Economic Crisis And Long Term Growth In Turkey:

Economic Crises and Long-term Growth in Turkey Ziya Öniş,James Riedel,1993      The Turkish Economy in Crisis Ziya Onis,Barry Rubin,2004-08-02 This book provides a set of critical perspectives on the economic crises of 2000 and 2001 focusing on both the origins and consequences of the crises Attention is drawn to the role of domestic actors as well as key external actors such as the International Monetary Fund in precipitating the twin crises      Development and Foreign Policy in Turkey Mustafa Kutlay,H. Emrah Karaoğuz,2023-11-27 This book sketches an institutional political economy framework to discuss the interaction between development and foreign policy in the global South with reference to Turkey The authors argue that although the developmental state framework has commonly been employed to explore domestic economic development processes without analytically focusing on the foreign policy dimension developmental state institutions are highly relevant in the creation and pursuit of a development oriented foreign policy at a time of growing uncertainty marred by geopolitical and geoeconomic tensions The book develops a two level Regime Coherence Framework to account for the domestic and international dimensions of development oriented foreign policy The main argument posits that the development regime in Turkey and associated foreign policies lack coherence due to weak institutional complementarities between economic governance state business relations and financial statecraft atthe domestic external nexus      The Global Economic Crisis and the Developing World Ashwini Deshpande,Keith Nurse,2012 The world economy is currently in the throes of a global economic crisis reminiscent of the great depressions of the 1930s and the 1870s As back then the crisis has exposed the major structural imbalances in financial and credit markets in addition to global trade forcing many governments developed and developing to impose debilitating austerity measures that are exacerbating the structural weaknesses that caused the crisis in the first place This volume offers historical insights into the origins of the contemporary crisis as well as detailed analyses of the financial and trade dimensions an assessment of the technological and innovation context along with perspectives on the implications for unemployment and gender imbalances

Turkey, a Century of Change in State and Society Bayram Balci,Nicolas Monceau,2023-06-01 The Republic of Turkey celebrates the centenary of its proclamation in 2023 Founded on the ruins of the Ottoman Empire one of the world s greatest empires both in terms of its geographical extent and its longevity Republican Turkey has gone through a century of profound and constant changes and transformations from politics to society economy to religion or culture to history These changes have been produced by inner and foreign policies carried out and implemented by the country s leaders from Atat rk the founder of modern Turkey to Recep Tayyip Erdo an the current Turkish President in 2023 but also under the influence of the regional and international context This collective work aims to take stock of the great achievements of the Turkish republican project It attempts to draw a general presentation of the evolution of contemporary Turkey in six main areas which constitute six major issues for the country the general political evolution of Turkey focusing on the issue of citizenship the transformations in the Turkish economy through a political economy analysis the evolution of the relationship between religion state and society Turkey s nation building and the Kurdish question which still seeks a solution the changes in Turkish foreign policy focusing on the relationship between Turkey and the West the relationship between Turkey and Europe caught between the model of civilization for the republican regime and the prospects of accession to the European Union Several focus points also concentrate on specific subjects such as the Alevi issue the Cyprus issue or the Turkish soft power with an accent on Africa

A History of Middle East Economies in the Twentieth Century Roger Owen, Şevket Pamuk, 1998 This text offers an examination of the economic history of the principal Arab countries Turkey and Israel since 1918 Using the state as its major economic analysis it charts the growth of national income and issues of welfare and distribution over two periods 1918 1945 and 1945 1990 Important trends are explored including the patterns of colonial economic management import substitution the impact of the 1970s oil boom and the current process of liberalization and structural adjustment

Global Economy, Economic Crisis & Recessions Stavros Mavroudeas, Aylin Soydan, Tulin Altun, 2018 This book is one of the products of the Ninth International Conference on Political Economy ICOPEC held in September 2018 at Panteion University with the main theme 10 years after the Great Recession Orthodox versus Heterodox Economics The conference was coorganised by the Greek Association for Political Economy GAPE the Department of Social Policy of Panteion University and the Faculty of Economics of Marma ra University This volume contains eight selected papers that benefited from comments and discussion during the conference and subsequently improved significantly They focus on economic crises and their impact on the global economy and on particular economic sectors and countries

From Bad Policy to Chaos in Somalia Jamil Mubarak, 1996-06-18 This examination of the economic policies of Somalia since 1970 is empirical in nature employing political and economic analysis economic theory and econometric techniques and argues that the governmental economic policy policy responses to crises and exogenous shocks have been bad for the long term economic growth of the country Despite significant foreign financed public investment economic growth has been weak and real per capita income has declined The intensifying economic crises contributed to the rapid deterioration of the political situation that led to the collapse of the Somali state in 1991 Since 1991 chaos and more destruction has followed as warlords scrambled for power resulting in the resource base of the economy being eroded further and the country being reduced to warring clans

The Political Economy of Turkey Zülküf Aydın, 2004-12-20 Since the 1970s Turkey has faced some of the most serious crises since the Republic was established in 1923 This book analyses the political and socio economic problems faced by Turkey in recent decades and the country's gradual integration into the global economy Social unrest political and ethnic violence paralysis of the state bureaucracy and other institutions increasing foreign debt decreasing economic growth vast inflation and increasing unemployment have all been part of everyday life in Turkey's recent history Zulkuf Aydın argues that this state of affairs is symptomatic of a deeper more enduring crisis arising from the way in which Turkey has been integrated into the global economy Looking at democracy repression the military the Kurdish question and regional inequalities civil society human rights and Islamic fundamentalism in Turkey he shows how Turkey has become reliant on foreign investment and international financial institutions offering a broader critique of globalisation in this light

Regionalization and Globalization in the Modern World Economy Alex E. Fernandez Jilberto, Andre Mommen, 2002-01-22 This collection explores the importance of regionalization and globalization to the world economy particularly questioning whether the world economy is characterized by increasing regionalization rather than globalization International contributors explore the processes in the Pacific area the Americas Africa and Europe and make an important contribution to current debates in development economics

Political Economy of Policy Reform in Turkey in the 1980s Ziya Önis, Steven Benjamin Webb, 1992 Among the lessons from Turkey's experience with economic policy reform The political management of reform requires building and institutionalizing coalitions of beneficiaries from reform
