Family and Social Change Angelique Janssens, 2002-04-18 An innovative study examining the effects of nineteenth century industrialisation on family life Religion, Social Change, and Fertility Behaviour R. Jayasree, 1989 This Book Based On A Study Carried Out In The Travancore Region Of Kerala Attempts To Explain The Differential Influences Of Many Demographic Developmental And Cultural Variables That Influence Social Change Among Different Religious Groups And Also Ultimately The Fertility Behaviour The Family and Social Change in Chinese Societies Dudley L. Poston, Jr., Wen Shan Yang, Demetrea Nicole Farris, 2013-11-26 This book focuses on families and their changes in Taiwan and China Traditional notions of what constitutes a family have been changing in China Taiwan and other Asian countries The chapters in this book provide interesting methodological and substantive contributions to the discourse on family and social change in Chinese societies They also underscore the implications of the various social changes in Chinese families Written by Chinese and Western scholars they provide an unprecedented overview of what is known about the effects of social change on Chinese families One might think that defining a family is an easy task because the family is so significant to society and is universal The family is the first place we learn culture norms values and gender roles Families exist in all societies throughout the world but their constitution differs In the past several decades there have been many changes in the family in Taiwan and China For instance whereas in the West we use a bilineal system of descent in which descent is traced through both the mother's side and the father's side of the family in many parts of China descent is patrilineal although this is changing and China and Taiwan are starting to assume a family constitution similar to that in the West This and other issues are discussed in great detail in this book Indeed it is the very nature of the differences that motivated the writing of this book on changing families in Taiwan and China The chapters in Part I The Family in Taiwan and China focus on the basic family issues in Taiwan and China that provide the groundwork for many of the chapters that follow Chapter 1 is about the distribution of resources in the family in Taiwan Chapter 2 focuses on filial piety and the autonomous development of adolescents in the Taiwanese family and Chapter 3 explores the important issue of family poverty in Taiwan Chapter 4 moves away from Taiwan and looks at several issues of family growth and change in Hong Kong noting the interesting similarities and differences between Hong Kong and China Part II Issues of Marriage the Family and Fertility in Taiwan and China focuses specifically on marriage family and fertility In Chapter 5 the authors discuss the relationships between marital status socioeconomic status and the subjective well being among women in Hong Kong and Taiwan Chapter 6 describes patterns of sexual activity in China and the United States Chapter 7 considers gender imbalances in Taiwan and their impact on the marriage market Chapter 8 also focuses on Taiwan and examines the effects of mothers attitudes on daughters interaction with their mothers in law Chapter 9 compares female and male fertility trends and changes in Taiwan Part III Children and the Family in East Asia and in Western Countries consists of comparative studies of the family and children Chapter 10 examines the dynamics of grandparents caring for children in China Chapter 11 explores family values and parent child interaction in Taiwan Chapter 12 examines the significant amount of diversity among families in contemporary Taiwan Chapter 13 describes adolescent development in Taiwan Chapter 14 examines the impact of son preference on fertility in China South Korea and the United States And Chapter 15 explores the determinants of intergenerational support in Taiwan The final chapter in our book the only chapter in Part IV The Family and the Future in Taiwan examines the future of the family in Taiwan with respect especially to the marriage market and aged dependency

Social Change And Family Processes Majid Al-haj, 2019-07-09 In this book Majid Al Haj analyzes the structure of family kinship groups the role of women and fertility among several Arab subcommunities in Israel He combines historical materials anthropological evidence and several major surveys in tracing family and demographic patterns in a developing Arab community This study is the first to compare Moslems Christians and Druze over time in the same community and to integrate issues of modernization and population for minorities Particular attention is given to the analysis of internal refugees among Moslems the separation of structural from cultural determinants of family patterns and the distinction between behavior and norms associated with family lifestyles This volume represents a fascinating case study of an Arab town in the transition to modernity under the conditions of changing layers of minority status in Israeli society Moreover the author addresses broader issues of modernization and demographic change characterizing the Middle East and other developing areas of the world where minority ethnic conflict and population processes are intertwined The Human Meaning of Social Change Angus and Converse, Philip E. Campbell, Angus Campbell, Philip E. Converse, 1972-03-30 This book is a companion piece to Sheldon and Moore's Indicators of Social Change Whereas Indicators of Social Change was concerned with various kinds of hard data typically sociostructural this book is devoted chiefly to so called softer data of a more social psychological sort the attitudes expectations aspirations and values of the American population The book deals with the meaning of change from two points of view First it is interested in the human meaning which people attribute to the complex social environment in which they find themselves their understanding of group relations the political process and the consumer economy in which they participate Secondly it discusses the impact that the various alternatives offered by the environment have on the nature of their lives and the fulfillment of those lives The twelve essays which make up the volume deal successively with the major domains of life Each author sets forth an inclusive statement of the most significant dimensions of psychological change in a specific area of life to review the state of present information and to project the measurements needed to improve understanding of these changes in the future
