Family Friends And Neighbours An Irish Photobiography:

Family, Friends and Neighbours, 2001 180 photographs full colour and black and white which capture the author's unique experience of the conflict in the North of Ireland over the last twenty years Here are stories of families and friends as portrayed in a collection of images and stories that is neither a chronology nor an attempt at a precise history but rather a personal insight into the people who make up the wider Catholic Nationalist and Republican community in the North of Ireland

The Carceral Network in Ireland Fiona McCann, 2020-06-26 This book examines the forms and practices of Irish confinement from the 19th century to present day to explore the social and political failings of 20th and 21st century postcolonial Ireland Building on an interdisciplinary conference held in the Crumlin Road Gaol Belfast the methodological approaches adopted across this book range from the historical and archival to the sociological political and literary This edited collection touches on topics such as industrial schools Magdalen laundries struggles and resistance in prisons both North and South Direct Provision and the ways in which prison experiences have been represented in literature cinema and the arts It sketches out an uncomfortable picture of the techniques for policing bodies deployed in Ireland for over a century This innovative study seeks to establish a link between Ireland's inhumane treatment of women and children of prisoners and of asylum seekers today and to expose and pinpoint modes of resistance to these situations

Remembering the Troubles Jim Smyth, 2017-03-30 The historian A T Q Stewart once remarked that in Ireland all history is applied history that is the study of the past prosecutes political conflict by other means Indeed nearly twenty years after the 1998 Belfast Agreement dealing with the past remains near the top of the political agenda in Northern Ireland The essays in this volume by leading experts in the fields of Irish and British history politics and international studies explore the ways in which competing social or collective memories of the Northern Ireland Troubles continue to shape the post conflict political landscape The contributors to this volume embrace a diversity of perspectives the Provisional Republican version of events as well as that of its Official Republican rival Loyalist understandings of the recent past as well as the British Army's authorized for the record account the importance of commemoration and memorialization to Irish Republican culture and the individual memory of one of the noncombatants swept up in the conflict Tightly specific sharply focused and rich in local detail these essays make a significant contribution to the burgeoning literature of history and memory The book will interest students and scholars of Irish studies contemporary British history memory studies conflict resolution and political science Contributors Jim Smyth Ian McBride Ruan O'Donnell Aaron Edwards James W McAuley Margaret O Callaghan John Mulqueen and Cathal Goan

Death in the Fields Jonathan Trigg, 2023-04-20 In Belfast the Provos were trying to make the 6 o'clock news in East Tyrone they were trying to kill you With the advent of the Troubles in Northern Ireland the Provisional IRA PIRA became active in the towns and villages of East Tyrone the volunteers forming the so called East Tyrone Brigade and carrying out attacks on members of the security forces Drawing volunteers from the region's tight knit Catholic communities many with republican sympathies dating back generations the Brigade became renowned for the deadly nature of its attacks and its operational and technological innovations By the mid 1980s with a hard core of experienced volunteers and a mass of weaponry from Colonel Gaddafi's Libyan government the East Tyrone Brigade were successfully prosecuting a no go zone strategy designed to change the face of the war in Northern Ireland Then one spring night in May 1987 the Brigade launched an attack on the Royal RUC's isolated base in the Armagh village of Loughgall The British were waiting All eight members of the East Tyrone Brigade team were killed From then onwards the Brigade was fighting for its life and by the time of the IRA Ceasefire in 1997 PIRA's feared East Tyrone Brigade was a shadow of its former self This is the story of the war in the fields towns and villages of East Tyrone as told by the people who fought it Death in Derry Jonathan Trigg, 2025-05-01 I was in the Army over thirty years and Derry was the most resentful place I ever served even the dogs hated us When civil rights protests in the 1960s gave way to armed struggle the Provisional IRA in Derry both city and county led the fight against the British security forces In the city Martin McGuinness a young butcher's assistant from the Bogside quickly rose through the ranks launching a bombing campaign that reduced the city centre to rubble In tandem the IRA's active service units fought the British Army in the streets and alleys of the Bogside Creggan Shantallow and the Waterside Out in the townlands a new generation from the county's traditional republican families waged an equally ruthless war against their neighbours in the RUC and UDR The Derry Brigade's success would help propel McGuinness to the very top of the IRA's Army Council By the early 1980s the Derry Brigade appeared untouchable However in reality Special Branch and British Intelligence had infiltrated it from top to bottom and almost destroyed the brigade By the mid 1990s its war was all but over its ranks decimated by death and incarceration This is the story of that war told by those from all sides who survived it Alex Maskey Barry McCaffrey, 2003 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Up Around The Corner Martin Nugent, 2019-08-14 Reminiscences of growing up on a council estate in Tipperary Town in the 60s and 70s Remembering family friends and neighbours all connected to the place that shaped me as a person Recalling too the safe homely atmosphere of the streets in which I played and where I learnt about life The Irish Army always in my thoughts for the laughter it provided the drink and the devilment but most of all for the wonderful friends I met along the way A collection of anecdotes I hope you enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed writing it My Irish Friends Sophie Raffalovich O'Brien, 2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate
