Endless Night Cinema And Psychoanalysis Parallel Historie:

Endless Night Janet Bergstrom, 1999-06-30 On film theory and psychoanalysis Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi, 2024-12-30 Combining Lacanian psychoanalytic theory Iranian Shi'ite thought and Islamicate sexualities Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis The Interpreter of Desires provides a groundbreaking analysis of the logic of desire and sexuality in key films of contemporary Iranian cinema arguing that there is a profound albeit surprising correlation between post revolutionary Iranian cinema and psychoanalysis that has remained unthought Looking through the prism of psychoanalysis Farshid Kazemi argues that censorship on the representation and expression of sexual desire in Iranian films has contrary to the desired effect produced a cinema of desire This book is the first to provide an analysis of the unconscious structure of desire and sexuality operative in post revolutionary Iranian cinema demonstrating that psychoanalytic literature is uniquely positioned to shed light on this aspect of film Kazemi uncovers the hidden libidinal economy of Iranian cinema by exposing the fact that despite the State censor's desire to suppress desire it has inadvertently inscribed desire in its formal structure The book offers a compelling and innovative examination of Iranian cinema through a psychoanalytic lens contributing significantly to the field of film studies Iranian Cinema with Psychoanalysis will be of great interest to academics and scholars of film studies psychoanalytic studies Lacanian theory film theory Iranian cinema global cinema Iranian studies and Middle Eastern studies Taking Back Desire: A Psychoanalytic Approach to Queerness and Neoliberalism on Screen James Lawrence Slattery, 2025-05-13 Taking Back Desire studies film television and video art texts through a Lacanian prism to restore a sense of queer as troubling identity and resistance to neoliberal forms of inclusion James Lawrence Slattery illuminates how the framing of desire identity enjoyment resistance and knowledge contribute to the investment in neoliberal formations of being and success despite the corrosive effects neoliberalism has had for much of society The book does not read queerness on screen as a discernible group of characters or narrative formulas but as a point that meaning fails in the visual and temporal field Examining the interrelation of the real the imaginary and the symbolic in contemporary politics and contemporary media Slattery investigates how a diverse selection of moving image texts forge queerness as a relationship to the lack while crucially resisting the creation of a new or definitive canon Taking Back Desire will be essential reading for academics and scholars of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis queer theory late capitalism film television and media studies sexuality studies critical race theory cultural studies and feminist theory

Phenomenology and the Future of Film J. Chamarette, 2012-09-28 Using hybrid phenomenological approaches to film this book focuses on how moving images are experienced and encountered as well as read and viewed Its close engagements with films and installations by four contemporary French filmmakers explore the limits and possibilities of cinematic subjectivity

Film, Theory and Philosophy Felicity Colman, 2014-12-05 Philosophy and in particular continental philosophy has provided a conceptual underpinning for cinema since its beginnings especially in the development of cinematic aesthetics In its turn film has rethought the abstractions of space and time and the categories of sex and gender and has created new concepts which illuminate phenomenology metaphysics and epistemology Film and Philosophy brings together leading scholars to provide a detailed overview of the key thinkers who have shaped the field of film philosophy The thinkers include continental and post continental philosophers analytic philosophers film makers film reviewers sociologists and cultural theorists The essays reveal how philosophy can be applied to film analysis and how film can be used to illustrate philosophical problems But more importantly the essays explore how film has shaped what philosophy thinks and how philosophy has lead to a reappraisal of film The book will prove an invaluable reference and guide to readers interested in a deeper understanding of the issues and insights presented by film philosophy Film and Philosophy includes essays on Hugo Munsterberg Vilem Flusser Siegfried Kracauer Theodor Adorno Antonin Artaud Henri Bergson Maurice Merleau Ponty Emmanuel Levinas Andre Bazin Roland Barthes Serge Daney Jean Luc Godard Stanley Cavell Jean Luc Nancy Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Sarah Kofman Paul Virilio Jean Baudrillard Jean Francois Lyotard Fredric Jameson Felix Guattari Raymond Bellour Christian Metz Julia Kristeva Laura Mulvey Homi Bhabha Slavoj Zizek Stephen Heath Alain Badiou Jacques Ranciere Leo Bersani Giorgio Agamben and Michel Chion

Medieval and Early Modern Film and Media R. Burt, 2016-04-30
 Medieval and Early Modern Film and Media contextualizes historical films in an innovative way not only relating them to the history of cinema but also to premodern and early modern media This philological approach to the pre history of cinema engages both old media such as scrolls illuminated manuscripts the Bayeux Tapestry and new digital media such as DVDs HD DVDs and computers Burt examines the uncanny repetitions that now fragment films into successively released alternate cuts and extras footnote tracks audiocommentaries and documentaries that re structure and reframe historical films thereby presenting new challenges to historicist criticism and film theory With a double focus on recursive narrative frames and the cinematic paratexts of medieval and early modern film this book calls our attention to strange sometimes opaque phenomena in film and literary theory that have previously gone unrecognized

Picnic at Hanging Rock Anna Backman Rogers, 2022-10-06
 Peter Weir's haunting and allusive Picnic at Hanging Rock 1975 set in 1900 tells the story of the mysterious disappearance of three schoolgirls and their teacher on a trip to a local geological formation The film is widely hailed as a classic of new Australian cinema seen as exemplary of a peculiarly Australian style of heritage filmmaking Anna Backman Rogers study considers Picnic from feminist psychoanalytic and decolonialising perspectives exploring its setting in a colonised Australian bushland in which the Aboriginal people are a spectral presence in a landscape stolen from them in pursuit of the white man's terra nullius She delves into the film's production history addressing director Weir's influences and preoccupations at the time of its making its reception and its lasting impact on visual culture more broadly Rogers addresses the film's treatment of the young schoolgirls and their teachers seemingly as embodiments of an archetype of the eternal feminine as objects of the male gaze and in terms of ideas about female hysteria as a protest against gender norms

She argues that Picnic is in fact highly subversive a film that requires its viewers to read its seductive surfaces against the grain of the image in order to uncover its psychological depths

The Comedy of Philosophy Lisa Trahair, 2012-02-01 The Comedy of Philosophy brings modern debates in continental philosophy to bear on the historical study of early cinematic comedy Through the films of Mack Sennett Buster Keaton Charlie Chaplin Harold Lloyd and the Marx Brothers Lisa Trahair investigates early cinema's exploration of sense and nonsense by utilizing the contributions to the philosophy of comedy made by Freud and Bataille and by examining significant poststructuralist interpretations of their work Trahair explores the shift from the excessive physical slapstick of the Mack Sennett era to the so called structural comedy of the 1920s and also offers a new perspective on the importance of psychoanalysis for the study of film by focusing on the implications of Freud's theory of the unconscious for our understanding of visuality

Dreams in Myth, Medicine, and Movies Sharon Packer MD, 2002-08-30 Cinema invented just before psychoanalysis formally developed primed the public and scholars to rethink ideas about dreams The author describes how surrealist artists purposely applied Freudian dream theories to their art to make the public aware of modern ideas about dreams Most of our current cultural consciousness about the psychological value of dreams is traced to classical and contemporary cinema This work examines how residuals of past approaches to dreams make conceptions of dreams in psychoanalysis and science more complex than ever today Scholars and students in the fields of psychology psychiatry cinema medicine and religion may find this volume useful The book also examines academic psychiatry's increased emphasis in dream study on neuropsychiatry and psychopharmacology as well as managed care's decreased compensation for dream therapy

Warped Minds Temenuga Trifonova, 2025-10-01 Warped Minds explores the transformation of psychopathologies into cultural phenomena in the wake of the transition from an epistemological to an ontological approach to psychopathology Trifonova considers several major points in this intellectual history the development of a dynamic model of the self at the fin de siècle the role of photography and film in the construction of psychopathology the influence of psychoanalysis on the transition from static universalizing psychiatric paradigms to dynamic styles of psychiatry foregrounding the socially constructed nature of madness and the decline of psychoanalysis and the aestheticization of madness into a trope describing the conditions of knowledge in postmodernity as evidenced by the transformation of multiple personality and paranoia into cultural and aesthetic phenomena

Mapping the Moving Image Pasi Väliäho, 2010 In Mapping the Moving Image Pasi Väliäho offers a compelling study of how the medium of film came to shape our experience and thinking of the world and ourselves By locating the moving image in new ways of seeing and saying as manifest in the arts science and philosophy at the turn of the twentieth century the book redefines the cinema as one of the most important anthropological processes of modernity Moving beyond the typical understanding of cinema based on optical and linguistic models Mapping the Moving Image takes the notion of rhythm as its cue in conceptualizing the medium's morphogenetic potentialities to generate affectivity behaviour and logics of sense It provides a clear picture of how the forms of early film while mobilizing bodily gestures and demanding intimate affective engagement from the viewer emerged in relation to bio political investments in the body The book also charts from a fresh perspective how the new gestural dynamics and viscosity of the moving image fed into our thinking of time memory and the unconscious

Trauma Cinema Janet Walker, 2023-11-15 Trauma Cinema focuses on a new breed of documentary films and videos that adopt catastrophe as their subject matter and trauma as their aesthetic Incorporating oral testimony home movie footage and documentary reenactment these documentaries express the havoc trauma wreaks on history and memory Janet Walker uses incest and the Holocaust as a double thematic focus and fiction films as a point of comparison Her astute and original examination considers the Hollywood classic Kings Row and the television movie Sybil in relation to vanguard nonfiction works including Errol Morris's Mr Death Lynn Herschman's video diaries and the chilling genealogy of incest Just Melvin Both incest and the Holocaust have also been featured in contemporary psychological literature on trauma and memory The author employs theories of post traumatic stress disorder and histories of the so called memory wars to illuminate the amnesias fantasies and mistakes in memory that must be taken into account along with corroborated evidence if we are to understand how personal and public historical meaning is made Janet Walker's engrossing narrative demonstrates that the past does not come down to us purely and simply through eyewitness accounts and tangible artifacts Her incisive analysis exposes the frailty of memory in the face of disquieting events while her joint consideration of trauma cinema and psychological theorizing radically reconstructs the roadblocks at the intersection of catastrophe memory and historical representation Trauma Cinema focuses on a new breed of documentary films and videos that adopt catastrophe as their subject matter and trauma as their aesthetic Incorporating oral testimony home movie footage and documentary reenactment these documentaries ex

inspired film audiences and fascinated critics and film scholars for decades This book offers an original analysis of the movement and its defining films from the perspective of the cultural unconscious Combining a Jungian reading with traditional theorizations of film and national identity Filming the Nation reinterprets familiar images of well known masterpieces by Roberto Rossellini Vittorio de Sica and Luchino Visconti and introduces some of their less renowned yet equally significant films Providing an illuminating analysis of film images across a particularly traumatic and complex historical period Filming the Nation revisits the concept of national identity and its construction from a perspective that combines cultural psychoanalytic and post Jungian theories As such this book will be essential reading for all students and scholars of film and psychoanalysis

Violence and the Oedipal Unconscious Nidesh Lawtoo, 2023-05-01 Representations of violence are often said to generate cathartic effects but what does catharsis mean And what theory of the unconscious made this concept so popular that it reaches from classical antiquity to the digital age In Violence and the Oedipal Unconscious Nidesh Lawtoo reframes current debates on new media violence by tracing the philosophical aesthetic and historical vicissitudes of the catharsis hypothesis from antiquity to modernity and into the present Drawing on theorists of mimesis from Aristotle to Nietzsche Bernays to Breuer Freud to Girard to Morin Lawtoo offers a genealogy of the relationship between violence and the unconscious with at least two aims First this study gives an account of the birth of the Oedipal unconscious out of a cathartic method Second it provides new theoretical foundations to solve a riddle of new media violence that may no longer rest on Oedipal solutions In the process Lawtoo outlines a new theory of violence mimesis and the unconscious that does not have desire as a via regia but rather the untimely realization that all affects spread contagiously and thus mimetically
