Gelfant,2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant s brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Debus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene The First Annual Unofficial Point Pleasure Skimmer Survey and Other Stories of Cape May County, New Jersey Ray Rebmann,2005 The Jersey shore is frequented by millions of tourists every year For many people living in the great cities along the East Coast of America the Jersey shore is their only vacation destination They come for many reasons the ocean the glitz of the casino and the glitter of the boardwalk Some come to visit and never leave The 1st Annual Unofficial Point Pleasure Skimmer Survey tells about a fictional seashore resort populated by colorful quirky locals They may be the waiters or ticket takers you encounter as shadowy enablers of your vacation pleasures but when the season s over and the tourists are gone they live their own lives but oh those lives A History of Environmentalism Marco Armiero,Lise Sedrez,2014-07-31 Think globally act locally has become a call to environmentalist mobilization proposing a closer connection between global concerns local issues and individual responsibility A History of Environmentalism explores this dialectic relationship with ten contributors from a range of disciplines providing a history of environmentalism which frames global themes and narrates local stories Each of the chapters in this volume addresses specific struggles in the history of environmental movements for example over national parks species protection forests waste contamination nuclear energy and expropriation A diverse range of environments and environmental actors are covered including the communities in the

Amazonian Forest the antelope in Tibet atomic power plants in Europe and oil and politics in the Niger Delta The chapters demonstrate how these conflicts make visible the intricate connections between local and global the body and the environment and power and nature A History of Environmentalism tells us much about transformations of cultural perceptions and ways of production and consuming as well as ecological and social changes More than offering an exhaustive picture of the entire environmentalist movement A History of Environmentalism highlights the importance of the experience of environmentalism within local communities It offers a worldwide and polyphonic perspective making it key reading for students and scholars of global and environmental history and political ecology

Something Is Out There Richard Bausch, 2010-02-09 In these eleven unforgettable stories Richard Bausch plumbs the depths of familial and marital estrangement the gulfs between friends and lovers the fragility and impermanence of love and manages to find something quite surprising human hope A writer at the very top of his form So emotionally insightful so masterful in subtle manipulation of plot and theme that the sheer beauty of the stories construction will move you almost as much as what happens in them San Francisco Chronicle With his signature grace penetrating wit and richly nuanced prose Bausch explores the fragile bonds between husbands and wives parents and children friends and lovers the gulfs that can open even in our most intimate connections and the impermanence of love itself Yet amid the estrangement and yearning the miscommunications and betrayals glimmers of resilient hope emerge From the poignant unraveling of a long marriage to the bittersweet musings of a widower facing an uncertain future these masterfully crafted tales showcase Bausch's unparalleled talent for illuminating our most profound human experiences

A Land Before Humans, a Land After Humans Mark Fisher, 2025-02-28 Some species survive reliant on conservation some may survive eluding our knowing some may not survive despite our efforts and some may survive by adapting to and integrating with human worlds New Zealand is a unique and fascinating country as a case study for managing invasive species Because of its history we know a lot about species introductions and because of its geographical position as a relatively small remote island the potential for dealing with invasive species may be more effective than elsewhere Moreover the fragility of its ecosystems makes it relatively easy to see the impact of one species upon another Nature and people shape the country's ecology from its geological and biological beginnings to the relatively recent arrival of people and the changes wrought to the wide ranging efforts of individuals and communities to protect and enhance treasured species and environments Among them an ambitious Predator Free 2050 initiative to rid the country of some of its unwanted species The issue is a complex and interesting one There are ethical considerations which species are protected and which destroyed How are they destroyed What are the unforeseen consequences There are also tensions between preservation and the use of natural resources and ultimately our relationship to the environment how we live A Land Before Humans a Land After Humans explores these issues An invaluable resource for environment ecology animal welfare and ethics students researchers and policy makers the book takes New Zealand as a case study and looks at the practical and ethical considerations of dealing with invasive species 5m Books Unbreaking      The Handsome Monk and Other Stories Tsering Dondrup,2019-01-08 Tsering D ndrup is one of the most popular and critically acclaimed authors writing in Tibetan today In a distinct voice rich in black humor and irony he describes the lives of Tibetans in contemporary China with wit empathy and a passionate sense of justice The Handsome Monk and Other Stories brings together short stories from across Tsering D ndrup s career to create a panorama of Tibetan society With a love for the sparse yet vivid language of traditional Tibetan life Tsering D ndrup tells tales of hypocritical lamas crooked officials violent conflicts and loyal yaks His nomad characters find themselves in scenarios that are at once strange and familiar satirical yet poignant The stories are set in the fictional county of Tsezhung where Tsering D ndrup s characters live their lives against the striking backdrop of Tibet s natural landscape and go about their daily business to the ever present rhythms of Tibetan religious life Tsering D ndrup confronts pressing issues the corruption of religious institutions the indignities and injustices of Chinese rule poverty and social ills such as gambling and alcoholism and the hardships of a minority group struggling to maintain its identity in the face of overwhelming odds Ranging in style from playful updates of traditional storytelling techniques to narrative experimentation Tsering D ndrup s tales pay tribute to the resilience of Tibetan culture      Short Story Index ,1999
