Enfances Perspectives Sociales Et Pluriculturelles:

, The (Un)Making of the Modern Family Daniel Dagenais, 2009-05-01 The family institution is undergoing a radical transformation The modern meanings of kinship marriage parenthood gender and sexuality are now being questioned and debates on same sex marriages and parenthood or on divorce and blended families are reflective of these challenges The Un Making of the Modern Family is neither an indictment of the new family nor a rallying cry It is a classical exercise of family sociology that draws upon a range of disciplines history anthropology psychology and demography to provide an interpretive model for understanding contemporary changes in the family It explores traditional family forms in order to identify changes that gave birth to the ideal type of the modern family and it discusses how the modern family s constituent elements the family as institution conjugal and parent child relationships and gender and sexuality relate to modernity s central feature the concept of the individual By reconstructing an archetype of the modern family this book explains why individuals have experienced its deconstruction as a profound identity crisis It will appeal to anyone concerned with the future of the post modern family and society Published originally by Les Presses de l Universit Laval as La fin de la famille moderne this book was awarded the 2000 1 Prix Jean Charles Falardeau for the best book published in French in Canada in the field of social sciences
