Family Voices A Play For Radio:

Making the Stage Ann C. Hall, 2020-11-30 MAKING THE STAGE is a collection of essays that examines the role of theatre drama and performance in contemporary culture a culture that is growing increasingly technological and isolated seemingly at odds with the very nature of theatre a collaborative and sometimes very primitive art form Through the course of these essays it is clear that theatre not only survives some of the challenges of the day but even defines discussions particularly political ones which are prohibited by an increasingly manipulated media The essays from a diverse group of theatre scholars examine the mechanics of theatre from space to sound to the use of technology the role of women in creating theatre the relationship between theatre and literary art forms the politics of theatre science and theatre and the role of performance art Through them all it is clear that theatre drama and performance continue to speak in significant ways Family voices Harold Pinter, 1981 A series of parallel monologues between a mother and son in the form of letters probably written but never mailed in which the facade of a happy family gradually disintegrates into a cauldron of recrimination Family voices Harold Pinter, 1981 Pinter at 70 Lois Gordon, 2014-02-25 This comprehensive and authoritative casebook includes cornerstone essays on Pinter's creative process his politics film adaptations and acting career It also includes a collection of photos found nowhere else that document Pinter's golden time his early acting days in Ireland a substantial introduction a chronology and bibliography The Routledge Creative Writing Coursebook Paul Mills, 2006 This step by step practical guide to the process of creative writing provides genre based chapters including life writing novels and short stories poetry and screenwriting Pinter's World William Baker, 2018-09-15 Pinter's World Pinter and Company is not a full scale biography but a series of illuminating chapters about Pinter's life character and thought employing new information found in his Appointment Diaries recent biographical sources such as Simon Gray's memoirs and Henry Woolf's reminiscences in addition to personal discussions with several in Pinter's world This book provides a fresh illumination of Pinter's life and art his friendships obsessions and concerns Material is arranged around themes key concerns Pinter's activities Pinter's meetings and endeavors for instance with whom he met and when when he wrote what and when and his perspective at the time are documented This work explores Pinter's writing drama poetry prose journalism and letters which are here regarded as part of his aesthetic achievement Pinter's World Pinter and Company presents a pointillist portrait of him through examining central concerns in his life These encompass an obsession with the theater and games delight in restaurants demonstrating that Pinter is far removed from the socially awkward isolated figures populating his early work and the women in Pinter's world Other areas examined include Pinter's political engagement from his adolescence to his last years and the literary and other creative influences upon him This work draws upon consultation of his papers at the British Library including letters to others especially close friends with whom he kept close contact for over half a century These letters should be regarded on par with his other creative accomplishments Pinter was a fascinating letter writer whose letters reveal thoughts at the time of writing often in abrupt most colorful idiomatic language His Appointment Diaries cannot reveal what actually occurred during his meetings but they do provide a guide to what he did on a daily basis and whom he met Memories from his friends his professional colleagues cricket players and his second wife Antonia Fraser illuminate Pinter's personality and actions Pinter's first literary love was poetry and unlike most other Pinter studies this one gives attention to his neglected poetic output that often reveals the real Pinter and the enigma that is at the heart of every great artist

Radio Soundings Liz Gunner, 2019-01-31 Zulu Radio in South Africa is one of the most far reaching and influential media in the region currently attracting around 6.67 million listeners daily While the public and political role of radio is well established what is less understood is how it has shaped culture by allowing listeners to negotiate modern identities and fast changing lifestyles Liz Gunner explores how understandings of the self family and social roles were shaped through this medium of voice and mediated sound Radio was the unseen literature of the auditory the drama of the airwaves and thus became a conduit for many talents squeezed aside by apartheid repression

Besides Winnie Mahangu and K E Masinga among other talents the exiles Lewis Nkosi and Bloke Modisane made a network of identities and conversations which stretched from the heart of Harlem to the American South drawing together the threads of activism and creativity from both Black America and the African continent at a critical moment of late empire
