Engaging The Shades Of Robben Island:

Engaging the Shades of Robben Island Deela Khan, 2002 Engaging Communities in Cultural Heritage Tuuli Lähdesmäki, Johanna Turunen, Andrei Terian, Renaud Garcia-Bardidia, 2025-09-30 This book explores the concepts and practices of participation and community engagement in cultural heritage examining the impact of the participatory turn in the heritage sector and the key opportunities and challenges it presents Participation has become a widely used umbrella term in the discourses of heritage institutions practitioners and scholars alike This participatory turn represents a shift towards the active involvement of communities stakeholders and the public in decision making processes moving away from traditional top down approaches towards more inclusive and collaborative models in which diverse voices contribute to cultural heritage While the pluralisation of heritage narratives meanings and practices can sometimes give rise to societal tensions this book argues that broader participation is essential for unlocking heritage s transformative potential and future oriented impetus The book explores these issues through 15 case studies drawn from across the globe and organised into three thematic sections social inclusion in heritage practices the role of digital tools in heritage participation and participatory heritage management and governance These case studies contribute to emerging debates on expanding the spaces where heritage participation and community engagement take place Interdisciplinary in nature this book is intended for scholars and professionals working on cultural heritage participation social inclusion digitisation management and community and audience engagement It is also well suited for undergraduate and graduate courses that critically examine heritage participation and community engagement in today s pluralistic societies Shades of Difference Padraig O'Malley, 2025-05-05 Mac Maharaj played a pivotal role in the liberation movement for nearly four decades suffering brutal tortures and twelve years imprisonment on Robben Island with Nelson Mandela It was Maharaj who smuggled out the manuscript of Mandela s autobiography and later re entered South Africa to establish a political and military underground on a mission so secret that only those at the highest levels were even aware of its existence Drawing from extensive interviews with Maharaj over eleven years and hitherto unavailable documents Padraig O Malley vividly renders a true tale of heroism and a gripping insider s look at the struggle for freedom in South Africa The Journal of Commonwealth Literature , 2003 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Ink @ Boiling Point Shelley Barry, Deela Khan, Malika Ndlovu, 2002 Small Press Review , 1998 Shadow of Liberation Vishnu Padayachee, Robert Van Niekerk, 2019-10-01 Shadow of Liberation explores the intricate twists turns contestations and compromises of ANC economic and social policymaking with a focus on the transition era of the 1990 s and the early years of democracy With the damning revelations by the Zondo Commission of Inquiry into State Capture on the massive corruption of the South African body politic the timing of this book could not be more relevant South Africans need to confront the economic and social policy choices that the liberation movement made and to see how these decisions may have facilitated the conditions for corruption to emerge and flourish Answers are needed Padayachee and van Niekerk focus their attention on the primary question of how and why the ANC given its historical anti inequality re distributive stance come in the 1990s to such a dramatic turn around and move towards an essentially market dominated approach Were they pushed or did they go willingly What role if any did Western governments and international financial institutions play And what of the role of the late apartheid state and South African business Did leaders and comrades sell out the ANC s emancipatory policy vision Shadow of Liberation tries to provide answers to these questions drawing on the best available primary archival evidence as well as extensive interviews with key protagonists across the political non government and business spectrum The authors argue that the ANC s emancipatory policy agenda was broadly to establish a social democratic welfare state upholding rights of social citizenship However its economic policy framework to realise this emancipatory mission was either non existent or egregiously misguided

Being in Shadow and Light Dina Zoe Belluigi, 2025-01-06 Academia and its citizens during periods of political violence and social conflict are often overlooked When attention is given the focus tends to be on student activism access to higher education or curriculum development The experiences of academics affected by conflict remain under researched despite the crucial role they play as educators and in generating documenting preserving and challenging knowledges This is particularly concerning given that academics have and continue to be at risk as targets of sanction persecution and oppression This edited volume seeks to address this gap by exploring and evoking the complexities of academic subjectivity place and practice in contexts where intellectual and state authority are contested or in transition It features contributions by academics artists and memory activists who have stepped bravely outside of the parameters of their disciplines with modes of enquiry and representation that include conversations vignettes and case studies critical ethnographies oral life histories interviews poetry and collage Within the ten chapters are consideration of conflicts within Argentina Brazil Colombia England Mexico Nigeria Northern Ireland Palestine South Africa Sri Lanka Syria and Venezuela Being in Shadow and Light encourages a deeper understanding of academics navigation of these difficult conditions The authors insider outsider positioning brings forth the richness of ways through dilemmas of omission trauma displacement inheritance injustice distortion desire Grounding the many social cultural economic and epistemic politics within academia troubles the enclosure of conflict in politics at the grand level as if only within the realm of interest for state and international actors Against sanitising the uncertainties and particularities of being an academic figure the authors reflect on the states and sites of conflict as spaces which shape living This work is a call to recognize document and study the often overlooked subjectivities and contributions of academics thinking and practicing within societies undergoing conflict s and in their aftermath As such it will be of interest to academics students and staff working within universities as well audiences interested in intellectuals and institutions in contexts undergoing change

Dark Tourism and Crime Derek Dalton, 2014-11-20 Dark tourism has become widespread and diverse It has passed into popular culture vernacular deployed in guide books as a short hand descriptor for sites that are associated with death suffering and trauma However whilst books have been devoted to dark tourism as a general topic no single text has sought to explore dark tourism in spaces where crime mass murder genocide State sanctioned torture and violence has occurred as an organising theme Dark Tourism and Crime explores the socio cultural contours of this unique type of tourism and explains why spaces places where crime has occurred fascinate and attract tourists The book is marked by an ethics of respect for the suffering a place has experienced and an imperative to learn something tangible about the history and legacy of that suffering Based on empirical ethnographic research it takes the reader from the remnants of Auschwitz concentration camp to the tranquil Australian island of Tasmania to explore precisely what things a dark tourist might encounter architecture art installations gardens memorials physical traces of crime and how these things invoke and evoke past crimes This volume furthers understanding of dark tourism and will be of interest to students researchers and academics of criminology tourism and cultural studies Dark Tourism Anukrati Sharma, Shruti Arora, Parag Shukla, 2024-10-30 Dark Tourism has seen a surge in popularity in the last decade as people seek a richer travel experience choosing to meaningfully engage with humankind's more troubling heritage rather than opting for merely escapist vacations Ideological
