Rudolf Steiner gave this complex sequence of dense subtle multileveled lectures and seminars to students of economics in Dornach Switzerland during the summer of 1922 The course reflects a lifetime of thinking on the subject and marks the conclusion of his intense five year period of activism in the service of social political and economic issues During this time which began as World War I was ending in 1917 he worked tirelessly to promote the cause of what he called threefolding Dreigliederung by which he meant rethinking the social order on the basis of clear separation and independence of the three fundamental spheres of activity that make up a society He proposed three independent systems 1 an autonomous rights sphere limited to judicial and political matters 2 an autonomous economic sphere cooperative or associative by nature and 3 an autonomous spiritual cultural sphere The autonomy of these three spheres he believed would make possible a free healthy productive society and open the possibility of a lasting peace

Rethinking Economics is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the true nature of an economy and how it works Steiner presents the basic elements of what it would take to create a just socially responsible and ecologically aware economy today
