Engines Pull Wagons 1933-1945:

Machseh Lajesoumim Jaap Focke, 2025-10-01 The Jewish Orphanage in Leiden was the last one of eight such care homes to open its doors in the Netherlands before the Second World War. After spending almost 39 years in an old and utterly inadequate building in Leiden's city centre, the inauguration in 1929 of a brand new building shown on the front cover was the start of a remarkably productive and prosperous period. The building still stands there proudly but sadly to this day the relatively happy period lasted less than fourteen years. On Wednesday evening 17th March 1943 the Leiden police under German instructions closed down the orphanage and delivered 50 children and nine staff to the Leiden railway station from where they were brought to Transit Camp Westerbork in the north east of the country. Two boys were released from Westerbork thanks to tireless efforts of a neighbour in Leiden; one young woman survived Auschwitz and one young girl escaped to Palestine via Bergen Belsen. The remaining 55 were deported to Sobibor and not one of them survived. Some 168 children lived in the new building at one time or another between August 1929 and March 1943. This book reconstructs life in the orphanage based on the many stories and photographs which they left us. It is dedicated to the memory of those who perished in the Holocaust but also to those who survived. Without them this book could not have been written. The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933 -1945: Volume II Geoffrey P.

Megargee, Martin Dean, 2012-05-04 Stands without doubt as the definitive reference guide on this topic in the world today. Holocaust and Genocide Studies. This volume of the extraordinary encyclopedia from the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum offers a comprehensive account of how the Nazis conducted the Holocaust throughout the scattered towns and villages of Poland and the Soviet Union. It covers more than 1 150 sites including both open and closed ghettos. Regional essays outline the patterns of ghettoization in nineteen German administrative regions. Each entry discusses key events in the history of the ghetto, living and working conditions, activities of the Jewish Councils, Jewish responses to persecution, demographic changes and details of the ghetto's liquidation. Personal testimonies help convey the character of each ghetto while source citations provide a guide to additional information. Documentation of hundreds of smaller sites previously unknown or overlooked in the historiography of the Holocaust make this an indispensable reference work on the destroyed Jewish communities of Eastern Europe. A very detailed analysis and history of the events that took place in the towns, villages and cities of German occupied Eastern Europe. A rich source of information. Library Journal.
