Fall To Violence Original Sin In Relational Theology:

The Fall to Violence Marjorie Suchocki,1999 Fall to Violence Marjorie Hewitt Suchoki,1995-10-01 In this book Suchocki argues that the condition of original sin is not primarily a rebellion against God But a rebellion against creation Sin is action that whether intentionally or not contributes to the ill being of earth or its inhabitants Creaturely Theology Celia Deane-Drummond,David Clough,2009 Creaturely Theology is a ground breaking scholarly collection of essays that maps out the agenda for the future study of the theology of the non human and the post human A wide range of first rate contributors show that theological reflection on non human animals and related issues are an important though hitherto neglected part of the agenda of Christian theology and related disciplines Aquinas, Original Sin, and the Challenge of Evolution Daniel W. Houck,2020-03-12 Drawing on Aquinas Houck proposes a groundbreaking theory of original sin that is theologically robust and consonant with evolutionary theory The Entangled God Kirk Wegter-McNelly,2012-03-12 In The Entangled God Kirk Wegter McNelly addresses the age old theological question of how God is present to the world by constructing a novel scientifically informed account of the God world relation Drawing on recent scientific and philosophical work in quantum entanglement Wegter McNelly develops the metaphor of divine entanglement to ground the relationality and freedom of physical process in the power of God s relational being The Entangled God makes a three fold contribution to contemporary theological and religious discourse First it calls attention to the convergence of recent theology around the idea of relationality Second it introduces theological and religious readers to the fascinating story of quantum entanglement Third it offers a robust plerotic alternative to kenotic accounts of God s suffering presence in the world Above all this book takes us beyond the view of theology and science as adversaries and demonstrates the value of constructively relating these two important areas of intellectual investigation The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien,2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom Though the Fig Tree Does Not Blossom Ellen Ott Marshall,2015-09-16 This book charts a course through the equally inadequate options of despair and optimism to a responsible understanding and practice of Christian hope God the Revealed Michael Welker,2013-12-14 God revealed himself in Jesus Christ Christian faith has confessed and proclaimed this message for nearly two thousand years But what does it really mean In God the Revealed Michael Welker delves into this declaration and shows how it offers genuine insight into Christian faith He asks Who is Jesus Christ for us today and approaches the answer from five different angles the historical Jesus the resurrection the cross the reign of Christ and eschatology Uniquely Welker argues for the need to place historical Jesus research in a Christology and proposes a Fourth Quest for the historical Jesus A Morally Complex World James T. Bretzke, 2022-04-30 How can people celebrate the gospel of life in their daily lives What about cloning Is euthanasia morally acceptable in certain cases such as terminal illness In case of health reasons mental illness pregnancy due to rape etc is abortion morally acceptable Are you in favor of the use of contraceptives both natural and artificial A Morally Complex World will not answer such complex questions in detail but it does provide a framework for trying to grapple better with the first question of how we should lead our moral lives in general as well as some of the concrete ethical issues the other three questions raise A Morally Complex World is an accessible introduction to moral theology covering the methodology of moral theology basic concepts such as conscience and moral agency natural law moral norms how the Bible can be used in Christian ethics how to dialogue on contested ethical issues how to consider sin and moral failure and finally how to mediate moral principles and moral teaching in a pastorally sensitive manner in concrete life situations Chapters are Mapping a Moral Methodology The Natural Law and Moral Norms Moving Along the Rational Claim Axis Scripture and Ethics Moving Along the Sacred Claim Axis The Sanctuary of Conscience Where the Axes Intersect Modes of Moral Discourse Navigating Towards a Common Ground Navigating in the Morally Complex World Casuistry with a Human Face and Sin and Failure in a Morally Complex World James T Bretzke SJ STD is associate professor of theology and religious studies at the University of San Francisco and an adjunct professor of moral theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley He has written three books including Consecrated Phrases A Latin Theological Dictionary published by Liturgical Press which won an award from the Catholic Press Association He has also authored over fifty articles and scholarly reviews in the areas of Roman Catholic moral theology and cross cultural ethics

Healing Violent Men David J. Livingston, Violence forgiveness and healing Domestic violence is a widespread though largely invisible problem often exacerbated by the pastoral urge to keep the family together at all costs Yet if that is not a solution how should the church relate to batterers I believe that the Christian community if it is to be genuinely a community of healing and hope must attend to both the victims and the perpetrators of domestic violence says David Livingston Addressing the complex phenomenon of intimate violence against wives lovers and children Livingston profiles batterers and battering and traces it to larger cultural pathologies He explores the ambiguous role of religion and then offers practical advice of pastoral and programmatic efforts to embrace simultaneously the twin Christian imperatives of forgiveness and responsibility The Religious Imagination of American Women Mary Farrell Bednarowski, 1999-10-22 Explores five ideas that animate the theological imagination of women in religious communities throughout America ambivalence toward tradition the immanence or indwelling of the divine the sacredness of the ordinary and the ordinariness of the sacred the vision of the universe as a web of relationships and healing as a central function of religion back cover

Process Theology: A Guide for the Perplexed Bruce G. Epperly, 2011-03-24 This is an introductory guide to Process Theology for undergraduates As part of Continuum's Guide for the Perplexed series this text provides an accessible introduction to process theology aimed at nurturing the theological imagination of undergraduates pastors and interested laypersons It describes the major themes of process theology and relates them to the everyday lives and spiritual commitments of people today In addition to addressing traditional theological issues Epperly addresses cutting edge issues in theology and ethics such as pluralism and postmodernism matters of life and death science technology and genetics and emerging forms of Christianity This text is designed for seminary and university classes as well as congregational study It will help readers to overcome the obstacles created by the technical language often employed by process theologians Continuum's Guides for the Perplexed are clear concise and accessible introductions to thinkers writers and subjects that students and readers can find especially challenging or indeed downright bewildering Concentrating specifically on what it is that makes the subject difficult to grasp these books explain and explore key themes and ideas guiding the reader towards a thorough understanding of demanding material

The Transforming God Tyron Inbody, 1997-01-01 This book offers a bold new approach to the theological interpretation of human suffering Beginning with a description of suffering and evil as religious problems Inbody moves to a critique of the all loving and omnipotent deity in classical theism concluding with a radical interpretation of the Christian God as a vulnerable transforming God

Down to Earth Richard Floyd, 2015-08-18 In the face of climate change and ecological diminishment how can we hope that creation itself good and beautiful marked by tragedy and chaos is taken up rather than left behind Can a Christian vision which has at times been drunk on eschatological dreams or nightmares that consign this world and most of its creatures to destruction foster an earthly hope Jurgen Moltmann and Sallie McFague offer two contemporary possibilities for an ecological eschatology Floyd critiques both of these theological visions and traces an alternative that is both humble grounded in the humus the dirt and hopeful grounded in divine creativity arguing that a down to earth hope is grounded finally in beauty the beauty of the other that draws out the self the beauty of the redeemed self coming out to meet the other and the beauty of God that lures forth ever new possibilities and gathers up all the beautiful and broken creatures into the deepest possible harmony

Human Becoming in an Age of Science, Technology, and Faith Philip Hefner, 2022-08-23 What does it mean to be human in an age of science technology and faith The ability to ask such a question suggests at least a partial answer in that however we describe ourselves we bear a major role in determining what we will become In this book Philip Hefner reminds us that this inescapable condition is the challenge and opportunity of Homo sapiens as the created co creator In four original chapters and an epilogue Hefner frames the created co creator as a memoirist with an ambiguous legacy explores some of the roots of this ambiguity emphasizes the importance of answering this ambiguity with symbols that can interpret it in wholesome ways proposes a partial theological framework for co creating such symbols and applies this framework to the challenge of using technology like artificial intelligence and robotics to create other co creators in our own image Editors Jason P Roberts and Mladen Turk have compiled eight responses to Hefner s work to honor his scholarly career and answer his call to help co create a more wholesome future in an age of science technology and faith

The Faces of Forgiveness F. LeRon Shults, Steven J. Sandage, 2003-05-01 While forgiveness has historically been regarded as a religious concern it has also become a popular topic in contemporary psychology Unfortunately there has been little effort to combine a Christian understanding of forgiveness with psychology The Faces of Forgiveness winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies steps in to fill this void The authors fuse Christian forgiveness and psychology with the unifying motif of the face thereby building on the considerable psychological research linking emotions related to forgiveness with the human face At a deeper level the face can serve as a metaphor for integrating forgiveness wholeness and salvation The authors argue that forgiveness should take a central role in our understanding of salvation because it is warranted by the Bible and engages our postmodern context Pastors psychologists family counselors and students of psychology and theology will find The Faces of Forgiveness a helpful resource

Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church s spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal glocal mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace

Rid of My Disgrace Justin S. Holcomb, Lindsey A. Holcomb, 2011 Helps adult victims of sexual assault move from brokenness to healing This book outlines a theology of redemption and includes an application of how the disgrace of the cross can lead victims toward grace

Canons in Conflict James E. Brenneman, 1997-05-29 In this new study James Brenneman confronts the issue of conflicting canons with full force incorporating insights gained from both literary and biblical disciplines on the question of canon He begins with an illuminating tour through contemporary literary theory from Hans Robert Jauss to Stanley Fish and current discussions in theology about the canon He goes on to a consideration of true and false prophecy with a detailed examination of the three apparently conflicting versions of the Old Testament swords into plowshares prophecy as found in Isaiah 2 2 4 5 Joel 4 9 12 Eng 3 9 12 and Micah 4 1 5 Suggesting that the dynamics controlling the process for negotiating between contradictory readings of prophetic texts are the same as those at work in adjudicating between canons in conflict Brenneman concludes by pointing the way towards an integrative approach appropriate to the question of canon and authority in a post modern pluralistic context Preaching Prophetic Care

Phillis Isabella Sheppard, Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, Ronald J. Allen, 2018-06-25 Preachers often think of prophetic preaching in the caricature of the prophet as the lonely outsider confronting the congregation often angrily with the congregation's complicity in social injustice and with a bracing call for repentance The twenty seven essays and sermons in this book offer a different perspective by viewing prophetic preaching specifically and ministry practical theology and theological education more broadly as pastoral care for the community in prophetic perspective Such preaching does indeed bring a critical theological analysis of justice concerns to the center of the sermon but in such a way as to invite the congregation to consider how the move toward justice is a pastoral move that is a move that seeks to build up community Rather than contributing to the polarization so rampant in today's social world the preacher seeks to help the congregation build bridges along which concern for justice can travel The contributions honor the work of the late Dale Andrews a scholar of preaching and practical theology at the Divinity School Vanderbilt University whose seminal work inspires the notions of prophetic care and building bridges to justice With contributions from Donna Allen L Susan Bond Teresa Fry Brown Gennifer Brooks Teresa Eisenlohr Anna Carter Florence Kenyatta Gilbert R Mark Giuliano David Schnasa Jacobsen John McClure Mary Elizabeth Moore Mary Alice Mulligan Debra Mumford Peter Paris Luke Powery Shelly Rambo Lee Ramsey Robert London Smith Amy Steele Frank A Thomas Lisa Thompson Scott Williamson Sunggu Yang Ted A Smith William B McClain
