Euthanasia, Operation Vijay Memorial and Other stories Dr. Pratyush Dhage, This is my first collection of short stories which range from a period of 2008 to 2018 It took me a varied time to write these stories Some were written in an evening while some took more than 45 days All of these stories have a story behind them For example With Braces was born out of a SINGLE SENTENCE on 9Gag What if you had braces and there were no dentists The 3rd Wheel is what I saw every day during walks and casual outdoor lunches Op Vijay Memorial is inspired by a female friend's true experience when she went to Ladakh on a bike Life's Trial is a story of a windy rainy evening when I wanted to write something with a twist The Traveler is when I wanted to write a Sci Fi without invoking horror and blood Euthanasia is when I saw relatives and people I knew on a death bed It also is about what sometimes everyone has thought about themselves on a scary sleepless night Superheroes and Villains is from 2016 when India was still dealing pathetically with the 2012 Delhi rape case And Mriya is from an upcoming novel None of these stories have anything common between them except for me as the writer The plots and characters in each story are as different as chalk and cheese Excluding two there is however one thing which binds all of the stories Hope My imaginary world isn't scarred and beset with nerve racking experiences Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, Vol 1 R. Reginald, 2010-09-01 Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature A Checklist 1700 1974 Volume one of Two contains an Author Index Title Index Series Index Awards Index and the Ace and Belmont Doubles Index The Man That Corrupted Hadleyburg, and Other Stories Mark Twain, 2022-09-16 In The Man That Corrupted Hadleyburg and Other Stories Mark Twain deftly employs his signature satirical style to explore themes of morality hypocrisy and the human condition Set in the ostensibly virtuous town of Hadleyburg the novella centers around a stranger who exposes the town's self-righteousness unraveling the facade of moral superiority that its citizens uphold This collection not only reflects Twain's masterful use of irony and wit but it also situates itself within the broader literary context of Americana engaging with contemporaneous social criticisms through humor and poignant storytelling Mark Twain a quintessential American author often drew upon his own life experiences and observations of society to fuel his writing Born Samuel Clemens in 1835 Twain's upbringing along the Mississippi River in Missouri significantly informed his perspectives on morality and human nature His keen eye for societal flaws shaped by the turbulent socio-political climate of 19th century America provides a rich backdrop for the incisive commentary found in this collection Readers interested in a thought provoking examination of ethical dilemmas presented with a sharp wit will find The Man That Corrupted Hadleyburg and Other Stories both entertaining and enlightening Twain's unique ability to weave humor into serious social critique invites readers to reflect on their own values and the often contradictory nature of human behavior Contact, and Other Stories Frances Noyes Hart, 2023-08-16 Reproduction of the original
