Ethnicity examines the ways in which African American Mexican American and Jewish identity are portrayed in the documentaries under discussion Global Perspectives features films and TV series produced outside of the United States or those that provide perspectives on the international sport scene Spanning several decades the landmark documentaries discussed in this volume include Hoop Dreams The Endless Summer The Life and Times of Hank Greenberg Olympia and Tokyo Olympiad and address such subjects as baseball football basketball boxing soccer surfing and the Olympics The essays pose such questions as How are notions of the American dream involved in athletes aspirations How do media texts from Australia or France construct Australian and French identity respectively and How did filmmakers such as Leni Riefenstahl Kon Ichikawa and Bud Greenspan infuse their Olympic documentaries with national ideology despite being intended for an international audience By tackling these subjects Identity and Myth in Sports Documentaries is an intriguing read for scholars students and the general public alike
