Okholm,2012-02-09 There is a lot of talk these days about how churches need to become more missional and Kingdom focused but what about the families that make up our churches and often reflect the surrounding culture more than the Kingdom of God Christian families know that God has a better purpose for marriage and family but often don t have the slightest idea how to get there And while many books on Christian marriage and family are inwardly focused on simply getting along better this book addresses the cultural influences that have taken our focus away from God s intended purpose for marriage and family and through analysis and practical suggestions recalls marriages and families to the purpose for which God intended them in the first place namely to serve God s Kingdom as witnesses to a world desperately seeking deeper purpose and authenticity Weaving a Web of Belonging: Developing a Trauma-Informed Culture for All Children

Lisa Cherry,2025-05-02 The need to belong is a fundamental and human motivation yet many children and young people s experiences of belonging are ruptured across many domains This essential book explores the different spaces in which children and young people belong and shows how we can cultivate a sense of belonging within our services schools and communities and within children themselves Chapters break down key research and introduce practices which will inspire change develop a trauma informed culture and show how a relational web of belonging can be built for life Drawing from the lived experiences of those who have spent time in care the book highlights everything you need to deepen your understanding of the impact of trauma inequity and marginalisation in children s services and education Advocating for the power of language leadership and collective care a working conceptual model for cultivating belonging is shared which considers the FACES SPACES and PLACES that can make a lasting difference Reflections and practical takeaways are woven throughout to offer an accessible informative and thoughtful read with the child at the centre Bringing together professional practice the science behind it and powerful lived experiences Weaving a Web of Belonging offers a true insight into cultivating belonging as an antidote to trauma It is an essential read for all those who are supporting children and young people especially those who are the most vulnerable including education practitioners leaders social workers Children and Adolescent Mental Health Services CAMHS and families

Work, Family and Religion in Contemporary Society Nancy Tatom Ammerman, Wade Clark Roof, 2014-02-04 Until recently religious institutions have been organized to suit the traditional American family where the wife stayed at home caring for children Today churches and synagogues are beginning to adapt to the reality of the American family dual career marriages high levels of divorce interfaith marriages partnerships that may not be marriages Religious organizations must serve families that don't fall into the Ozzie and Harriet mold The first group of papers in this edited volume documents changing trends in the connection between religion work and the family In the second part of the book we see how changing families and flexible congregations are experimenting with new forms of religious life
