Engendering Budgets Debbie Budlender, Guy Hewitt, 2003 Tax, Inequality, and Human Rights Philip Alston, Nikki Reisch, 2019-04-11 This book examines why taxation is central to the enjoyment or suppression of human rights in an age of rising nationalism authoritarianism and disillusionment with the traditional role of the state Taxation and human rights are at the heart of debates about the appropriate balance in society between the public and private sectors and ultimately the content of a new social contract

Women in Business Paola Demartini, Francesca Maria Cesaroni, Paola Paoloni, 2019-11-11 The role of women in entrepreneurship management and corporate governance is regarded as central to the development and welfare of economies Since the early 1980s there has been increased interest in women managers and entrepreneurs often from an interdisciplinary approach combining for example sociology psychology management and organisational studies and economics Nowadays research on women in management and organisations is continuously and rapidly evolving Paoloni and Demartini 2016 Research on how women face new business challenges within organisations as entrepreneurs owners managers as well as workers can contribute to understanding the new drivers affecting value creation dynamics in our knowledge based society Cesaroni Demartini and Paoloni 2017 Accordingly this book tries to offer some insights on how women create process and share knowledge in their business activity through the application and exploitation of novel creative ideas and solutions

Gender-Responsive Budgeting in Practice Bola Akanji, Funmi Soetan, 2022-03-30 In the twenty first century gender responsive budgeting GRB has emerged as a development tool that explores if and how gender equality goals and targets are being effectively supported through government funding Gender Responsive Budgeting in Practice Lessons from Nigeria and Selected Developing Countries argues that although justified by the high costs of gender inequality to economic growth and development the use of GRB as a tool to achieve global and regional gender equality goals has seen little progress in the twenty first century especially in developing countries Through analyses of government budgets and the budgeting process and gender equality outcomes in Nigeria and the selected countries from 2000 to 2020 the contributors show that GRB has failed to gain traction or thrive in developing countries Using these analyses the contributors identify critical success factors that are missing in policy making and planning in the developing world and must be integrated in order to further facilitate inclusive growth and sustainable development

Fiscal Policies and Gender Equality Ms. Lisa L Kolovich, 2018-04-11 This volume contains seven chapters that consider how fiscal policies can address women s and girls disadvantages in education health employment and financial well being Researchers from a joint collaboration between the International Monetary Fund and the UK s Department for International Development presented papers at a 2016 international conference on gender budgeting at the International

Monetary Fund headquarters in Washington DC and detail the findings of their work here which draws on published materials a questionnaire sent to ministries of finance to all International Monetary Fund member countries and interviews with country officials and international organizations that offer technical assistance to countries seeking to implement gender budgeting They describe key gender budgeting efforts planning allocating and monitoring government expenditures and taxes to address gender inequality in sub Saharan Africa Asia and the Pacific Europe Latin America and Canada the Middle East and Central Asia and the Pacific Islands and Caribbean

Gender Responsive Budgeting in Fragile States Monica Costa,2017-08-16 A growing number of governments have made commitments to achieving gender equality and women s rights with many using gender responsive budgeting GRB to allocate resources for the delivery of economic policy and governance that benefit men and women equally At a time when GRB is growing in global traction this book investigates what it can deliver for gender equality and state resilience in contexts where the state is weak or prone to violence such as in Timor Leste Gender Responsive Budgeting in Fragile States The Case of Timor Leste uses the Timor Leste case to investigate whether gender equality reform can be adopted at the same time as establishing economic and institutional fundamentals While some may have thought that the adoption of GRB strategy in 2008 was premature Monica Costa argues that GRB initiatives have contributed to budget accountability and transparency and ultimately improved policy and budget processes and decisions This multi disciplinary analysis of a decade of GRB demonstrates why GRB is important to inform the debate on state fragility resilience and argues that fragile states cannot defer gender equality in the name of getting the economic and institutional basics right While a growing number of fragile states have taken steps to make their budget more gender responsive questions remain for economists and policy makers about what can be achieved and how Gender Responsive Budgeting in Fragile States is the first international publication on GRB in fragile state contexts and will be of interest to researchers upper level students policy makers and NGOs with an interest in policy economics gender and development
