Protected Areas, Sustainable Tourism and Neo-liberal Governance Policies Hubert Job, Susanne Becken, Bernard Lane, 2020-04-28 From its late nineteenth century origins the concept of protected areas has increased in scope and complexity It now has to come to terms with the twenty first century world of neo liberal politics performance metrics and the growing and complex demands of tourism This international collection of papers explores how this might be done detailing the issues involved and the value and values that protected areas have for economies peoples and environments Special attention is given to World Heritage Sites tourism planning and their communities to the growth of private protected areas and to the health values of protected areas Other subjects include private sector business involvement in protected areas concessions policy experiments and how the work of the world's largest protected area agency the US National Park Service is adapting to changing political and market demands and to the challenges of sustainable development It concludes with a searching interview with a member of UNESCO's World Heritage Committee The chapters were originally published in a special issue in the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

Species Conservation in Managed Habitats Werner Kunz, 2016-04-28 Dieses Praktikerbuch stammt von einem Autor mit langjähriger Erfahrung im Bereich der Ökologie von Insekten und Vögeln und einer herausragenden akademischen Laufbahn in den molekularen Biowissenschaften Es ist eine willkommene Herausforderung und stellt die weitverbreiteten Ansichten herkömmlicher Umweltpolitik in Frage Werner Kunz erläutert überzeugend warum die Aufrechterhaltung einer großen Biodiversität in Europa ganz erheblich von offenen Flächen und karger Vegetation abhängig ist d.h. Flächen die weder intensiv nach Aspekten der modernen Landwirtschaft bewirtschaftet noch wieder aufgeforstet werden Er stellt die weitverbreitete Meinung in Frage dass Naturschutz mit Artenschutz gleichzusetzen sei und zeigt wie bedrohte Tierarten durch ein technisches Design des Lebensraums gerettet werden können Ein Muss für Umweltbehörden politische Entscheidungsträger Ökologen und alle die Zeuge davon sind wie aktuell in Zentraleuropa Arten verschwinden

Soft Power and Heritage Rodrigo Christofoletti, 2023-11-15 This book encourages a critical dialogue between interdisciplinary fields that border heritage boundaries and seeks to contribute a wide range of scholarly perspectives and case studies both national and international

The widespread use of the concept of soft power is sometimes grossly misused as a synonym for anything other than military force. While the concept is one of the most popular and influential in progressive foreign policy circles and is noted for being the ability of a country to convince others that its cause is the best without having to resort to economic or military threats, the your ability to accurately describe the world we live in needs repair lenses. The power of example, the power of attraction through culture or in other words the ability of a country to attract others because of its culture and political values in its foreign policy that is soft power is something that emerges in partly because of government and partly in spite of governments. To have soft power you need to be connected and the interaction management and dissemination of assets can be seen as exercises in soft power action. This book seeks to detail in examples how the concept of soft power encompasses and problematizes the multiplicity of themes on the contemporary international agenda focusing on one of its least discussed elements: the universe of international cultural heritage and the relationship between actors and society preservationist actions in the globalized world. While cultural heritage embodies different values and can serve different economic, social and political objectives in development contexts, the past becomes a cultural currency when it becomes essential to the human experience.

Postcolonial Translocations Marga Munkelt, Markus Schmitz, Mark Stein, Silke Stroh, 2013. The sites from which postcolonial cultural articulations develop and the sites at which they are received have undergone profound transformations within the last decades. This book traces the accelerating emergence of cultural crossovers and overlaps in a global perspective and through a variety of disciplinary approaches. It starts from the premise that after the spatial turn, human action and cultural representations can no longer be grasped as firmly located in or clearly demarcated by territorial entities. The collection of essays investigates postcolonial articulations of various genres and media in their spatiality and locatedness while envisaging acts of location as dynamic cultural processes. It explores the ways in which critical spatial thinking can be made productive. Testing the uses and limitations of translocation as an open exploratory model for a critically spatialized postcolonial studies, it covers a wide range of cultural expressions from the anglophone world and beyond: literature, film, TV, photography and other forms of visual art, philosophy, historical memory and tourism. The extensive introductory chapter charts various facets of spatial thinking from a variety of disciplines and critically discusses their implications for postcolonial studies The Contributors essays range from theoretical interventions into the critical routines of postcolonial criticism to case studies of specific cultural texts objects and events reflecting temporal and spatial material and intellectual physical and spiritual mobility What emerges is a fascinating survey of the multiple directions postcolonial translocations can take in the future This book is aimed at students and scholars of postcolonial literary and cultural studies diaspora studies migration studies transnational studies globalisation studies critical space studies urban studies film studies media studies art history philosophy history and anthropology Contributors Diana Brydon Lars Eckstein Paloma Fresno Calleja Lucia Kr mer Gesa Mackenthun Thomas Martinek Sandra Meyer Therese M Meyer Marga Munkelt Lynda Ng Claudia Perner Katharina Rennhak Gundo Rial y Costas Markus Schmitz Mark Stein Silke Stroh Kathy Ann Tan Petra Tournay Theodotou Daria Tunca Jessica Voges Roland Walter Dirk Wiemann      Chaos and Nonlinear Psychology Ruth Richards,Shan Guisinger,2022 Have you ever felt that human psychology is richer and more complex than the topics you learned in Psych 101 that great literature captured human motivational complexity better than scientists Perhaps you like the authors of this book find that the linear math and statistical models that researchers have been using to capture psychology obscured many of the problems you would like to solve      Interpreting Literature from Northeast India Margaret L. Pachau,Anjali Daimari,2024-09-30 This book reflects the nascent sensibilities at work in literature emanating from Northeast India It takes into account the generic diversity in works derived from the region and discusses fiction poetry drama folk narratives film adaptations as well as early missionary narratives It covers a wide spectrum of themes such as landscape partition World War history nationalism violence and territoriality memory and identity The book looks at works in English and vernacular from Northeast India states It contextualizes developments within intellectual history and display aspects that relate to the continuing force in the ongoing study of the relationship between literature and culture studies within a broader framework      Environmental Criticism for the Twenty-First Century Stephanie LeMenager,Teresa Shewry,Ken Hiltner,2011-05-09 Environmental Criticism for the Twenty First Century showcases the recent explosive expansion of environmental criticism which is actively transforming three areas of broad interest in contemporary literary and cultural studies history scale and science With contributors engaging texts from the medieval period through the twenty first century the collection brings into focus recent ecocritical concern for the long durations through which environmental imaginations have been shaped Contributors also address problems of scale including environmental institutions and imaginations that complicate conventional rubrics such as the national local and global Finally this collection brings together a set of scholars who are interested in drawing on both the sciences and the humanities in order to find compelling stories for engaging ecological processes such as global climate change peak oil production nuclear proliferation and food scarcity Environmental Criticism for the Twenty First Century offers powerful proof that cultural criticism is itself ecologically resilient evolving to meet the imaginative challenges of twenty first century environmental crises      Constructing Green Rebecca L. Henn, Andrew J. Although the United States is currently the world's only military and economic superpower the nation's superpower status may not last The possible futures of the global system and the role of U.S. power are illuminated by careful study of the past This book addresses the problems of conceptualizing and assessing hegemonic rise and decline in comparative and historical perspective Several chapters are devoted to the study of hegemony in premodern world systems And several chapters scrutinize the contemporary position and trajectory of the United States in the larger world system in comparison with the rise and decline of earlier great powers such as the Dutch and British empires Contributors Kasja Ekholm Johnny Persson Norihisa Yamashita Giovanni Arrighi Beverly Silver Karen Barkey Jonathan Friedman Christopher Chase Dunn Rebecca Gium Andrew Jorgenson John Rogers Shoon Lio Thomas Reifer Peter Taylor Albert Bergesen Omar Lizardo Thomas D Hall

Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication Scott Slovic,Swarnalatha Rangarajan,Vidya Sarveswaran,2019-02-01 Ecocriticism and environmental communication studies have for many years co-existed as parallel disciplines occasionally crossing paths but typically operating in separate academic spheres These fields are now rapidly converging and this handbook aims to reinforce the common concerns and methodologies of the sibling disciplines The Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication charts the history of the relationship between ecocriticism and environmental communication studies while also highlighting key new paradigms in information studies diverse examples of practical applications of environmental communication and textual analysis and the patterns and challenges of environmental communication in non-Western societies Contributors to this book include literary film and religious studies scholars communication studies specialists environmental historians practicing journalists art critics linguists ethnographers sociologists literary theorists and others but all focus their discussions on key issues in textual representations of human nature relationships and on the challenges and possibilities of environmental communication The handbook is designed to map existing trends in both ecocriticism and environmental communication and to predict future directions This handbook will be an essential reference for teachers students and practitioners of environmental literature film journalism communication and rhetoric and well as the broader meta-discipline of environmental humanities      The

Everglades United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on International Operations and Organizations, Democracy, and Human Rights,2008      Changes in the Landscape Jennifer L. French,2025-02-07

Changes in the Landscape is a collection of timely essays that bring the methodologies and commitments of ecocriticism to bear on the study of Latin American literature and cultural production The book's eleven chapters written by some of the leading voices in the field invite readers to consider how the relationship between humans and nonhuman nature was fundamentally transformed during a period when new modes of capitalist production were emerging in the region and around the world Jennifer L French's introductory essay provides a historical and theoretical framework for the collection

Ranging from the immediate aftermath of the Spanish American Wars of Independence 1810 1826 to the early twentieth century 1925 the volume's essays cover a wide variety of genres and forms of cultural production from Jos Hernández's epic poem Martín Fierro to prose fiction painting and photography and the personal albums compiled by Spanish American women Individually and collectively the essays engage with scientific writing as both a discourse of power and a source of potentially significant even revelatory information about human and nonhuman nature Changes in the Landscape enables readers to more fully understand the transition from colonial regimes to the ecocidal extractivism of the export boom 1870 1930 by drawing out and analyzing some of the cognitive resources and rhetorical strategies that were available to imagine protest or enact new norms and expectations regarding the relations between human and nonhuman life be it the life of wildflowers waterfalls or Cuba's Ciénaga de Zapata
