Guillaume Faye and the Battle of Europe Michael O'Meara, 2013 Europe is at war and does not know it She is overrun by invaders from the Global South who seek to replace those who have inhabited her lands for at least the last 30 000 years She is subject to an American overlord whose world system dictates her de Europeanization and globalization She is mismanaged and betrayed by EU technocrats corrupt politicians and plutocratic elites Without a revolutionary mobilization in her defense the thousand year old civilization that grew out of the medieval Respublica Christiana and that we today associate with Europe along with the unique genetic heritage of her peoples will forever cease to exist Guillaume Faye doctorate from one of France s most prestigious coles social philosopher author of numerous books and articles is the Cassandra warning Europeans of their approaching extinction and the need to prepare for the impending Battle of Europe Michael O Meara Ph D studied social theory at the coles des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales and modern European history at the University of California He is the author of New Culture New Right Anti Liberalism in Postmodern Europe 2004

A Quiet American Andy Marino, 2000-11-13 Andy Marino s A Quiet American is an effort to examine the life of a genuine American hero whose political and cultural influence remain largely unacknowledged The story of Varian Fry called the real Rick of Casablanca is perhaps one of the most unknown yet extraordinary sagas of World War II This penetrating biography follows Varian Fry through his adult life from his beginnings in the 1930s as a Harvard graduate and political journalist to his arrival in Marseille in 1940 where he managed to spirit away thousands of Europe s cultural elite by falsifying passports creating new identities and always resorting to subterfuge The list of those saved includes Hannah Arendt Andre Breton Franz Werfel and his wife Alma Mahler Heinrich Mann Marc Chagall Jacques Lipchitz Andre Masson and Max Ernst among others

A Philosophy for Europe Roberto Esposito, 2018-06-11 Amid a devastating economic crisis two tragic events coming from the outside the wave of immigration and Islamic terrorism have radically changed the profile and significance of the space we call Europe Given a paradigm leap of this sort philosophical reflection is in a position to exert its creative power more than other types of knowledge But this can only happen if it is able to go beyond its own lexical boundaries by turning its gaze outside itself Here the leading Italian philosopher Roberto Esposito looks at how various strands of German French and Italian thought have achieved this outward turn and successfully captured international attention by breaking with the language of early nineteenth century crisis philosophies When analyzed from this novel perspective the great texts of Adorno Derrida Foucault and Deleuze as well as works by the latest Italian thinkers are cast in a new light From the relationship and tension between them reconstructed here with extraordinary theoretical sensitivity a form of thought can arise that is equal to the challenges faced by Europe today This erudite and wide ranging analysis of European thought in the light of the crises facing the continent today will appeal to students and scholars of philosophy critical theory and beyond

We need to talk about Europe - European Identity Debates at the Council of Europe 2013-14 Council of Europe, 2014-01-01 Peaceful prosperous democratic and respectful of people's rights building Europe is an ongoing challenge For many years it seemed that Europeans lived on a continent of shared values and a common destiny No one paid attention to the alarm bells warning of growing divisions across the continent which have become more insistent since the economic and social crisis Europe and its values previously taken for granted are now being contested These clouds are casting a shadow across Europe's future and old demons long dormant have started to raise their voices again With a deepening values divide there is an urgent need for public debate and a reconsideration of how Europeans can strengthen the European project Is a Europe united in diversity still feasible Can a consensus be forged on a set of values pertaining to a common European identity What should be done to preserve European unity The Council of Europe with its membership covering Europe from Vladivostok to Lisbon and from Reykjavik to Ankara and its mission to promote democracy human rights and the rule of law provides an excellent framework for discussing the current state of thinking and dynamics behind the concept of European identity For these reasons the Council of Europe together with the cole nationale d administration in Strasbourg held a series of European Identity Debates featuring eminent personalities from a variety of backgrounds including politics civil society academia and the humanities This publication presents the 10 European Identity Debates lectures The authors identify major issues and challenges and provide an original analysis of different aspects of European identity within their fields of expertise The authors formulate proposals on how to better understand the multifaceted nature of Europe what it means today to be European and what should be done in terms of ideas and strategies to keep Europe dynamic and to build a sustainable future
