Marx' Method, Epistemology, and Humanism P.J. Kain, 2012-12-06 In recent writings on Marx one finds an increasing interest in his humanism This phenomenon began in the third decade of our century as a reaction against the mechanistic and stereotyped image of Marx 1 characteristic of the Second International and of Stalinism Lukacs in History and Class Consciousness 1923 was one of the first to discover this new Marx and he did so even before the most important 2 of the humanistic writings of the young Marx had been discovered With the publication of these writings in 1932 namely the Economic 3 and Philosophic Manuscripts of 1844 this new outlook was given enormous impetus In these Manuscripts Marx makes the human being the creator and the goal of all reality The objectification of the human essence through labor transforms both society and nature Labor transforms its world into a place which mirrors unfolds and confirms the human being This humanism is a complex and many faceted issue In this book we will be concerned only with a certain part of it i e the epistemology method and doctrine of nature which it involves Other aspects of it Marx concept of alienation and his theory of labor and the state have 4 been dealt with elsewhere Marx at 200 Gilbert Faccarello, Heinz D. Kurz, 2020-09-10 The book provides new vistas on Karl Marx's political economy philosophy and politics on the occasion of his 200th birthday Often using hitherto unknown material from the recently published Marx Engels Gesamtausgabe the MEGA2 edition the contributions throw new light on Marx's works and activities the sources he used and the discussions he had correcting received opinions on his doctrines The themes dealt with include Marx's concepts of alienation and commodity fetishism the labour theory of value and the theory of exploitation Marx's studies of capital accumulation and economic growth and his analysis of economic crises and of the labour contract Novel developments in the reception of his works in France and the UK conclude the volume This book was originally published as a special issue of The European Journal of the History of Economic Thought Bibliographical Contributions, 1936 Bibliographical Contributions - United States Department of Agriculture Library, 1936 Bibliographical Contributions National Agricultural Library (U.S.), 1939 Access Vernaculars Cassandra Hartblay, 2025-10-15 Access Vernaculars explores moments when accessible design fails Observing how both disabled and nondisabled people in Russia recognize and point out poorly executed accessible design in built environments ethnographer Cassandra Hartblay traces how disabled people in one Russian city narrate experiences of pervasive inaccess and interprets popular images of failed accessibility as critiques of the Russian state and able nationalism In the process Hartblay asks how disability advocacy movements proceed when able nationalism co-opts accessibility and calls for a critical global disability studies that pushes back against Euro American hegemony Through the stories disabled people tell about access and inaccess this book examines local terminology used by those with mobility impairments to describe the built environment a unique lexicon combining translated terms from global disability advocacy with Russophone words inherited from generations of political advocacy These ethnographic accounts demonstrate the ways vocabularies of disability access spread in friction taking on dynamic and unexpected meanings in transnational sociopolitical contexts

Access Vernaculars presents a global perspective on the intersection of critical disability studies and sociocultural anthropology Religion, Intolerance, and Conflict Steve Clarke, Russell Powell, Julian Savulescu, 2013-05-30 The relationship between religion intolerance and conflict has been the subject of intense discussion particularly in the wake of the events of 9 11 and the ongoing threat of terrorism This book contains original papers written by some of the world s leading scholars in anthropology psychology philosophy and theology exploring the scientific and conceptual dimensions of religion and human conflict Authors investigate the following themes the role of religion in promoting social cohesion and the conditions under which it will tend to do so the role of religion in enabling and exacerbating conflict between different social groups and the conditions under which it will tend to do so and the policy responses that we may be able to develop to ameliorate violent conflict and the limits to compromise between different religions The book also contains two commentaries that distill synthesize and critically evaluate key aspects of the individual chapters and central themes that run throughout the volume The volume will be of great interest to all readers interested in the phenomenon of religious conflict and to academics across a variety of disciplines including religious studies philosophy psychology theology cognitive science anthropology politics international relations and evolutionary biology

Habermas and Giddens on Praxis and Modernity Craig Browne, 2017-01-02 In Habermas and Giddens on Praxis and Modernity Craig Browne investigates how two of the most important and influential contemporary social theorists have sought to develop the modernist visions of the constitution of society through the autonomous actions of subjects Comparing Habermas s and Giddens s conceptions of the constitution of society interpretations of the social structural impediments to subjects autonomy and attempts to delineate potentials for progressive social change within contemporary society Browne draws on his own work which has extended aspects of the social theorists approach to modernity Despite the criticisms developed over the course of the book Habermas and Giddens are found to be two of the most important theorists of democratization and social democracy the dynamics of capitalist modernity and their paradoxes social practices and reflexivity and the foundations of social theory in the problem of the relationship of social action and social structure

Reframing Rhetorical History Kathleen J. Turner, Jason Edward Black, 2022-05-17 Collection of essays that reassesses history as rhetoric and rhetorical history as practice Marx and Engels's "German ideology" Manuscripts Terrell Carver, Daniel Blank, 2014-12-17 Since the 1920s scholars have promoted a set of manuscripts long abandoned by Marx and Engels to canonical status in book form as The German Ideology and in particular its first chapter known as I Feuerbach Part one of this revolutionary study relates in detail the political history through which these manuscripts were editorially fabricated into editions and translations so that they could represent an important exposition of Marx s theory of history Part two presents a wholly original view of the so called Feuerbach manuscripts in a page by page English language rendition of these discontinuous fragments By including the hitherto devalued corrections that each author made in draft the new text invites the reader into a unique laboratory for their collaborative work An Analytical Introduction shows how Marx's and Engels's thinking developed in dialogue as they altered individual words and phrases on these left over polemical pages

The Devil's Riches Jared Poley,2016-02-01 A seeming constant in the history of capitalism greed has nonetheless undergone considerable transformations over the last five hundred years This multilayered account offers a fresh take on an old topic arguing that greed was experienced as a moral phenomenon and deployed to make sense of an unjust world Focusing specifically on the interrelated themes of religion economics and health each of which sought to study and channel the power of financial desire Jared Poley shows how evolving ideas about greed became formative elements of the modern experience History and the Formation of Marxism Bertel Nygaard,2022-09-19 This book redefines the relationship between Marxism and history At its roots Marxism was aimed at analyzing society in order to change it reflecting on the past to create the poetry of the future No single event of the past was as important to early Marxists as the French Revolution of 1789 Studying the varying uses of the history of that past event among Karl Marx Friedrich Engels and prominent European Marxists before 1914 Karl Kautsky V I Lenin and others this book argues that we should take the historiography of concrete past events seriously It was not only an auxiliary element of Marxism but a core constitutive element in its formation Thus this book calls for transcending traditional approaches to Marxism as a fixed set of social theories combined with strategies for the present and future Important to students of Marxism the labor movement and the French Revolution alike this study contains refreshing perspectives on the interplay between past present and future and on the role of states social classes socio economic determination and political organization in history
