Enduring Love My Life With The Shah A Memoir:

An Enduring Love Farah Pahlavi, 2005-04-06 A moving story of the former Empress of Iran now in paperback At the age of twenty one Farah Diba married the Shah of Iran Mohammed Reza Shah Pahlavi A loving marriage the raising of four children and a devotion to social and cultural causes marked her early years as queen although there were already signs of grave national diversions on the horizon Twenty years later the dream had turned into a nightmare demonstrations and riots shook the country and Farah and the Shah decided to leave in order to avoid bloodshed With the hardcover publication of An Enduring Love a New York Times bestseller extended list in 2004 Farah Diba wife of the last emperor of Iran broke her silence and told the wrenching story of her love for a man and his country Her compelling memoir offers an intimate view of a time of upheaval but stands above all as a powerful human document from one whose life was caught up in an epic and tragic national struggle

An Enduring Love Empress Farah (consort of Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, Shah of Iran), 2004-03-10 Her story began like a fairytale At the age of 21 Farah Diba married the shah of Iran Mohammed Reza Shah Pahlavi Her coronation as empress of Iran was covered by the world s press and overnight she became an international celebrity Her early years were marked by a loving marriage and the raising of four children but they were signs of a division approaching Twenty years later demonstrations and riots caused the shah and his family to flee the county This is an intimate view of a time of upheaval and is a powerful human document revealing a nation s epic struggle

Nixon, Kissinger, and the Shah Roham Alvandi, 2016-11 In this revisionist account of U S Iran relations during the Cold War Roham Alvandi provides a detailed historical study of the partnership that Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi of Iran forged with U S President Richard Nixon and his adviser Henry Kissinger in the 1970s

The Last Shah Ray Takeyh, 2021-01-26 The surprising story of Iran s transformation from America s ally in the Middle East into one of its staunchest adversaries An original interpretation that puts Iranian actors where they belong at center stage Michael Doran Wall Street Journal An extraordinary account Deeply nuanced and eloquent Benjamin Weinthal Jerusalem Post Offering a new view of one of America s most important infamously strained and widely misunderstood relationships of the postwar era this book tells the history of America and Iran from the time the last shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi was placed on the throne in 1941 to the 1979 revolution that brought the present Islamist government to power This revolution was not as many believe the popular overthrow of a powerful and ruthless puppet of the United States rather it followed decades of corrosion of Iran s political establishment by an autocratic ruler who demanded fealty but lacked the personal strength to make hard decisions and ultimately lost the support of every sector of Iranian society Esteemed Middle East scholar Ray Takeyh provides new interpretations of many key events including the 1953 coup against Prime Minister Mohammad Mossadeq and the rise of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini significantly revising our understanding of America and Iran s complex and difficult history books Dining with the Rich and Royal Fiona Ross, 2016-10-17 Dining with the Rich and Royal is a marvelous journey into the gastronomic peccadilloes of the great the good and the not so good When the world is at your feet what is on your table Dining with the Rich and Royal serves up the glamour of the jet set on a plate from the silver spoon to the last Kleenex wipe We follow the food adventures of Hilton Hefner and Howard Hughes the great transatlantic dynasties Onassis the Vanderbilts the Astors and the Rothschilds Royals watchers and history twitchers will find out the effect of too many fairy feasts on Ludwig of Bavaria how Hirohito and Ibn Saud tasted East Meets West diplomacy Would you try the cake that killed Rasputin or suck on a suicide sweet with Antony and Cleo Was it sex or raspberry souffl that won Mrs Simpson a king s heart It s all here a succession of abdications executions revolutions coronations tales of toothache and posh picnics spiced with the odd military coup or two Mind your manners now The Shah Abbas Milani, 2011-01-04 The definitive biography of the last Shah of Iran tracing his dramatic rise and fall and his role in the creation of the contemporary Islamic Republic Though his monarchy was toppled in 1979 and he died in 1980 the life of Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlevi the last Shah of Iran continues to resonate today Here internationally respected author Abbas Milani gives us the definitive biography more than ten years in the making of the monarch who shaped Iran s modern age and with it the contemporary politics of the Middle East The Shah s was a life filled with contradiction as a social reformer he built schools increased equality for women and greatly reduced the power of the Shia clergy He made Iran a global power courting Western leaders from Churchill to Carter and nationalized his country s many natural resources But he was deeply conflicted and insecure in his powerful role Intolerant of political dissent he was eventually overthrown by the very people whose loyalty he so desperately sought This comprehensive and gripping account shows us how Iran went from politically moderate monarchy to totalitarian Islamic republic Milani reveals the complex and sweeping road that would bring the U S and Iran to where they are today A World of Trouble Patrick Tyler, 2009 Evaluating the ways in which the United States s relationship with the Middle East influences foreign policy a historical analysis of America s presence in the region traces the positive and negative efforts by presidents from Eisenhower to George W Bush Queen Soraya, Her Divorce Destroyed A Dynasty R W Kay, 2025-09-28 Soraya Bakhtiari was born in Isfahan in 1932 to a German Protestant mother and Iranian Muslim father After schooling in Iran and Switzerland she was a student in London when aged eighteen she married the Shah of Iran in 1951 Three months later a revolution headed by Prime Minister Mosaddeq to nationalise the Anglo Iranian Oil Company was defeated in a coup d tat organised by the American CIA Soraya s success as Empress creating sanatoriums a special women s and children s hospital in Tehran a girls summer school on the Caspian Sea evening literacy classes and a publishing house translating classic books into Farsi resulted in her becoming the most popular member of the royal family The Shah his mother and sisters bitterly resented having to play second fiddle However not having conceived an heir in seven years became the basis for a bitter divorce The Shah failed to persuade Soraya he should take a second wife He publicly blamed her for their breakup

Underestimating her popularity the decline in the Shah's reputation began. Subsequent mistakes made during his rule accumulated over the years until a demonstration of over six million people protesting against his regime forced him into exile.

Women, Art, and Literature in the Iranian Diaspora Mehraneh Ebrahimi, 2019-05-09 Does the study of aesthetics have tangible effects in the real world? Does examining the work of diaspora writers and artists change our view of the Other? In this thoughtful book Ebrahimi argues that an education in the humanities is as essential as one in politics and ethics, critically training the imagination toward greater empathy. Despite the surge in Iranian memoirs, their contributions to debunking an abstract idea of terror and their role in encouraging democratic thinking remain understudied. In examining creative work by women of Iranian descent, Ebrahimi argues that Shirin Neshat, Marjane Satrapi, and Parsua Bashi make the Other familiar and break a cycle of reactionary xenophobia. These authors, instead of relying on indignation, build imaginative bridges in their work that make it impossible to blame one evil external enemy. Ebrahimi explores both classic and hybrid art forms, including graphic novels and photo poetry, to advocate for the importance of aesthetics to inform and influence a global community. Drawing on the theories of Rancière, Butler, Arendt, and Levinas, Ebrahimi identifies the ways in which these works give a human face to the Other, creating the space and language to imagine a new political and ethical landscape.

Creating the Modern Iranian Woman Liora Hendelman-Baavur, 2019-11-07 A fresh look at Iranian popular culture and women's role within this prior to the 1979 Revolution.

The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2015-04-03 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians, many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences. Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture, English language, and Western cultures, this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature, but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian, African, and Asian writing in English. Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio-political position and historical context from which they have emerged. Fotouhi brings together, introduces, and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English. While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism, Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora. Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration, narration, and identity, Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs, maintains, and negotiates their individual and communal identities and reflects today's socio-political realities. This book will be vital for researchers of Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West, as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East.

Familiar and Foreign Manijeh Mannani, Veronica Thompson, 2015-09-30 The current political climate of confrontation between Islamist regimes and Western governments has resulted in the proliferation of essentialist perceptions of Iran and Iranians in the West. Such perceptions do not reflect the complex evolution of Iranian identity that occurred in the years following the Constitutional Revolution 1906-11 and the anti-imperialist Islamic Revolution of 1979. Despite the Iranian government's determined pursuance of anti-Western policies and strict conformity to religious principles, the film and literature of Iran reflect the clash between a nostalgic pride in Persian tradition and an apparent infatuation with a more Eurocentric modernity. In Familiar and Foreign, Mannani and Thompson set out to explore the tensions surrounding the ongoing formulation of Iranian identity by bringing together essays on poetry, novels, memoir, and films. These include both canonical and less widely theorized texts as well as works of literature written in English by authors living in diaspora. Challenging neocolonialist stereotypes, these critical excursions into Iranian literature and film reveal the limitations of collective identity as it has been configured within and outside of Iran. Through the examination of works by, among others, the iconic female poet Forugh Farrokhzad, the expatriate author Goli Taraghi, the controversial memoirist Azar Nafisi, and the graphic novelist Marjane Satrapi, author of Persepolis, this volume engages with the complex and contested discourses of religion, patriarchy, and politics that are the contemporary product of Iran's long and revolutionary history.

A Symphony of Life Simin Redjali, 2013 A Symphony of Life: Triumph of Education over Adversity: A Journey of a Persian American Woman Through War, Revolution, Love, and Freedom. The story of Dr. Redjali, a well-known public figure in Iran in the mid-twentieth century, begins in Iran, Persia, during the time of Iran's westernization and modernization spearheaded by Reza Shah Pahlavi at the beginning of the 20th century and follows the social, historical, political, turmoil, and educational events of the past seventy years in Iran, in Europe, and in the United States. Like a symphony, this book is composed of four movements. Through these movements, the author weaves the notes of her life into melodies of social and historical changes, upheavals, wars, revolutions, and peace. She traces her own transition from being part of Iran's ruling class to her job-seeking struggles in the United States. This provides the reader, through the author's firsthand experience, with many of the great events of the 20th century: a personal account of Iran's contemporary history and politics, education, along with an eye-witness account of the United States civil rights movement, the women's rights struggle, other important issues related to psychology and mental health, and personal issues such as surviving cancer in the United States. Her story encompasses shifts in the tempos and melodies of life along with a leitmotif of love, of family, individual freedom, and unwavering hope for humanity. The book illustrates the personal approach the author has adopted throughout her life in coping with and overcoming every adversity through using the power of education. It is also a testament to a woman's ability to balance all the facets of her life, career, demands family responsibilities emotional needs and the quest to help others This book with historical pictures uniquely covers the period between the rise and the fall of the Pahlavi dynasty the rise of the Islamic Republic of Iran and the author's personal life in Europe and the United States It is supported by extensive research and expresses a great hope that the longstanding cultural misunderstanding and miscommunication between Iran and the West will soon be replaced with a mutual respect which celebrates the power of individual freedom and democracy

Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa Ghada Talhami, 2013 The overriding theme of this work is that women's struggles human rights myths and literary expression are indispensable to an understanding of the modern culture and socio political development of the Middle East region The work demonstrates that no aspect of Middle Eastern history and modern evolution was shaped in isolation of women's lives and contributions to society The dictionary covers the biographies and written work of prominent historical female figures in the Middle East and North Africa as well as 20th century feminists both male and female who advanced women's rights over many years The Historical Dictionary of Women in the Middle East and North Africa includes a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and a dictionary section that has over 400 cross referenced entries on various aspects of Middle Eastern feminism and culture touching upon religious themes such as Sharia laws Islamic marriage divorce and inheritance practices This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the culture and history of women in the Middle East and North Africa
