

An illustration from a high-angle perspective showing five business professionals in a meeting. They are seated around a large, light-colored conference table on a green-tiled floor. The table is cluttered with various items: a laptop, several sheets of paper, a calculator, a mobile phone, a coffee cup, and some pens. The people are dressed in business attire; some are looking at documents, while others are gesturing or looking towards the center of the table. The overall scene depicts a collaborative work environment.
