End Of Evil Process Eschatology In Historical Context:

The End of Evil Marjorie Suchocki, 1988-01-01 The topic of evil and redemption has been at the center of the Western tradition since the beginning of the Christian era In The End of Evil Suchocki explores the source and end of evil in the thought of Augustine Leibniz Kant Schleiermacher Hegel and Nietzsche Whitehead's philosophy is used as a creative response to the problems and possibilities raised in these earlier developments The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought Michel Weber, 2013-04-30 Gathering 115 entries written by 101 internationally renowned experts in their fields the Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought aims at canvassing the current state of knowledge in Whiteheadian scholarship and at identifying promising directions for future investigations through internal cross elucidation and external interdisciplinary development Two kinds of entries are weaved together in order to interpret Whitehead secundum Whitehead and to read him from the vantage point of interdisciplinary and crossdisciplinary research The thematic entries provide i a broad contextualisation of the issue at stake ii a focus on Whitehead's treatment if any or of a possible Whiteheadian treatment of the issue iii a history of relevant scholarship iv a personal assessment by the Author The biographical entries provide i a brief vita of the targeted thinker ii a sketch of his/her categories relevant to the Whiteheadian scholarship iii a personal assessment of the actual or possible Whiteheadian semantic transfer to or from the thinker Reconstructing Christian Theology Rebecca S. Chopp, Mark Lewis Taylor, Christian theology needs to be reconstructed in light of recent and momentous intellectual changes social revolutions and steep pedagogical challenges That is the conviction of many of North America's leading theologians whose close collaboration over several years bring us this exciting volume Reconstructing Christian Theology introduces theology in such a way that readers can discern the relevance of historical materials pose theological questions and begin to think theologically for themselves Further like other projects of the Workgroup on Constructive Theology this volume stems from a deep desire to model a credible creative and engaged contemporary theology So each chapter tackles major Christian teaching juxtaposes it with a significant social or cultural challenge and then reconstructs each in light of the other The result is an innovative and compelling way to learn how theology can contribute to rethinking the most pressing issues of our day Rethinking Faith James Newton Poling, 2011-08 What can practical theology contribute to other theological disciplines and the church about the nature of God and the church's witness to Jesus Christ in the world What can we learn about the love and power of God in Jesus Christ from the community of survivors of violence Rethinking Faith urges all Christians to consider themselves practical theologians by drawing on their own experiences in making theological assertions Poling couples his understanding of the tradition with his work with survivors of violence to demonstrate the resilience of Christianity

Braided Selves Pamela Cooper-White, 2011-06-10 What if we are more multiple as persons than traditional psychology has taught us to believe And what if our multiplicity is a part of how we are made in the very image of a loving relational multiple God How have modern Western notions of Oneness caused harm to both individuals and society And how can an appreciation of our multiplicity help liberate the voices of those who live at the margins both of society and within our own complex selves Braided Selves explores these questions from the perspectives of postmodern pastoral psychology and Trinitarian theology with implications for the practice of spiritual care counseling and psychotherapy This volume gathers ten years of essays on this theme by preeminent pastoral theologian Pamela Cooper White whose writings bring into dialogue postmodern feminist and psychoanalytic theory and constructive theology

The Mind of Whitehead Roland Faber, 2024-05-30 For Alfred North Whitehead the fundamental basis of reality is connectivity the possibility interdependence and actualisation that defy our human desire for structure categorisation and division In this spirit Professor Roland Faber combines the disparate interests of Whitehead's study from Mathematics to Divinity Political Philosophy to Cosmology to trace the thematic similarities of this work and establish their unity in the mind of Whitehead Focussing on the experience of reading Whitehead's rich text Faber invites the reader not to search for fixed patterns but to explore the impermanence and diversity of Whitehead's ideas The Mind of Whitehead offers the curious reader a creative exploration of a crucial twentieth century philosopher speaking to global concerns from a position of possibility and complexity

Christian Theology Peter Crafts Hodgson, Robert Harlen King, 1994-01-01 This highly acclaimed and widely used volume now in its third edition is a collaborative presentation of the chief Christian doctrines in light of their traditional theological formulations their historical development and contemporary challenges Joined by David Tracy Langdon Gilkey Edward Farley Sallie McFague and many others Hodgson and King explore the task of theology method scripture and traditions God revelation creation human being sin and evil Christ and salvation church sacraments the Spirit and Christian life the reign of God other religions and the Christian paradigm Each chapter sets forth the primary shape and substance of a doctrine its historical development how that tradition has been challenged and transformed under the pressures of modern thought and new and persistent issues that set the agenda for future theological work Written with intelligence and verve and newly updated Christian Theology has proven a superlative introduction to Christianity's classical heritage and its future theological horizons Companion volumes include Readings in Christian Theology and Reconstructing Christian Theology     Stubborn Fact and Creative Advance Thomas E. Hosinski, C. S. C., 1993-08-11 an attractive alternative to Victor Lowe s Understanding Whitehead Ivor Leclerc s Whitehead s Metaphysics and Donald Sherburne s A Key to Whitehead s Process and Reality Recommended for advanced undergraduates and beyond CHOICE     Constructing a Relational Cosmology Paul O. Ingram, 2006-08-01 This collection of five essays is both a dialogical engagement with and critical assessment of Nancy R Howell s book Constructing a Relational Cosmology The collection includes three essays written from a Whiteheadian process perspective by Marit A Trelstad Kathryn A Breazeale and Marjorie Hewitt Suchocki one from the perspective of narrative theology Lisa Stenmark and one from the Soto Zen Buddhist perspective Stephanie Kaza Howell responding as a Whiteheadian feminist philosopher of religion takes the critiques and suggestions of her dialogical partners with the utmost seriousness as her foundation for suggesting new directions for ecofeminist thought an example of what Whiteheadians call the process of creative transformation     Personal Identity and Resurrection Georg Gasser, 2016-09-17 What happens to us when we die According to Christian faith we will rise again bodily from the dead This claim raises a series of philosophical and theological conundrums is it rational to hope for life after death in bodily form Will it truly be we who are raised again or will it be post mortem duplicates of us How can personal identity be secured What is God s role in resurrection and everlasting life In response to these conundrums this book presents the first ever joint work of leading philosophers and theologians on life after death This is an impressive demonstration of interdisciplinary cooperation between philosophy and theology Various models are offered which depict what resurrection into an incorruptible post mortem body might look like Therefore this book is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the doctrine of bodily resurrection be they philosophers theologians scholars in religious studies or believers interested in examining their faith     Theology and the University David Ray Griffin, 1991-01-01 This book explores the relationship between theology and the modern university Most of the essays were written specifically for this volume and all of them are published here for the first time David Ray Griffin Gordon Kaufman Hans K ng Schubert Ogden and Wolfhart Pannenberg address the question of whether theology belongs in the university at all Essays by Joseph Hough Catherine Keller and Marjorie Suchoki argue that theology has a vital role in helping the university recover its central mission that of educating for the sake of the common good Thomas Altizer William Beardslee and Jack Verheyden provide historical analyses of the interactions between theology and the university with Altizer focusing on the modern divorce between faith and reason Beardslee on the relevance of the renewed emphasis upon rhetoric and Verheyden on the ideal of knowledge As a whole Theology and the University presents an impressive case against the position that theology is inappropriate in the university It argues not only that theology has a rightful place in the university but also that the university needs theology just as theology needs the university     Theology in Exodus Donald E. Gowan, 1994-01-01 This groundbreaking book points to a fresh new way of doing biblical theology Donald Gowan organizes his study of the book of

Exodus like a traditional commentary following the text of Exodus from beginning to end Unlike a traditional commentary however Gowan asks only one question of Exodus what does this book say about God He then traces the major affirmations about God found in Exodus through the rest of the scripture and into the theologies of Judaism and Christianity This study will be of interest to any who wish to rethink the ways that biblical theology is done

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool, 2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation

Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore, 2004-11-01 Moore asserts that Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Disembodied Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church

Beyond Theodicy Sarah K. Pinnock, 2012-02-01 Beyond Theodicy analyzes the rising tide of objections to explanations and justifications for why God permits evil and suffering in the world In response to the Holocaust striking parallels have emerged between major Jewish and Christian thinkers centering on practical faith approaches that offer meaning within suffering Author Sarah K Pinnock focuses on Jewish thinkers Martin Buber and Ernst Bloch and Christian thinkers Gabriel Marcel and Johann Baptist Metz to present two diverse rejections of theodicy one existential represented by

Buber and Marcel and one political represented by Bloch and Metz Pinnock interweaves the disciplines of philosophy of religion post Holocaust thought and liberation theology to formulate a dynamic vision of religious hope and resistance

The Ultimate Why Question: Why Is There Nothing at All Rather Than Nothing Whatsoever? Ultimate why Question John F. Wippel, 2011-06-08 This volume gathers studies by prominent scholars and philosophers about the question how have major figures from the history of philosophy and some contemporary philosophers addressed the ultimate why question why is there anything at all rather than nothing whatsoever      Science, Religion and Society Arri Eisen, Gary

Laderman, 2015-03-04 This unique encyclopedia explores the historical and contemporary controversies between science and religion It is designed to offer multicultural and multi religious views and provide wide ranging perspectives Science Religion and Society covers all aspects of the religion and science dichotomy from humanities to social sciences to natural sciences and includes articles by theologians religion scholars physicians scientists historians and psychologists among others The first section General Overviews contains essays that provide a road map for exploring the major challenges and questions in science and religion Following this the Historical Perspectives section grounds these major questions in the past and demonstrates how they have developed into the six broad areas of contemporary research and discussion that follow These sections Creation the Cosmos and Origins of the Universe Ecology Evolution and the Natural World Consciousness Mind and the Brain Healers and Healing Dying and Death and Genetics and Religion organize the questions and research that are the foundation of the enormous interest and controversy in science and religion today      Dictionary of Ethics, Theology and Society Paul A. B. Clarke, Andrew Linzey, 2013-11-05 This Dictionary provides a unique and groundbreaking survey of both the historical and contemporary interrelations between ethics theology and society In over 250 separately authored entries a selection of the world s leading scholars from many disciplines and many denominations present their own views on a wide range of topics Arranged alphabetically entries cover all aspects of philosophy theology ethics economics politics and government Each entry includes a concise definition of the term a description of the principal ideas behind it analysis of its history development and contemporary relevance a detailed bibliography giving the major sources in the field The entire field is prefaced by an editorial introduction outlining its scope and diversity Selected entries include Animal Rights Capital Punishment Communism Domestic Violence Ethics Evil Government Homophobia Humanism Liberation Theology Politics Pornography Racism Sexism Society Vivisection Women s Ordination      Down to Earth Richard Floyd, 2015-08-18 In the face of climate change and ecological diminishment how can we hope that creation itself good and beautiful marked by tragedy and chaos is taken up rather than left behind Can a Christian vision which has at times been drunk on eschatological dreams or nightmares that consign this world and most of its creatures to destruction foster an earthly hope Jurgen Moltmann and Sallie McFague offer two contemporary possibilities for an ecological eschatology Floyd critiques both of these theological visions and traces an alternative that is both humble grounded in the humus the dirt and hopeful grounded in divine creativity arguing that a down to earth hope is grounded finally in beauty the beauty of the other that draws out the self the beauty of the redeemed self coming out to meet the other and the beauty of God that lures forth ever new possibilities and gathers up all the beautiful and broken creatures into the deepest possible harmony
