End Of This World The:

The End of the World Marcia Sa Cavalcante Schuback, Susanna Lindberg, 2017-03-29 The end of the world opens up philosophical questions concerning the very notion of the world which is a fundamental element of all existential phenomenological and hermeneutical philosophy Is the end of the world for us somebody's death the end of being in the world or the extinction of many or of all the end of the world itself Is the erosion of the world a phenomenon that does not in fact affect the notion of the world as a fundamental feature of all existential ontological inquiry This volume examines the present state of these concerns in philosophy film and literature It presents a philosophical hermeneutics of the present state of the world and explores the principal questions of the philosophical accounts of the end of the world such as finality and finitude It also shows how literature and cinema have ventured to express the end of the world while asking if a consequent expression of the end of the world is also an end of its expression

The End of the World John Leslie, 1998 Nuclear war holes in the ozone layer disease genetic engineering asteroids and supernovas any of these may bring human history to an end But are we in imminent danger of extinction John Leslie assesses the risks facing the human race and concludes yes we probably are Leslie pays particular attention to the doomsday argument This argument arising from the undeniable fact that we are a very young species substantially increases the likelihood of our extinction

The World after the End of the World Kas Saghafi, 2020-04-01 Examines themes of loss and mourning in the late work of Derrida In this book Kas Saghafi argues that the notion of the end the world in Derrida's late work is not a theological or cosmological matter but a meditation on mourning and the death of the other He examines this and several other tightly knit motifs in Derrida's work mourning survival the phantasm the event and most significantly the term salut which in French means at once greeting and salvation An underlying concern of The World after the End of the World is whether a discourse on salut saving being saved and salvation can be dissociated from discourse on religion Saghafi compares Derrida's thought along these lines with similar concerns of Jean Luc Nancy's Combining analysis of these themes with reflections on personal loss this book maintains that for Derrida salutation greeting and welcoming is resistant to the economy of salvation This resistance calls for what Derrida refers to as a spectro poetics devoted to and assigned to the other's singularity Saghafi's book makes a remarkable contribution as a coming to terms with interminable mourning Peggy Kamuf author of To Follow The Wake of Jacques Derrida

The End of the World and Other Teachable Moments Michael Naas, 2014-10-15 The End of the World and Other Teachable Moments follows the remarkable itinerary of Jacques Derrida's final seminar The Beast and the Sovereign 2001-3 as the explicit themes of the seminar namely sovereignty and the question of the animal come to be supplemented and interrupted by questions of death mourning survival the archive and especially the end of the world The book begins with Derrida's analyses in the first year of the seminar of the question of the animal in the context of his other published works on the same subject It then follows Derrida through the second year of the seminar presented in Paris from December 2002 to

March 2003 as a very different tone begins to make itself heard one that wavers between melancholy and an extraordinary lucidity with regard to the end Focusing the entire year on just two works Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe and Martin Heidegger's seminar of 1929-30 The Fundamental Concepts of Metaphysics the seminar comes to be dominated by questions of the end of the world and of an originary violence that at once gives rise to and effaces all things The End of the World and Other Teachable Moments follows Derrida as he responds from week to week to these emerging questions as well as to important events unfolding around him both world events the aftermath of 9/11 the American invasion of Iraq and more personal ones from the death of Maurice Blanchot to intimations of his own death less than two years away All this the book concludes makes this final seminar an absolutely unique work in Derrida's corpus one that both speaks of death as the end of the world and itself now testifies to that end just one though hardly the least of its many teachable moments A Biblical Guide to the End of the World David Murdoch, 2022-09-16 Many exciting theories abound for how the world will end asteroids alien invasions global climate collapse the sun becoming a red giant but would you consider one of them to be a glorious immense wedding that takes place over thousands of years Do you know you have an invite to be part of that fantastical event and escape the coming doom God wrote our future history in the Bible and has wrapped it all up once and for all There is no need for new ideas theories amazing modern prophets It is all in there waiting for your observation and thought teaching and discernment This matter of fact study walks you through the end times biblical prophecies and writings to help see where we are what has happened and what is still to come No need for the modern day fast paced confusion and half truths just find a comfy spot open up the invite and discover the facts about how the world ends The Whale at the End of the World John Ironmonger, 2015-02-12 THE INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER A gentle and uplifting tale of warding off apocalypse in a remote corner of Cornwall charming Financial Times A tremendously enjoyable book Independent on Sunday Bloody brilliant Liz Fenwick author of The Cornish House It all began with the whale When a young man washes up on the sands of St Piran in Cornwall it is clear to the villagers that this is not a regular day What has brought him here And what is the crisis only he understands that threatens not only their community but all of civilisation With a global pandemic on the horizon and a whale lurking in the bay the villagers of St Piran must band together to survive Intimate funny and heart warming John Ironmonger tells a compelling story about the important things that hold us together and how hope can be found even at the end of the world A warm hearted book crammed with ideas very very good Emerald Street A compelling and unusual modern fable Natasha Solomons author of Mr Rosenblum's List Beautiful dark uplifting Kate Long author of The Bad Mother's Handbook Writing at the End of the World Richard E. Miller, 2005-10-23 What do the humanities have to offer in the twenty first century Are there compelling reasons to go on teaching the literate arts when the schools themselves have become battlefields Does it make sense to go on writing when the world itself is overrun with books that no one reads In these simultaneously personal and erudite reflections on the future of higher education Richard E Miller moves from the headlines to the classroom focusing in on how teachers and students alike confront the existential challenge of making life meaningful In meditating on the violent events that now dominate our daily lives school shootings suicide bombings terrorist attacks contemporary warfare Miller prompts a reconsideration of the role that institutions of higher education play in shaping our daily experiences and asks us to reimagine the humanities as centrally important to the maintenance of a compassionate secular society By concentrating on those moments when individuals and institutions meet and violence results Writing at the End of the World provides the framework that students and teachers require to engage in the work of building a better future

Care at the End of the World Jina B. Kim,2025-03-21 In Care at the End of the World Jina B Kim develops what she calls crip of color critique bringing a disability lens to bear on feminist and queer of color literature in the aftermath of 1996 US welfare reform and the subsequent evisceration of social safety nets She examines literature by contemporary feminist queer and disabled writers of color such as Jesmyn Ward Octavia Butler Karen Tei Yamashita Samuel Delany and Aurora Levins Morales who each bring disability and dependency to the forefront of their literary freedom dreaming Kim shows that in their writing liberation does not take the shape of the unfettered individual or hinge on achieving independence Instead liberation emerges by recuperating dependency cultivating radical interdependency and recognizing the numerous support systems upon which survival depends At the same time Kim demonstrates how theories and narratives of disability can intervene into state authored myths of resource parasitism such as the welfare queen In so doing she highlights the alternate structures of care these writers envision and their dreams of life organized around reciprocity and mutual support Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award

Eco-Deconstruction

Philippe

Lynes, David Wood, 2018-03-27 Eco Deconstruction marks a new approach to the degradation of the natural environment including habitat loss species extinction and climate change While the work of French philosopher Jacques Derrida 1930

2004 with its relentless interrogation of the anthropocentric metaphysics of presence has already proven highly influential in posthumanism and animal studies the present volume drawing on published and unpublished work by Derrida and others builds on these insights to address the most pressing environmental issues of our time The volume brings together fifteen prominent scholars from a wide variety of related fields including eco phenomenology eco hermeneutics new materialism posthumanism animal studies vegetal philosophy science and technology studies environmental humanities eco criticism earth art and aesthetics and analytic environmental ethics Overall eco deconstruction offers an account of differential relationality explored in a non totalizable ecological context that addresses our times in both an ontological and a normative register The book is divided into four sections Diagnosing the Present suggests that our times are marked by a facile flattened out understanding of time and thus in need of deconstructive dispositions Ecologies mobilizes the spectral ontology of deconstruction to argue for an originary environmentality the constitutive ecological embeddedness of mortal life Nuclear and Other Biodegradabilities examines remains including such by products and disintegrations of human culture as nuclear waste environmental destruction and species extinctions Environmental Ethics seeks to uncover a demand for justice including human responsibility for suffering beings that emerges precisely as a response to original differentiation and the mortality and unmasterable alterity it installs in living beings As such the book will resonate with readers not only of philosophy but across the humanities and the social and natural sciences The Manifesto ,1887 Heaven's Formula

Mourning the Ends Maria Shantelle Alexies Ambayec,Kristof van Baarle,Peter Burke,Renata Gaspar,Sozita Goudouna,Nilüfer Ovaloğlu Gros,Adham Hafez,Jan-Tage Kühling,Eero Laine,Sarah Lucie,Juliana Martins Rodrigues de Moraes,Evan Moritz,Malin Palani,Rumen Rachev,Aneta Stojnić,2025-03-15 Mourning the Ends Collaborative Writing and Performance is an opening a beginning an attempt to rethink how we can be think and work together This book authored by a multitude explores new methodologies of collaborative scholarship for the arts and humanities within the context of the various ecological medical military and epistemic ends facing the world The authors of Mourning the Ends performed an experimental methodology as the book was researched written and revised by fifteen individuals situated across the globe The writing emerged in part from a shared sense of mourning through the global pandemic and ongoing ecological catastrophes yet the questions and arguments that are raised are immediately relevant as the rolling crises of our contemporary moment play out and further develop The volume challenges a number of key areas in performance studies as well as foundational expectations and assumptions of the arts and humanities more broadly namely that writing and scholarship should be solitary endeavors The authors write back against the model of thinking and studying that centers the singular genius especially against the backdrop of enduring and apparent end times Mourning the Ends is in some ways a rehearsal for another future a speculative engagement with performance ecology and academic affiliation beyond institutional bounds a methodology for shared mourning performance and thinking Young England ,1883 iPhone
