Family Relationships In Later Life:

Family Relationships in Later Life Timothy H. Brubaker, 1990 Directed towards researchers and practitioners in family studies and gerontology this completely revised Second Edition of Family Relationships in Later Life provides an innovative new collection of research based descriptions on family relations of older people Each chapter summarizes existing literature on the topic and provides up to date original research Topics addressed include sibling relationships in later life widowhood ethnic differences elder abuse and mistreatment family care and health problems Family Relationships in Later Life Dr. Timothy H. Brubaker, 1990-01-01 Directed towards researchers and practitioners in family studies and gerontology this completely revised Second Edition of Family Relationships in Later Life provides an innovative new collection of research based descriptions on family relations of older people Each chapter summarizes existing literature on the topic and provides up to date original research Topics addressed include sibling relationships in later life widowhood ethnic differences elder abuse and mistreatment family care and health problems Later Life Families Timothy H. Brubaker, 1985 Brubaker focuses on family relationships during the later stages of the family life cycle and reviews research studies on family patterns in later life The author concludes that the later life family is alive and well but that it necessarily reflects the changes and problems associated with ageing He identifies the aspects of family relationships that require support and assistance and suggests future solutions for providing such support Family practices in later life Pat Chambers, Graham Allan, Chris Phillipson, Mo Ray, 2009-09-02 There is no shortage of political and moral commentary on family life Frequently the underlying theme of these commentaries is the decline of contemporary family commitment particularly when older people's family experiences are the focus Family Practices in Later Life challenges many common stereotypes about the nature of family involvement as people age The book explores diversity and change in the family relationships older people maintain looking at how family relationships are constructed and organised in later life It recognises that the emerging patterns are a consequence of the choices and decisions negotiated within family networks emphasising older people's agency in the construction of their family practices In exploring such themes as long term marriage sibling ties in later life and grandparenthood the book highlights the continued significance of family connection and solidarity in later life while recognizing that family relationships are inevitably modified over time as people's social and material circumstances alter Family Practices in Later Life will be of interest to students researchers and academics in the fields of social policy family studies and social gerontology It provides a valuable contribution to the developing field of critical social gerontology as well as to an understanding of family process Cohabitation and the Evolving Nature of Intimate and Family Relationships Sampson Lee Blair, Yongjun Zhang, 2023-12-08 Given the tremendous diversity in cohabiting couples as well as the increasing prominence of this form of intimate relationships this volume provides a more thorough comprehension of the structures effects and intimate practice of cohabitation around the world Encyclopedia of Aging and Public Health Sana
