privileged knowledge Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self Diverse Voices in Photographic Albums Mary Trent, Kris Belden-Adams, 2022-07-29 Through a variety of case studies by global scholars from diverse academic fields this book explores photographic album practices of historically marginalized figures from a range of time periods geographic locations and socio cultural contexts Their albums stories span various racial ethnic gender and sexual identities nationalities religions and disabilities The vernacular albums featured in this volume present narratives that move beyond those reflected in our existing histories Essays examine the visual material and aural strategies that album makers have used to assert control over the presentation of their histories and identities and to direct what those narratives have to say a point of special relevance as these albums move out of private domestic space and into public archives institutions and digital formats This book does not consider photographic albums and scrapbooks as separate genres but as a continuum of modern creative practices of photographic and mass print collage aimed at self expression and narrative building that co evolved and were readily accessible The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography visual culture material culture media studies and cultural studies Misplaced Objects Silvia Spitta, 2009-07-01 When things move things change Starting from this deceptively simple premise Silvia Spitta opens a fascinating window onto the profound displacements and transformations that have occurred over the six centuries since material objects and human subjects began circulating between Europe and the Americas This extended reflection on the dynamics of misplacement starts with the European practice of collecting objects from the Americas into Wunderkammern literally cabinets of wonders Stripped of all identifying contexts these exuberant collections including the famous Real Gabinete de Historia Natural de Madrid upset European certainties forcing a reorganization of knowledge that gave rise to scientific inquiry and to the epistemological shift we call modernity In contrast cults such as that of the Virgin of Guadalupe arose out of the reverse migration from Europe to the Americas The ultimate marker of mestizo identity in Mexico the Virgin of Guadalupe is now fast crossing the U S Mexico border and miracles are increasingly being reported Misplaced Objects then concludes with the more intimate and familial collections and recollections of Cuban and Mexican American artists and writers that are contributing to the Latinization of the United States Beautifully illustrated and radically interdisciplinary Misplaced Objects clearly demonstrates that it is not the awed viewer but rather the misplaced object itself that unsettles our certainties allowing new meanings to emerge

Framing Portraits, Binding Albums Shilpi Goswami, Suryanandini Narain, (eds.), 2025-01-06 Long neglected in academic discourse in India family photographs make a silent contribution to the histories of photography marginality and the family In this volume the writers dwell on the importance of family photographs and their visual omnipresence in our daily lives They point out how family photographs have belonged to the vernacular material of visual culture more seen and lived with less written and consciously thought about Attempting to retrieve family photographs from a space of neglect this volume demonstrates how they are fundamental to the microhistories of a nation and its many societies and suggests the importance of such counterarguments to the dominant strains in an emerging discursive space The essays do not offer a comprehensive survey of all types of family photographs in India Instead they present focused insights into chosen areas of interest on the part of the writers Collectively they embrace the intersectionalities of gender caste class and regional trajectories making the politics of representation even more layered with contestations between the historical oral and affective memorialisation surrounding family archives and photographs These concerns centrally inform the essays as they accept and negotiate a terrain shared by all types of narrativisation
