The Economies of Africa and Asia in the Inter-war Depression (Routledge Revivals) Ian Brown, 2014-11-13 The great inter war depression has long been seen as an unprecedented economic disaster for the peoples of the non European world This book with its detailed assessment of the impact of the depression on the economies of Africa and Asia challenges the orthodox view and is essential reading for those with a teaching or research interest in the modern economic history of those continents Established specialists in the modern economic history of parts of Africa or Asia put forward a number of revisionist arguments They show that some economies were left essentially unscathed by the depression and that for many export dependent peasant communities which did face a severe drop in cash income as world commodity prices collapsed from the late 1920s there was a range of important responses and reactions by which they could defend their economic welfare For many peasant communities the depression was not a disaster but an opportunity Africa, Asia, and South America Since 1800 A. J. H. Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5 000 books in English most published since 1945 and many quite recently but also some earlier works of enduring importance A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole then each country usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics politics and society Indexed only by author and editor but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access Distributed in the US by St Martin s Press Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or empire tools that gave Europe its military superiority even before the industrial revolution What was it that enabled Europeans to withstand life threatening tropical diseases and to control indigenous populations This book gives a fresh and wide ranging view of the construction and collapse of the modern colonial empires of Europe the United States of America and Japan Paths to the Emerging State in Asia and Africa Keijiro Otsuka, Kaoru Sugihara, 2019-01-16 This book is open access under a CC BY NC ND license This book addresses the issue of how a country which was incorporated into the world economy as a periphery could make a transition to the emerging state capable of undertaking the task of economic development and industrialization It offers historical and contemporary case studies of transition as well as the international background under which such a transition was successfully made or delayed by combining the approaches of economic history and development economics Its aim is to identify relevant historical contexts that is the initial conditions and internal and external forces which governed the transition It also aims to understand what current low income developing countries require for their transition Three economic driving forces for the transition are identified They are 1 labor intensive industrialization which offers ample employment opportunities for labor force 2 international trade which facilitates efficient international division of labor and 3 agricultural development which improves food security by increasing supply of staple foods The book presents a bold account of each driver for the transition Religious Conversion Movements in South Asia Geoffrey A. Oddie, 1997 These papers address the issues of religious conversion and religious conversion movements a topic which has rapidly become the central issue of many scholarly debates Many religions are discussed along with other relevant issues Structure of Slavery in Indian Ocean Africa and Asia Gwyn Campbell, 2004-11-23 The abolition of slavery in and around the Western Indian Ocean have been little studied This collection examines the meaning of slavery and its abolition in relation to specific indigenous societies and to Islam a religion that embraced the entire region and draws comparisons between similar developments in the Atlantic system Case studies include South Africa Mauritius Madagascar the Benadir Coast Arabia the Persian Gulf and India This volume marks an important new development in the study of slavery and its abolition in general and an original approach to the history of slavery in the Indian Ocean and Asia regions Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1979 Byzantine Jewry in the Mediterranean Economy Joshua Holo, 2009-11-12 Using primary sources Joshua Holo uncovers the day to day workings of the Byzantine Jewish economy in the middle Byzantine period Built on a web of exchange systems both exclusive to the Jewish community and integrated in society at large this economy forces a revision of Jewish history in the region Paradoxically the two distinct economic orientations inward and outward simultaneously advanced both the integration of the Jews into the larger Byzantine economy and their segregation as a self contained body economic Dr Holo finds that the Jews routinely leveraged their internal even exclusive systems of law and culture to break into occasionally to dominate Byzantine markets In doing so they challenge our concept of Diaspora life as a balance between the two competing impulses of integration and segregation The success of this enterprise furthermore qualifies the prevailing claim of Jewish economic decline during the Commercial Revolution      Development and Diffusionism J. Dibua,2015-12-04

This book deconstructs the neopatrimonial paradigm that has dominated analysis of Nigerian and African development It shows that by denying agency to Nigerian societies and devaluing indigenous culture and local realities Eurocentric diffusionism played a significant role in the failure of development planning      A General History of Europe James Harvey Robinson,James Henry Breasted,Emma Peters Smith,1921
