Fallen Angels The Sex Workers Of South Asia:

Fallen Angels John Frederick, Thomas L. Kelly, 2000 Sex Trafficking in South Asia Mary Crawford, 2010-01-21 This book is a critical feminist analysis of sex trafficking Arguing that trafficking in girls and women is a product of the social construction of gender and other dimensions of power and status within a particular culture and at a particular historical moment this book offers the necessary locally grounded analysis Focusing on the case of Nepal from where 5 000 to 7 000 thousands of Nepali girls and women are trafficked each year primarily to India Mary Crawford assesses how the social construction of trafficking the concept and its representation in discourse are influenced by the dynamics of gender caste and the development establishment The defining figure is an innocent na ve young girl being lured or duped into leaving the safety of her village The trafficking victim is portrayed as backward however she is backward in specific ways that resonate with Nepal s struggle to resist and yet encompass Western influence This view may lead to paradoxical effects in which efforts to protect girls and women instead restrict their human rights Rather than seeing women as universalized victims Crawford assesses how the social construction of trafficking in a particular society affects girls and women who live in that society In this book the author s voice as a woman a feminist and a social scientist immersed in a foreign way of life illuminates aspects of this process and highlights the subjectivity of urban women It makes the connection between Nepali subjectivities and a problem of international significance the trafficking of girls and women The book provides a model for other locally grounded accounts of sex trafficking to counter the universalizing rhetoric of the mass media and some anti trafficking activists filling a niche in South Asian Studies and Women s Studies Sexography Nicholas de Villiers, 2017-03-21 The turn of the twenty first century has witnessed an eruption of nonfiction films on sex work The first book to examine a cross section of this diverse and transnational body of work Sexography confronts the ethical questions raised by ethnographic documentary and interviews with sexually marginalized subjects Nicholas de Villiers argues that carnal and cultural knowledge are inextricably entangled in ethnographic sex work documentaries De Villiers offers a reading of cinema as a technology of truth and advances a theory of confessional and counterconfessional performance by the interviewed subject who must negotiate both loaded questions and stigma He pays special attention to the tactical negotiation of power in these films and how cultural and geopolitical shifts have affected sex work and sex workers Throughout Sexography analyzes the films of a range of non sex worker filmmakers including Jennie Livingston Pier Paolo Pasolini Shohini Ghosh and Cui Zi en as well as films produced by sex workers In addition it identifies important parallels and intersections between queer and sex worker rights activist movements and their documentary historiography De Villiers ultimately demonstrates how commercial sex is intertwined with culture and power He advocates shifting our approach from scrutinizing the motives of those who sell sex to examining the motives and roles of the filmmakers and transnational audiences creating and consuming films about sex work The Bengal Borderland Willem van Schendel, 2005 The Bengal

Borderland constitutes the epicentre of the partition of British India Yet while the forging of international borders between India Pakistan Bangladesh and Burma the Bengal Borderland has been a core theme in Partition studies these crucial borderlands have remarkably been largely ignored by historians Trafficking and Prostitution Reconsidered Kamala Kempadoo,Jyoti Sanghera,Bandana Pattanaik,2015-12-03 Since the 2005 publication of the highly acclaimed first edition of Trafficking and Prostitution Reconsidered human trafficking has become virtually a household phrase This new edition adds vitally important updates related to recent developments A new introduction considers the term sex trafficking and its growing use amongst feminist researchers In a new chapter Ratna Kapur looks at changes in anti trafficking legislation especially under the Obama administration Jyoti Sanghera reports from her experience as a UN Human Rights commissioner and Bandana Pattanaik examines feminist participatory research on trafficking The book concludes with a list of relevant websites organisations and publications useful for students researchers and activists A Feminist Perspective on Human Trafficking of Women and Girls Nancy M. Sidun,Deborah L. Hume,2019-05-16 Focusing on the trafficking of women and girls from a feminist perspective this book examines how social structures and gender influence human trafficking While women and girls are not the only victims of trafficking they tend to be disproportionately represented Structural inequities including poverty gender based violence racism class and caste based discrimination and other forms of oppression and marginalization place some individuals at substantially greater risk to be trafficked The contributors explore topics including trauma informed assessment of and therapy with survivors of human trafficking issues facing children of trafficked women when they are reintegrated into their communities post trafficking the intersection of trafficking with racial and cultural oppression critical aspects of international sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children The book concludes with a discussion of how human trafficking intersects with both intracountry adoption and brokered marriages This book was originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy Unheard Voices Harsh Mander,2002-01-01 The Bhopal gas tragedy the communal carnage of 1984 and 1989 in Delhi and Bhagalpur the Orissa supercyclone among others are part of collective memory But often forgotten are those who actually were affected by these happenings and others like them street children sex workers dalits HIV and leprosy patients the homeless and the famine stricken These are people who in many ways are pushed to the outermost most hopeless margins of society in the name of development and progress In Unheard Voices civil servant and social activist Harsh Mander draws on his own and his colleagues experiences to explore the lives of twenty such people who have survived and coped despite all odds In Bangalore for instance a onetime street child now counsels other such children seeking education and self employment in Bhopal an eleven year old has brought up two of his siblings after they were orphaned in the gas leak at great emotional cost A young sex worker fights for the rights of her HIV positive sister workers when their home in Hyderabad s red light area is demolished A patient combats the stigma of leprosy by helping to establish a leprosy colony in Ashagram In Tenali Andhra

Pradesh a blind musician couple struggles to get land from the government to set up a colony for the blind Going beyond mere survival these stories are a testimony of how people have overcome their condition with humbling courage resilience and humanism Marked by understatement and rare warmth they bring out their determination to seek a better life in the face of enormous suffering Reaffirming people's creativity and indomitable spirit this book challenges all those who despair about India

Challenges for Inclusion

, 2008-01-01 This book reviews current controversies and dilemmas in the educational and social development of children and adolescents in Britain India Bangladesh and Nepal Britain is contrasted with the Indian Sub Continent because in theory at least Britain has policies which should enable young people to be fully integrated within the educational system whatever the degree of their original disability while in the Indian Sub Continent such educational opportunities are denied to many children because of problems of social structure values and poverty The rights of the disabled to full inclusion are emphasized in two chapters by Sharon Rustemier But a chapter by Dame Mary Warnock whose report to government designed the system for educational inclusion shows that British policies for inclusion of the disabled are not working The chapter by Bagley outlines the poverty of education in Britain which means that in a highly stratified society many children both poor and disabled are excluded from mainstream education by decisions based on school policies and neighbourhood disadvantage India in contrast is a culture in which inclusion of the disabled within educational systems is marred by economic poverty as well as deliberate policies which deny Dalits formerly known as Untouchables access to many kinds of educational opportunity Nevertheless there are pockets of good practice in India including the legal framework for action which chapters by Jha and Jaya identify The history of educational initiatives for social and educational of the very poor of Bangladesh are reviewed in detail since these initiatives illustrate the work of a unique NGO BRAC the Bangladesh Rural Advancement Committee which offers advancement for the poorest of the poor in a nation that is significantly poorer than India Nepal too is also one of the poorest nations on earth and we offer a detailed account of the trafficking of women and girls from Nepal into Indian brothels These girls are permanently excluded from all social and educational networks and their plight poses a major challenge for the movement for the social and educational inclusion of all children

Gender, Identity and Migration in India Nasreen Chowdhury, Paula Banerjee, 2022-02-10 The book focuses on voices of displaced women who constitute a critical part of the migration process through an unravelling of the engendered displacement It draws attention to the various processes methods and approaches by national and international human rights and humanitarian laws and principles and the experiences of the relevant communities organisations towards peaceful co existence The contributions to this volume embellish the argument that there is a direct correlation between an academic researcher s positionality methods and trajectories of critical knowledge production In particular feminist epistemologies with specific emphasis on post coloniality utilized in conjunction with scholarship related to transnational migration studies constitute a distinctly powerful vantage point for challenging methodological nationalism and the syndrome of seeing like the state in the area of forced migration studies

A Feminist Approach to Sensitive Research Tricia Ong, 2022-12-07 This book explores the development and implementation of the Clay Embodiment Research Method CERM with one of the most stigmatized oppressed and marginalized groups of women in Nepal sex trafficked women It argues for the use of a feminist approach to such research given the prevailing patriarchal norms cultural sensitivity of reproductive health stigmatization of sex trafficking and low literacy of the women involved Beginning with an exploration of the author s relationship with Nepal and the women who guide the study and the realization that a more accessible research approach was needed than the techniques otherwise commonly used it discusses the use of clay and photography as ideal entry points to engaging with the women in the research and creating this ethical methodology for self empowerment Not only does the volume highlight extraordinary insights offered by the women involved in this study through the application of CERM but also the recognition that its use requires expertise that can deal with the potential elicitation of trauma The book makes the case for further study on improving the method s use in research education and therapy involving low literate stigmatized oppressed and marginalized populations particularly where cultural sensitivity is an important consideration A Feminist Approach to Sensitive Research is suitable for students scholars and researchers in Gender Studies Sociology Health Studies Anthropology and Asian Studies
