

EXECUTIVE POWER

Executive power refers to the authority and responsibility given to the branch of government that enforces and administers laws.

The executive branch, led by the head of state or head of government (such as a president or prime minister), carries out the day-to-day operations of the country. It is responsible for implementing and executing laws, managing government departments and agencies, making decisions on behalf of the nation, and ensuring that policies and programs are carried out effectively.
