Ends And Odds Plays And Sketches:

Ends and Odds Samuel Beckett, 1977 The Grove Companion to Samuel Beckett C. J. Ackerly, S. E.

Gontarski, 2007-12-01 The Nobel Prize winning author Samuel Beckett is a literary treasure and this work represents the only comprehensive reference to the concepts characters and biographical details mentioned by or related to Beckett

Painstakingly and lovingly compiled by acclaimed Beckett scholars C J Ackerly and S E Gontarski it is alphabetical cross referenced and laid out in a very user friendly format The Grove Companion to Samuel Beckett provides an organized trove of information for students and scholars alike and is a must for any serious reader of Beckett As most Beckettians know reading him for the first time is an experience like no other in modern literature Paul Auster On Beckett S. E.

Gontarski, 2014-01-15 On Beckett Essays and Criticism is the first collection of writings about the Nobel Prize winning author that covers the entire spectrum of his work and also affords a rare glimpse of the private Beckett More has been written about Samuel Beckett than about any other writer of this century countless books and articles dealing with him are in print and the progression continues geometrically On Beckett brings together some of the most perceptive writings from the vast amount of scrutiny that has been lavished on the man in addition to widely read essays there are contributions from more obscure sources viewpoints not frequently seen Together they allow the reader to enter the world of a writer whose work has left an impact on the consciousness of our time perhaps unmatched by that of any other recent creative imagination The Ma(r)king the Text Joe Bray, Miriam Handley, Anne C. Henry, 2018-12-20 First published in 2000 this volume is a unique collection of essays which draws our attention to the importance of those textual elements traditionally ignored in literary criticism These include punctuation footnotes epigraphs typography cover design white space and marginalia features which significantly affect the meaning of a literary text The first section of the book opens with a proposal for a new theory of punctuation The essays which follow are devoted to detailed interpretations of particular marks in the work of individual writers including Spenser Richardson and George Eliot The consequences of this approach to the literary text are examined in the second section of the book which begins with a debate on editorial practice and responsibility and features insights from editors Attention is drawn in particular to the special issues thrown up by dramatic texts translations and electronic editions The relationship of marks to the main text is far from subordinate and we cannot appreciate the full interpretative potential of a text without considering this The essays here compel us to assess the interaction of textual and literary meaning To mark a text is to make it The Existential and its Exits L. A. C. Dobrez, 2014-01-13 The book fills a significant gap in modern critical studies Hitherto there has been no considered attempt to relate Existentialist thought to contemporary literature and this is precisely what Dr Dobrez achieves taking four leading writers and discussing their work in relation to Husserl Heidegger and Sartre Readers will find this account enlightening in its discussion of Existentialism itself and its application of Existentialist principles in modern literature Thus this book will be of great value to students of both contemporary literature and modern philosophy Transformations in Modern European Drama Ian

Donaldson, 1983-06-18 Beckett Matters S.E. Gontarski, 2016-10-27 Representing a profound engagement with the work of Samuel Beckett this volume gathers the very best of Stan Gontarski's Beckett criticism on practical theoretical and critical levels Such a range suggests a multiplicity of approaches to a body of work itself multiple produced by an artist who underwent any number of transformations and reinventions over his long writing career a Many of the essays collected here explore Beckett's debt to his age Beckett very much a product of a culture in transition which change he would help foster But much of Beckett's creative struggle was to find a new way his own way a Most of the essays that comprise this volume detail that struggle toward a way we now call Beckettian Early Modern Beckett/Beckett et le début de l'ère

new exploration of Samuel Beckett's work Pascale Casanova argues that Beckett's reputation rests on a pervasive misreading of his oeuvre which neglects entirely the literary revolution he instigated Reintroducing the historical into the heart of this body of work Casanova provides an arresting portrait of Beckett as radically subversive doing for writing what Kandinsky did for art and in the process presents the key to some of the most profound enigmas of Beckett's writing New Tragedy and

Comedy in France, 1945-70 Peter Norrish, 1988-06-18 This is a study about the reshaping of tragedy and comedy in serious French drama in the quarter century following World War II It offers an introduction to the most important plays of the period which include those of Sartre Arrabal Beckett Ionesco Camus Montherlant Adamov and Genet Literature:

1968-1980 Sture Allén, 1993 Equally important to our understanding of history and humanity are the great works of literature The Nobel Prize for literature recognises modern classics and the efforts of authors to bridge gaps between different cultures time periods and styles the prizewinners between 1968 and 1980 are from four continents These volumes are collections of the Nobel lectures delivered by the prizewinners together with their biographies portraits and presentation speeches for the period 1968 1980 Each Nobel lecture is based on the work that won the laureate his prize New biographical data of the laureates since they were awarded the Nobel prize are also included These volumes of inspiring lectures by outstanding individuals should be on everyone s bookshelf Below is a list of the prizewinners during the period 1968 1980

1968 Y KAWABATA for his narrative mastery which with great sensibility expresses the essence of the Japanese mind 1969 S BECKETT for his writing which in new forms for the novel and drama in the destitution of modern man acquires its elevation 1970 A SOLZHENITSYN for the ethical force with which he has pursued the indispensable traditions of Russian literature 1971 P NERUDA for a poetry that with the action of an elemental force brings alive a continent s destiny and dreams 1972 H B LL for his writing which through its combination of a broad perspective on his time and a sensitive skill in characterization has contributed to a renewal of German literature 1973 P WHITE for an epic and psychological narrative art which has introduced a new continent to literature 1974 E JOHNSON for a narrative art far seeing in lands and ages in the service of freedom H MARTINSON for writings that catch the dewdrop and reflect the cosmos 1975 E MONTALE for his distinctive poetry which with great artistic sensitivity has interpreted human values under the sign of an outlook on life with no illusions 1976 S BELLOW for the human understanding and subtle analysis of contemporary culture that are combined in his work 1977 V ALEIXANDRE for a creative poetic writing which illuminates man s condition in the cosmos and in present day society at the same time representing the great renewal of the traditions of Spanish poetry between the wars 1978 I B SINGER for his impassioned narrative art which with roots in a Polish Jewish cultural tradition brings universal human conditions to life 1979 O ELYTIS for his poetry which against the background of Greek tradition depicts with sensuous strength and intellectual clear sightedness modern man s struggle for freedom and creativeness 1980 C MI OSZ who with uncompromising clear sightedness voices man s exposed condition in a world of severe conflicts
