Hazell's Annual ... a Cyclopædic Record of Men and Topics of the Day ... ,1918

WORLD WAR II SEA WAR:

FRANCE FALLS, BRITAIN STANDS ALONE: Day-to-Day Naval Actions from April 1940 through September 1940

Donald A. Bertke, Don Kindell, Gordon Smith, 2011-07-31 Day to Day Naval Actions April 1940 through September 1940

Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States ,1917

The 92nd Infantry Division and the Italian Campaign in World War II Daniel K. Gibran, 2017-07-06 This work focuses on the all black 92nd Infantry Division in the Italian Campaign in World War II and the poor combat performance of the division in Italy An introduction provides an overall view of the Italian Campaign and the role of the 92nd Infantry Division The author then examines the reasons for the division's troubles on and off the battlefield such as the low morale among the soldiers because of racial segregation the limited facilities provided for them and their lack of trust in their leadership All of these issues are explored at length

Information on the early life and military training and experience of General Ned Almond is provided along with the stories of Vernon Baker and John Fox who emerged as leaders but endured a long struggle for recognition The author concludes this work on a personal note by telling of his involvement as principal investigator of Acting Secretary of the Army John Shannon's study of why no African American received the Medal of Honor in World War II a situation that was rectified in the late 1990s See Elliott V Converse Daniel K Gibran et al The Exclusion of Black Soldiers from the Medal of Honor in World War II McFarland 1997 29 95

The Italian Army and the First World War John Gooch, 2014-06-19 A major new account of the role and performance of the Italian army in the First World War Setting military events in a broad context Gooch explores pre war Italian military culture and reveals how an army with a reputation for failure fought a challenging war in appalling conditions and won

The Naval Policy of Austria-Hungary, 1867-1918 Lawrence Sondhaus, 1994 The Austro Hungarian navy warrants recognition because it functioned far better than most organs of the multinational Habsburg state Ultimately in the pre World War I age of navalism the fleet provided a unique common cause for a wide variety of nationalities and political parties Dramatic funding increases fueled the expansion of the fleet and lucrative naval contracts judiciously distributed reinforced and further broadened the navy's base of support Though often criticized by its German ally the Austro Hungarian navy succeeded in defending the Adriatic throughout World War I in the process requiring the constant attention of a significant share of enemy sea power as late as the spring of 1918 an American admiral characterized the Adriatic as an Austrian lake The navy collapsed only when Austria Hungary as a whole disintegrated in the last days of the war This detailed study charts the uneven growth of the Austro Hungarian navy from its high point following Archduke Ferdinand Max's administration and the War of 1866 to its ultimate dissolution after World War I In following this development Sondhaus not only relates the operational aspects of the Habsburg navy but also traces the growth of popular navalism in Austria Hungary the role of naval expansion in stimulating industrial development and the peculiar difficulties of navy commanders in dealing with the Habsburg nationality problem and the cumbersome politics of Austro Hungarian dualism Drawing on a vast variety of archival sources and government documents and protocols Sondhaus analyzes economic factors carefully and shows how these tended to complicate perhaps even to override political divisions He ably demonstrates how such varied factors as the wavering policy of Italy French naval theory the need for consensus within the Dual Monarchy and the general European escalation in naval armaments influenced the fortunes of the fleet
