End Of My Life:

My Life's Dream Took Me to Sea Ronald Epner, 2025-06-11 This book tells an engaging story of one man's self discovery and his adventures living his life's dream. It targets three types of readers. The author shares life skills that have led him to a fulfilling meaningful life. It caters to both the blue water sailor providing insights from seventy years of sailing experience and the armchair sailor eager to imagine the experience of sailing a boat across oceans to distant lands. The life skills that the author has learned and shared have led to a life rich in challenge fulfillment and adventure. Anyone who wishes to shape their desired life can comprehend and utilize these skills effectively. These invaluable skills have saved the author's life several times and may be the most significant gift readers receive from this book. Experienced sailors will gain detailed knowledge of how to avoid common emergencies at sea, discover lesser known boat maintenance tips and develop a strategy for surviving a heart attack far from help at sea for several days. The armchair sailor will find answers to many questions regarding long distance ocean travel and visits to extraordinary islands like Bora Bora, Tahiti and the Tuamotus archipelago in French Polynesia. This voyage allows readers to vicariously explore islands such as Fiji, Tonga and Samoa among others. Whether you're a sailing enthusiast, a medical professional or simply looking for an inspiring read, this book is a treasure trove of wisdom and adventure.

My Life's Journey Tim Cronin, 2019-07-31 My Life's Journey By Tim Cronin. My Life's Journey chronicles the obstacles Tim Cronin encountered growing up with autism. Through all of his trials and tribulations, the author faces challenges with optimism and joy that he finds in Metal music and the greatest roller coasters that the United States has to offer. The author hopes that the reader will learn to remain positive no matter what life throws at them and to know that you're never alone in life; there are always other people out there that have similar battles to fight.

The Payment S.G. MimLance, 2011-03-22 Confronted and attacked on all fronts, the patient tries to face the enemy but more often than not, the battle is lost. Each time a battle is lost, the patient suffers more and the disease causes more harm and damage. A great number of diseases threaten the health and sanity of the patient. Through decades of weakness, leniency and lack of true leadership, the patient may very well be at death's door. The patient's name is Society. The diseases number in the hundreds. The remedies remain elusive. Will the patient recover? Where is Society headed? Under these circumstances, man's pursuit of happiness is difficult to say the least. But his search goes on instinctively in the face of all obstacles. Society's diseases come second to his search for happiness.

Free Will and Continental Philosophy David Edward Rose, 2009-10-27 Offers a detailed and original analysis of the concept of free will in the Continental philosophical tradition.

The Morality of Happiness Julia Annas, 1993-08-19 Ancient ethical theories based on the notions of virtue and happiness have struck many as an attractive alternative to modern theories. But we cannot find out whether this is true until we understand ancient ethics and to do this we need to examine the basic structure of ancient ethical theory, not just the details of one or two theories In this book Annas brings together the results of a wide ranging study of ancient ethical philosophy and presents it in a way that is easily accessible to anyone with an interest in ancient or modern ethics She examines the fundamental notions of happiness and virtue the role of nature in ethical justification and the relation between concern for self and concern for others Her careful examination of the ancient debates and arguments shows that many widespread assumptions about ancient ethics are quite mistaken Ancient ethical theories are not egoistic and do not depend for their acceptance on metaphysical theories of a teleological kind Most centrally they are recognizably theories of morality and the ancient disputes about the place of virtue in happiness can be seen as akin to modern disputes about the demands of morality

"Living and Dying Without Regret" Joe Prainito,2008-03

Will God say well done if you haven't done well? Would God name you good and faithful if you were neither? The truth is how we live our life will determine how we will end our life. I've found that people regret two things at the end of their lives: the things that they have done and the things that they haven't done. My prayer is that this book will both open your eyes to the way you live and if found appropriate, provoke change. Within the pages of this book are real people at the end of their lives and their stories of remorse and shame over the way they've lived, as well as God's wisdom on how we can truly live and die without regret.

Joe began ministering at the age of fifteen years old, playing Bass guitar in multiple bands, including a group by the name of Redline, signed to Freedom Records in 1998. He attended a Bible Institute in Nashville, TN, with the intent to become a minister in whatever capacity the Lord placed him in. Joe began ministering as a youth pastor in California in 1999. Three years later, he received a pastoral position with a Hospice in Riverside, CA, where he still is today. Joe's goal is to minister to people regarding the necessity to live and pursue godliness as a way of life. His vision is to see God's people live strong so they can end strong, and has a heart-felt desire to take this message to the street, the Church, and the world. Joe lives in Corona, CA, with his wife Tina, son Sidney, and daughter Juliet. Email Joe Prainito at joe.prainito@yahoo.com

The Death Master Chronicles R.C. Beale, 2014-02-17 The old sailor pulled out a stub of a pencil from a soiled shirt pocket and began to cross out letters on the drink coaster. The circular piece of paper had the words "The Brass Monkey" in a nice scroll at the top, and then a picture of three monkeys in the center with the additional words "see hear speak no evil" underneath. He first removed "no evil" and then began to systematically pencil out all the letters in "The Brass Monkey" which were not contained in "see hear speak". This left "H E Rasske" on the face of the coaster. An alert waitress soon picked up the empty drink glass and paper coaster, returning both items to the bartender. In this manner, word reached Rasske quickly that someone needed to talk to him.
