Power Struggles Thibault Martin, Steven M. Hoffman, 2008-05-15 Power Struggles Hydro Development and First Nations in Manitoba and Quebec examines the evolution of new agreements between First Nations and Inuit and the hydro corporations in Quebec and Manitoba including the Wuskwatim Dam Project Paix des Braves and the Great Whale Project In the 1970s both provinces signed so called modern treaties with First Nations for the development of large hydro projects in Aboriginal territories In recent times however the two provinces have diverged in their implementation and public opinion of these agreements has ranged from celebratory to outrage Power Struggles brings together perspectives on these issues from both scholars and activists In debating the relative merits and limits of these agreements they raise a crucial question Is Canada on the eve of a new relationship with First Nations or do the same colonial attitudes that have long characterized Canadian Aboriginal relations still prevail

International Congress Calendar, 1991 Canada: the State of the Federation 1993 Douglas M. Brown, 1993-04 Do Institutions Matter? R. Kent Weaver, Bert A. Rockman, 2010-12-01 As a stunning tide of democratization sweeps across much of the world countries must cope with increasing problems of economic development political and social integration and greater public demand of scarce resources That ability to respond effectively to these issues depends largely on the institutional choices of each of these newly democratizing countries With critics of national political institutions in the United States arguing that the American separation of powers system promotes ineffectiveness and policy deadlock many question whether these countries should emulate American institutions or choose parliamentary institutions instead The essays in this book fully examine whether parliamentary government is superior to the separation of powers system through a direct comparison of the two In addressing specific policy areas such as innovation and implementation of energy policies after the oil shocks of 1970 management of societal cleavages setting of government priorities in budgeting representation of diffuse interest in environmental policy and management of defense forces the authors define capabilities that allow governments to respond to policy problems Do Institutions Matter includes case studies that bear important evidence on when and how institutions influence government effectiveness The authors discover a widespread variation among parliamentary systems both in institutional arrangements and in governmental capabilities and find that many of the failings of policy performance commonly attributed to American political institutions are in fact widely shared among western industrial countries Moreover they show how American political institutions inhibit some government capabilities while enhancing others Changing American institutions to improve some aspects of governmental performance could hurt other widely valued capabilities The authors draw important guidelines for institutional reformers wh Nations against the State M. Keating, 1996-02-07 This is a comparative study of nationalism and nation building in Quebec Catalonia and Scotland All are historic nations within larger states Nationalism is presented as a mechanism for dealing with the place of the territorial society in the new order It is no longer concerned with the creation of a traditional nation state but with maximizing autonomy in a world where the nation state has lost its old powers and status The Order of the Solar Temple Professor James R Lewis, 2013-05-28 In October 1994 fifty three members of the Order of the Solar Temple in Switzerland and Qu bec were murdered or committed suicide This incident and two later group suicides in subsequent years played a pivotal role in inflaming the cult controversy in Europe influencing the public to support harsher actions against non traditional religions Despite the importance of the Order of the Solar Temple there are relatively few studies published in English This book brings together the best scholarship on the Solar Temple including newly commissioned pieces from leading scholars a selection of Solar Temple documents and important previously published articles newly edited for inclusion within this book This is the first book length study of the Order of the Solar Temple to be published in English

Operations Research and Environmental Management Carlo Carraro, Alain Haurie, 2012-12-06 The activities of the Fondazione ENI Enrico Mattei cover a broad spectrum of research topics ranging from economics to engineering from environmental management at the industry or regional level to basic mathematical modelling research It is the combination of the activities on these last two topics that led the Fondazione to organise with the University of Geneva a workshop where operations research tools were designed with the aim to provide national and local policy makers with appropriate analytical and policy instruments for environmental management In the recent past attention has often been devoted to global environmental issues in which the level of policy making is either international through multi country agreements on emission control or national when environmental policies are designed to control domestic pollution Many environmental problems however have a local or regional dimension Even when their dimension is global e g in the case of the greenhouse gas effect relevant decisions on emission control such as the adoption of energy saving utilities are taken at the local level In many countries the current legislation imposes the local authorities to prepare plans and adopt measures to control energy consumption or to reduce waste of natural resources It is therefore important to analyze the way in which local or regional authorities optimise their environmental management
