Economic Games People Play Shlomo Maital, Sharone L. Maital, 1984-05-20 Neural Substrates of Decision-Making in Economic Games Angela A. Stanton, 2008-03-25 In economic experiments decisions often differ from game theoretic predictions Why are people generous in one shot ultimatum games with strangers Is there a benefit to generosity toward strangers Research on the neural substrates of decisions suggests that some choices are hormone dependent By artificially stimulating subjects with neuroactive hormones we can identify which hormones and brain regions participate in decision making to what degree and in what direction Can a hormone make a person generous while another stingy In this paper two laboratory experiments are described using the hormones oxytocin OT and arginine vasopressin AVP Concentrations of these hormones in the brain continuously change in response to external stimuli OT enhances trust Michael Kosfeld et al 2005b reduce fear from strangers C Sue Carter 1998 and has anti anxiety effects Kerstin Uvn s Moberg Maria Peterson 2005 AVP enhances attachment and bonding with kin in monogamous male mammals Jennifer N Ferguson et al 2002 and increases reactive aggression C Sue Carter 2007 Dysfunctions of OT and or AVP reception have been associated with autism Miranda M Lim et al 2005

The Games People Play Robert Ellis, 2014-04-21 In The Games People Play Robert Ellis constructs a theology around the global cultural phenomenon of modern sport paying particular attention to its British and American manifestations Using historical narrative and social analysis to enter the debate on sport as religion Ellis shows that modern sport may be said to have taken on some of the functions previously vested in organized religion Through biblical and theological reflection he presents a practical theology of sport s appeal and value with special attention to the theological concept of transcendence Throughout he draws on original empirical work with sports participants and spectators The Games People Play addresses issues often considered problematic in theological discussions of sport such as gender race consumerism and the role of the modern media as well as problems associated with excessive competition and performance enhancing substances As Ellis explains Sporting journalists often use religious language in covering sports events Salvation features in many a headline and talk of moments of redemption is not uncommon Perhaps somewhere beyond the cliched hyperbole there is some theological truth in all this after all

Games People Played Wray Vamplew, 2021-09-14 Now in paperback this first global history of sports offers all spectators and participants a reason to cheer and to think Games People Played is surprisingly the first global history of sports The book shows how sports have been practiced experienced and made meaningful by players and fans throughout history It assesses how sports developed and diffused across the globe as well as many other aspects from emotion discrimination and conviviality to politics nationalism and protest and how economics has turned sports into a huge consumer industry It shows how sports are sociable and health giving and also contribute to charity However it also examines their dark side sports impact on the environment the use of performance enhancing drugs and match fixing Covering everything from curling to baseball boxing to motor racing this book will appeal to anyone who plays watches and enjoys sports and wants to know more about their history and global impact The Code Economy Philip E. Auerswald, 2017 Code is the how of human productive activity The creation implementation and refinement of code have been the infrastructure of human progress from Neolithic simplicity to modern complexity In a sweeping narrative that takes readers from the production of Stone Age axes to the invention of chocolate chip cookies to the experience of Burning Man Philip Auerswald argues that the key driver of human history is the advance of code At each major stage in the advance of code over the span of centuries shifts in the structure of society have challenged we human beings to reinvent not only how we work but who we are We are at one of those stages now The Code Economy offers an indispensable guide to the future based on a narrative stretching forty thousand years into the past Economics and Social Conflict C.

Mildenberger, 2013-01-11 This book brings to life the classic thought experiment of a natural state Provides data on the economic aspects of social conflict of 400 000 people living in a virtual anarchy showing evil actions and rules exist from an economic perspective Non instrumental violence has economic effects and inciting people to fight are not overcome in time

12 House of Commons - Culture, Media and Sport Committee: Supporting The Creative Economy - Volume I: HC 674 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee,2013-09-26 This report warns that the extraordinary success of the UK s creative industries may be jeopardised by any dilution of intellectual property rights and the failure to tackle online piracy The Committee also strongly condemns the failure of Google in particular to tackle access of copyright infringing websites through its search engine Such illegal piracy combined with proposals arising from the Hargreaves review to introduce copyright exceptions and a failure to strengthen copyright enforcement as envisaged by the Digital Economy Act 2010 together threaten the livelihoods of the individuals and industries that contribute over 36 billion annually to the UK economy Also the Olympics No Marketing Rights scheme is excessively restrictive and is preventing

British creative companies from realising the benefits they deserve from the Olympic legacy The Committee calls for a central champion of Intellectual Property in Government to promote and protect the interests of UK intellectual property the maximum penalty for serious online IP theft to be increased to 10 years imprisonment in line with the punishment for such offences in the physical world more evidence and scrutiny before any exceptions to copyright such as those suggested by Hargreaves are applied redoubled efforts to ensure that the video games tax credit is approved by the European Commission and introduced as soon as possible reforms to the income tax and tax reliefs systems to recognise adequately the freelance nature of much creative work greater recognition of the importance of arts subjects in the curriculum Borderlands of

Economics Nahid Aslanbeigui, Young B. Choi, 2005-06-23 In recent years there has been increasing discontent with the abstract nature of mainstream economics Not only does this make the subject less relevant to real issues it drives a wedge between economics and other disciplines ostensibly addressing the same issues Borderlands of Economics explores the ways in which economics might be reconnected both with the real world and with other disciplines The Economics of Rights, Co-operation and Welfare R. Sugden, 2004-10-01 This is a new edition with a substantial new introduction of a book which has had a significant impact on economics philosophy and political science Robert Sugden shows how conventions of property mutual aid and voluntary supply of public goods can evolve spontaneously out of the interactions of self interested individuals and can become moral norms Sugden was among the first social scientists to use evolutionary game theory His approach remains distinctive in emphasizing psychological and cultural notions of salience The Foundations of Behavioral Economic Analysis Sanjit S. Dhami, 2016 It considers the evidence against the exponential discounted utility model and describes several behavioral models such as hyperbolic discounting attribute based models and the reference time theory Part IV describes the evidence on classical game theory and considers several models of behavioral game theory including level k and cognitive hierarchy models quantal response equilibrium and psychological game theory Part V considers behavioral models of learning that include evolutionary game theory classical models of learning experience weighted attraction model learning direction theory and stochastic social dynamics Part VI studies the role of emotions among other topics it considers projection bias temptation preferences happiness economics and interaction between emotions and cognition Part VII considers bounded rationality The three main topics considered are judgment heuristics and biases mental accounting and behavioral finance Economics in a Changing World Jean-Paul Fitoussi, 1995-06-12 Growth patterns have changed radically over the last two decades to which capital and the labour markets appear to have failed to adapt Unemployment in Europe has been growing almost without remission to levels unseen since the Great Depression These facts are somewhat at odds with the development of growth theory which has mainly been orientated towards an equilibrium full employment framework The main message of equilibrium theory of fluctuations was precisely that the policy maker is impotent Now with the universal acceptance of endogenous growth theory the common consensus proposition would be we are all neo classical for the short run and Keynesian for the long run investment being too important for growth to be left entirely in private hands

The Politics of Serial Television Fiction Sebastian Naumann, 2025-03-18 Fictional TV politics played a pivotal role in the popular imaginaries of the 2010s across cultures Examining this curious phenomenon Sebastian Naumann provides a wide ranging analysis of the rapidly evolving landscape of contemporary polit series Proposing a novel structural model of serial television he offers an innovative methodological framework for comparative textual analysis that integrates sociocultural economic sociotechnical narratological and aesthetic perspectives This study furthermore explores how the changing affordances of nonlinear television impact serial storytelling and identifies key narrative trends and recurring themes in contemporary TV polit fiction
