Engaged Buddhism Christopher S. Queen, Sallie B. King, 1996-01-01 This is the first comprehensive coverage of socially and politically engaged Buddhism in Asia presenting the historical development and institutional forms of engaged Buddhism in the light of traditional Buddhist conceptions of morality interdependence and liberation Makers of Modern Korean Buddhism Jin Y. Park, 2012-02-01 The first book in English devoted exclusively to modern Korean Buddhism this work provides a comprehensive exploration for scholars students and serious readers Makers of Modern Korean Buddhism focuses on three key areas Buddhist reform Zen revival and the interrelationship of religion history and politics In Korea the modern period in Buddhism begins in earnest in the late nineteenth century during the closing years of the Chos n dynasty which was characterized by a repressive brand of neo Confucianism Buddhist reformers arose to seek change in both Buddhism and Korean society at large The work begins with a look at five of these reformers and their thought and work The Zen revival that began at the end of the nineteenth century is covered from that period to contemporary times through an exploration of the life and thought of important Zen masters The influence of Japanese Buddhist missionaries the emergence of Korean engaged Buddhism known as Minjung Buddhism and the formation of modern Buddhist scholarship in Korea are discussed as well This outstanding collection will be highly valued by the scholarly community for the way it deals comprehensively and insightfully with an important though relatively unexplored topic in the modern era Steven Heine author of Zen Skin Zen Marrow Will the Real Zen Buddhism Please Stand Up Jin Y Park is Associate Professor of Philosophy and Religion at American University She is the author of Buddhism and Postmodernity Zen Huayan and the Possibility of Buddhist Postmodern Ethics and the editor of several books including Buddhisms and Deconstructions Buddhist Public Advocacy and Activism in Thailand Craig M. Pinkerton, 2024-03-21 This book studies Buddhist public advocacy and activism in Thailand a movement often broadly called socially engaged Buddhism from the perspective of rhetorical studies specifically on humanizing and dehumanizing communication practices In modern Thailand and historical Siam Buddhism has been integral to the social change processes shaping civil society and an emerging democracy This study examined two problems How do contemporary Buddhists in Thailand use rhetorical practice to influence the way the issues they work on are understood and how do these Buddhists justify their advocacy and activism in rhetorical practice To the first a rhetoric of dignity or humanization was the central answer To the second a rhetoric of duty was the central answer For researchers in Southeast Asian Studies Thai Studies and Buddhist Studies this book offers a fresh perspective on socially engaged Buddhism through the lens of the communication discipline For researchers in Psychology and Communication it sheds light on the understudied practices of humanizing communication The bulk of the current research is focused on its opposite dehumanization and most of this literature is in the field of psychology even though humanization and dehumanization are fundamentally and ontologically communication phenomena For researchers within the field of Communication and Rhetorical Studies this book advances innovations in the emerging practices of rhetorical field methods by applying rhetorical criticism to interview data in a new way and provides a non western perspective on communication and rhetorical theory for which there has been continual calls Development Monks in Northeast Thailand Phinit Lāpthanānon,2012 Co published with Trans Pacific Press Australia Engaged Buddhism in the West Christopher S.
