Law, Religion and the Environment in Africa M. Christian Green, Muhammed Haron, 2020-06-03 This volume explores themes of ecotheology ecofeminism environmental pollution and degradation climate change human and environmental rights sustainable development human animal relations through totem and taboo sacred sites and spaces and other environmental topics in ways that add immeasurably to the study of African environmentalisms and the interaction of law and religion In terms of religion the capability of humans not only to sin and destroy the earth but also to repair and redeem it is very much in evidence across Christianity Islam and Africa s many indigenous religious and cultural traditions In terms of law the need for effective policies and for states and governments to work with indigenous groups and communities towards environmental solutions is also apparent

Critical Issues in Ecotourism James Higham, 2007-06-07 Critical Issues in Ecotourism seeks to shake the current stagnant literature on the subject of ecotourism out of a state of complacency Drawing upon emerging insights provided by pre eminent scholars in the field it identifies and comprehensively addresses current critical issues Accessible to both academic and non academic audiences it provides the reader with the following A critical direct and hard hitting analysis of the real issues that apply to the field of ecotourism Contributions from prominent international scholars that address issues of relevance to a diverse and international readership Dissemination of the scholarly works of social and natural science addressing this field A collection of works by outstanding international scholars in a comprehensively planned and integrated book Incorporating rigorous scientific insights in specialised fields of research for example identifying and protecting critical habitats where tourists engage with endangered species Critical Issues in Ecotourism is an important and ground breaking contribution set to expose the increasingly mythologized field of ecotourism

Earth 2020: An Insider's Guide to a Rapidly Changing Planet Philippe Tortell, 2020-04-22 Fifty years have passed since the first Earth Day on 22 April 1970 This accessible incisive and timely collection of essays brings together a diverse set of expert voices to examine how the Earth s environment has changed over this past half century and what lies in store for our planet over the coming fifty years Earth 2020 An Insider's Guide to a Rapidly Changing Planet responds to a public increasingly concerned about the deterioration of Earth s natural systems offering readers a wealth of perspectives on our shared ecological past and on the future trajectory of planet Earth Written by world leading thinkers on the front lines of global change research and policy this multi disciplinary collection maintains a dual focus some essays investigate specific facets of the physical Earth system while others explore the social legal and political dimensions shaping the human environmental footprint In doing so the essays collectively highlight the urgent need for collaboration across diverse domains of expertise in addressing one of the most significant challenges facing us today Earth 2020 is essential reading for everyone seeking a deeper understanding of the past present and future of our planet and the role of humanity in shaping this trajectory Sacred Ecology Fikret Berkes,2012-03-29 Sacred Ecology examines bodies of knowledge held by indigenous and other rural peoples around the world and asks how we can learn from this knowledge and ways of knowing Berkes explores the importance of local and indigenous knowledge as a complement to scientific ecology and its cultural and political significance for indigenous groups themselves This third edition further develops the point that traditional knowledge as process rather than as content is what we should be examining It has been updated with about 150 new references and includes an extensive list of web resources through which instructors can access additional material and further illustrate many of the topics and themes in the book Winner of the Ecological Society of America s 2014 Sustainability Science Award Climate Change and Environmental Ethics Ved P. Nanda,2012-12-01 There is a broad consensus that climate change presents the international community with a formidable challenge Yet progress on all fronts prevention mitigation and adaptation has been slow Ved P Nanda finds an explanation for this disparity in the sharp divide between the developed and developing countries Developing countries demand that major industrialized nations provide the necessary resources and technology to address climate change while many developed countries seek firm commitments and timetables on action from the developing countries The result is a stalemate Climate Change and Environmental Ethics contains first rate research and thinking from scholars from multiple disciplines ethics ecology philosophy economics political science history and international law What distinguishes this volume from recent work on climate change are two of its special features One is the multi disciplinary backgrounds of the scholars their stellar experiences and the wisdom with which they express not simply their philosophy and theory but also their suggestions for concrete specific action in practical terms The second is the special niche this volume fills in its overarching theme of the need for a renewed environmental ethic that can bring together these disparate but interconnected views This volume explores alternative ways of conceiving our relation to the natural world A spirit of international cooperation and collaboration is needed to meet the challenge The reader is compelled to think anew about our understanding of the scientific and technical issues as well as our values and ethical responsibilities regarding climate change The Palgrave Handbook of the History of Human Sciences David McCallum,2022-08-27 The Palgrave Handbook of the History of Human Sciences offers a uniquely comprehensive and global overview of the evolution of ideas concepts and policies within the human sciences Drawn from histories of the social and psychological sciences anthropology the history and philosophy of science and the history of ideas this collection analyses the health and welfare of populations evidence of the changing nature of our local communities cities societies or global movements and studies the way our humanness or human nature undergoes shifts because of broader technological shifts or patterns of living This Handbook serves as an authoritative reference to a vast source of representative scholarly work in interdisciplinary fields a means of understanding patterns of social change and the conduct of institutions as well as the histories of these ways of knowing probe the contexts circumstances and conditions which underpin continuity and change in the way we count analyse and understand ourselves in our different social worlds It reflects a critical scholarly interest in both traditional and emerging concerns on the relations between the biological and social sciences and between these and changes and continuities in societies and conducts as 21st century research moves into new intellectual and geographic territories more diverse fields and global problematics

Arctic Environmental Cooperation Monica Tennberg,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The book analyses the development of arctic environmental cooperation since the late 1980s until the establishment of the Arctic Council in 1996 The study is based on the discourse analysis of statement documents and interviews by the different actors in the cooperation In this book the problem of the environment is seen as a problem of order it is a problem of ordering relations among related actors of ordering priorities of action and of ordering relations between different institutional arrangements locally regionally and internally Three discourses were found in the cooperation discourses of sovereignty knowledge and development In the discourse of sovereignty the development of relations between state and indigenous peoples in terms of international environmental cooperation is central In the discourse of knowledge the different forms of knowledge and the role of different producers of knowledge in cooperation has been discussed The discourse of development focuses on the idea of sustainable development and its applications in defining the future of the Circumpolar North and the activities of the Arctic Council The arctic cooperation can be understood as a regional effort to make an order of sustainability into practice Tending the Wild Kat Anderson,2005-06-14 This is a highly significant one might argue revolutionary book It and the author s previous research has the potential to completely change the way western land managers relate to the land and the resources they are trying to regulate Even more it has the power to influence the way that all of us approach Nature and will reinforce the importance of Native Americans and the sophistication of their knowledge Nancy J Turner University of Victoria Tending the Wild is an enormously rich and highly readable text on the remarkably diverse land management techniques practiced by California Indians over millennia This book serves as an invaluable resource as we strive to conserve California s enormous cultural and biotic heritage in the new century A triumph Michael H Horn California State University Fullerton Tending the Wild supports the little know fact that Indian groups in California historically practiced a kind of environmental bonsai through their centuries long management activities Kat Anderson s work is timely and will make an important contribution toward a better understanding of the historic ecologies of North America Greg Cajete University of New Mexico Breaking Ice Arctic Institute of North America,2005 From the pressures of development technological advances globalization and climate change to social and cultural life this book attempts to define the nature of competing demands and assess their impact on the environment These essays provide a detailed examination of ocean and coastal management in the Canadian north exploring a wide range of issues critical to environmental stewardship and breaking the ice to connect academics government managers policy makers aboriginal groups and industry Book Jacket Arctic Mark Nuttall,Terry Callaghan,2000-12-21 By demonstrating the importance of communication among social scientists scientists in the natural sciences and stakeholders living in the Arctic this book provides a comprehensive overview of the region s rapidly changing physical and human dimensions In response to the tremendous challenges and opportunities facing the Arctic it is an essential resource for all Arctic researchers and those developing multidisciplinary projects Representing a state of the art overview of key areas of Arctic research by renowned specialists in the field each chapter forms a detailed varied and accessible account of current knowledge Each author introduces the subject to a non specialist readership while retaining intellectual integrity and relevance for specialists Overall the richness of the material presented in this volume reflects the ecological and cultural diversity of this vast and environmentally critical part of the globe Threatened Island Nations Michael B. Gerrard,Gregory E. Wannier,2013-01-21 This book addresses legal issues of rising seas endangering the habitability and existence of island nations in the Pacific and Indian oceans
