Enduring Violence Cecilia Menjívar, 2011-04-01 Drawing on revealing in depth interviews Cecilia Menjívar investigates the role that violence plays in the lives of Ladina women in eastern Guatemala a little visited and little studied region While much has been written on the subject of political violence in Guatemala Menjívar turns to a different form of suffering the violence embedded in institutions and in everyday life so familiar and routine that it is often not recognized as such Rather than painting Guatemala or even Latin America as having a cultural propensity for normalizing and accepting violence Menjívar aims to develop an approach to examining structures of violence profound inequality exploitation and poverty and gender ideologies that position women in vulnerable situations grounded in women's experiences. In this way, her study provides a glimpse into the root causes of the increasing wave of femicide in Guatemala as well as in other Latin American countries and offers observations relevant for understanding violence against women around the world today.

Women Who Kill David Roche, Cristelle Maury, 2020-02-20 Women Who Kill explores several lines of inquiry: the female murderer as a figure that destabilizes order; the tension between criminal and victim; the relationship between crime and expression or the lack thereof; and the paradox whereby a crime can be both an act of destruction and a creative assertion of agency. In doing so, the contributors assess the influence of feminist, queer, and gender studies on mainstream television and cinema, notably in the genres film noir, horror, melodrama, that have received the most critical attention from this perspective. They also analyse the politics of representation by considering these works of fiction in their contexts and addressing some of the ambiguities raised by postfeminism. The book is structured in three parts: Neo-femmes, Fatales, Action Babes, and Monstrous Women. Films and series examined include White Men Are Cracking Up (1994), Hit Gone Girl (2014), Terminator (1984), The Walking Dead (2010), Mad Max: Fury Road (2015), Contagion (2011), and Ex Machina (2015) among others.

Women's Movements Sandra Grey, Marian Sawyer, 2008-04-24 This comparative book brings together scholars to examine the changing patterns of feminist activism and the new local, global, and cyber spaces in which it is to be found. It addresses the question: where have women's movements gone?

Corporeal Archipelagos: Writing the Body in Francophone Oceanian Women's Literature offers an examination of contemporary literature from the French speaking Oceanian region through a focus on four of its most prolific women writers and the ways in which these writers negotiate identity construction through one of the most powerful identity markers in the region the body The question of the body how one is to make meaning through corporeality how one represents the body and what role the body plays in identity construction is not only a question with which feminists and postcolonial theorists have been grappling for nearly a half century The body is of integral significance to autochthonous Oceanian societies whose views of corporeality are not built upon a dualistic mind/body binary that has influenced Western thought since the era of Descartes but rather on a cosmological epistemological axis that comprehends the body as intertwined with symbolic social and ideological understandings of identity Beginning with an analysis of the ways in which the Oceanian body has been portrayed and consumed as an exotic object of fascination throughout three centuries of European literature the book examines the myriad methods by which women writers break away from exotic myths and reappropriate the body as a powerful tool that enables them to confront the question of self definition in French speaking Oceania The authors examined in this book employ culturally racially and sexually specific bodies in the creation of an original confrontational literature that transgresses historically and culturally imposed boundaries audaciously inserting their voices the voices of Oceania into the postcolonial francophone literary scene

Women's Writing about the East, 1867-1929 Shoshannah Ganz □, 2017-04-17 Eastern Encounters releases early Canadian women writers from a simple focus on autobiography and racial politics and interrogates their specific and sophisticated Asian influences With a compelling reconstruction of historical context Ganz has created perhaps the first book in a much needed series that will revisit Canadian nationalism through the important cultural exchanges she examines Though shaped with an Asian readership in mind Eastern Encounters is an important work for all who wish to challenge the notion that Judeo Christian traditions almost exclusively shaped early Canadian discourse Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins, 2002-06-01 In spite of the double burden of racial and gender discrimination African American women have developed a rich intellectual tradition that is not widely known In Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins explores the words and ideas of Black feminist intellectuals as well as those African American women outside academe She provides an interpretive framework for the work of such prominent Black feminist thinkers as Angela Davis bell hooks Alice Walker and Audre Lorde The result is a superbly crafted book that provides the first synthetic overview of Black feminist thought

Role of Muslim Woman in Society Afzalur Rahman , 1986-09-21 In this book an attempt is made to describe the possible role of Muslim woman in a modern society in the light of the Qur'an and of the Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad In this respect special consideration will be given to the effect of natural factors on the respective spheres of operation of the sexes woman's position and status in society whether equal or unequal and whether the respective roles of the sexes have any influence in determining their status and role in society Woman in Islamic Shari'ah Vahiduddin Khan, 2000 The book tries to clear the notion that to interpret the Islamic concept of woman as degradation of woman is to distort the actual issue Islam has never asserted that woman is inferior to man it has only made the point that woman is differently constituted The prophet used a parable to explain the delicacy of women's nature pointing out that they should be treated in accordance with their nature Their delicate emotional constitution should always be borne in mind Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria

The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria Women's Best Friendships Patricia Rind,2012-12-06 Explore the distinct relationships of close female friends Women s Best Friendships Beyond Betty Veronica Thelma and Louise gives new and comprehensive insight into the complex world of women s closest friendships Recent studies have shown that women place enormous value on best friendships and consider them to be woven tightly into the fabric of their lives Using in depth interviews along with close readings of relevant literature and theory this book focuses on the many facets of these relationships With heartfelt first person accounts and insightful commentary from the author this book examines three intertwining themes feelings of competition issues of dependence and independence and knowing understanding This book sheds light on areas of tension among women especially difficulties in communication frustration about not being entirely let into a friend s life and thought processes and the feeling that one friend may value the friendship more than the other It also discusses women s struggles to maintain closeness over increased distances and the realization that one s friends are flawed even as friends This informative book grounded in established research and theory presents stories of real friendships told by the people who live them These women talk candidly about what makes a best friend about navigating the choppy waters of friendship and much more Somehow when we started living farther apart there were ways in which we were being insensitive We recognized that there was a really strong bond but we were taking it for granted So we talked about how close we feel to one another and perhaps how that leads to some arguments or hurt feelings Liz on how distance has affected her relationship with her best friend Susan Em and I don t fight at all I don t know if that s good or bad I don t think I do well with fights I think that s probably a lot of conflict avoidance on my part And I think it does lead to some distance even though it s a best friendship I think I m uncomfortable asserting myself And so it s easier not to have to do that So maybe my inability to deal with the problems keeps the friendship at a distance where it s safe and comfortable for me in that one respect Linda about her desire to avoid any confrontation with Emily her best friend Women s Best Friendships Beyond Betty Veronica Thelma and Louise is a fresh and exciting look at the inner workings of relationships between women Drawing upon a multitude of issues and insights this book is a must have for women s studies classes Muhammad □ Encyclopædia of Seerah Afzalur Rahman,1987-12-18 The Encyclopaedia of Seerah is a unique approach to analyse and study the life of Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him with an emphasis on the lifestyle of the Prophet This Digital Edition is available in 9 Volumes
