Slattery, 2020-10-01 This handbook surveys the many relationships between scientific studies of the world around us and Christian concepts of the Divine from the ancient Greeks to modern ecotheology From Augustine to Hildegard of Bingen Genesis to Frederick Douglass and physics to sociology this volume opens the intersections of Christian theology and science to new concepts voices and futures The central goal of the handbook is to bring new perspectives to the foreground of Christian theological engagement with science and to highlight the many engagements today that are not often identified as science theology discussions The handbook thus includes several aspects not found in previous handbooks on the same topic significant representation from the three major branches of Christianity Orthodox Roman Catholic and Protestant multiple essays on areas of modern science not traditionally part of the theology and science dialogue such as discussions of race medicine and sociology a collection of essays on historical theologians approaches to nature and science T Catholic Protestant and Orthodox surveys of theology science scholarship in the 20th and 21st centuries and ten explorations in Christian theology today from Einsteinian physics to decolonial sociology The 24 chapters than span the volume offer the reader whether scholar student or layperson an essential resource for any future conversations around science and Christian theology      Mapping Systematic Theology in Africa Ernst M Conradie, Charl E Fredericks, 2004-08-01 The emergence of an indigenous African theology especially since the 1960s is well documented A wealth of literature has been published in the context of African theology especially over the last two or three decades This indexed bibliography contains a number of publications in and for the African context specifically relevant to the fields of systematic theology and ethics

Eco-theology Celia Deane-Drummond, 2008 Concern for the environment has developed and intensified over the last few decades to the point where it now dominates much of our contemporary political landscape and culture In Eco Theology Celia Deane Drummond offers a comprehensive resource book for this burgeoning field of enquiry that highlights and seeks to evaluate the merits or otherwise of contemporary eco theologies She introduces the reader to critical debates in eco theology tracing trends from around the globe and key theological responses and encourages reflection and analysis through further reading sections at the end of each chapter and questions for discussion Publisher      Theology in the Public Sphere Sebastian Kim, 2013-01-03 A substantial and definitive introduction to public theology by one of the leading experts in the field A key text for third year undergraduate modules and MA courses in Social Ethics Political Theology and Public Theology

An Ecological Christian Anthropology Ernst M. Conradie, 2017-03-02 What is the place and vocation of human beings in the earth community This is the central question that this contribution towards a Christian ecological anthropology addresses In ecological theology this question is often answered by the affirmation that We are at home on earth This affirmation rightly responds to the widespread sense of alienation from nature to the anthropocentrism that pervades much of the Christian tradition and to concerns about the scope of environmental devastation This book challenges the affirmation that we are at home on earth examining natural suffering anxieties concerning human finitude and especially the pervasiveness of evil The book investigates contributions to ecological theology South African and African theology reformed theology and contemporary dialogues between theology and the sciences in search of a thoroughly ecological Christian anthropology

World Christianity Graham Joseph Hill, 2024-10-08 World Christianity An Introduction provides an accessible introduction to the discipline methodology and field of world Christianity In this book Graham Joseph Hill engages with more than one hundred high profile Majority World and First Nations Christian leaders to learn what they can teach the West about mission leadership hospitality creation care education worship and more Hill challenges the Western church to move away from a Eurocentric and Americentric view of church and mission and he calls for the church to engage with crucial paradigm shifts in world Christianity The future of the global church including the churches in the West exists in these global exchanges World Christianity is an indispensable guide for the church as it navigates the unique global experiences of the twenty first century

African Theocology Ebenezer Yaw Blasus, 2020-02-27 There is probably no set of issues of greater importance in the contemporary world than those that are to do with the Earth on which we live and depend The more alienated we become from it the more we contribute to our own destruction Christianity s complicity in this destruction is well documented and hotly debated Africa can ill afford to fall into the same trap that Western Christianity has in this regard One senses the urgency of these concerns in Blasus s African Theocology Studies in African Religious Creation Care Extremely well informed in the field Blasus not only draws on the three major religions in Africa Christianity Islam and African traditional religion but demonstrates familiarity with the most important recent contributions in the field from Western scholarship With its emphasis on pedagogics African Theocology will play a seminal role in the construction of curricula for an African Christian theology of the environment and is sure to be an essential contribution to all libraries in institutions of higher learning

Earth Habitat Dieter T. Hessel, Larry L. Rasmussen, This signal volume gathers theologians from around the world to address three pressing questions How can Christianity and Christian churches rethink themselves and their roles in light of the endangered earth What earth honoring elements does justice oriented Christianity have to contribute to the common good And how can local communities and churches respond creatively and constructively on a level to these vast global forces This volume captures the chief themes and presentations from the October 1998 conference on social justice ecology and church entitled Ecumenical Earth and held at Union Theological Seminary Among the 18 contributors to this trailblazing conference are Rasmussen and Hessel James Cone Kusumita Pedersen Brigitte Kahl Ibrahim M Abu Rabi Steven Rockefeller Havid Hallman Ernst Conradie Peggy Shepard and Troy Messenger

Christianity and Earthkeeping Ernst Marais Conradie, 2011-04-01 Why should Christians engage in earthkeeping as Christians and from within Christian communities What is the underlying theological rationale for that In this book some 19 reasons why Christians may be encouraged to engage in earthkeeping are identified juxtaposed and assessed in order to call for clarity to invite discussion and to elicit creative tensions No single position is advocated it would be helpful if Christians could engage in earthkeeping on the basis of any of these motivations

Mi'kmaq Landscapes Anne-Christine Hornborg, 2016-07-22 This book seeks to explore historical changes in the lifeworld of the Mi kmaq Indians of Eastern Canada The Mi kmaq culture hero Kluskap serves as a key persona in discussing issues such as traditions changing conceptions of land and human environmental relations In order not to depict Mi kmaq culture as timeless two important periods in its history are examined Within the first period between 1850 and 1930 Hornborg explores historical evidence of the ontology epistemology and ethics jointly labelled animism that stem from a premodern Mi kmaq hunting subsistence New ways of discussing animism and shamanism are here richly exemplified The second study situates the culture hero in the modern world of the 1990s when allusions to Mi kmaq tradition and to Kluskap played an important role in the struggle against a planned superquarry on Cape Breton This study discusses the eco cosmology that has been formulated by modern reserve inhabitants which could be labelled a sacred ecology Focusing on how the Mi kmaq are rebuilding their traditions and environmental relations in interaction with modern society Hornborg illustrates how environmental groups pan Indianism and education play an important role but so does reserve life By anchoring their engagement in reserve life the Mi kmaq traditionalists have to a large extent been able to confront both external and internal doubts about their authenticity

The Place of Story and the Story of Place Ernst M. Conradie, Willie James Jennings, 2025-02-06 This book is the third in a series titled An Earthed Faith Telling the Story Amid the Anthropocene The series aims to offer collaborative constructive contributions to understanding the content and significance of the Christian faith from the perspective of Christian ecotheology given the challenges associated with the Anthropocene The focus of this volume is on creation theology The book addresses the following question What difference does it make to the story of cosmic planetary human and cultural evolution to re describe this as the creative work of God s love Inversely what difference does it make to the story of God s love to describe it in evolutionary terms The ten contributors were selected in order to optimize a diversity of positions in terms of geographical context confessional traditions and theological schools while also taking considerations of gender race age and language into account

Minding Creation Joanna Leidenhag, 2020-12-10 Are humans the only creatures that can appreciate God s creation What if consciousness is spread more widely across all things This volume examines panpsychism through the lens of Christian doctrine Minding Creation is the first substantial examination of what a panpsychist theory of consciousness implies for key theological debates concerning God s presence and action evolution and the origin of the soul human uniqueness and the environmental crisis Joanna Leidenhag develops a theological panpsychism that is based on an exceptionally wide range of scholarship Minding Creation draws on the theologies of historical figures such as Augustine of Hippo Gottfried von Leibniz and others in order to create a critical and constructive conversation with contemporary analytic philosophers of mind such as Thomas Nagel Galen Strawson and David J Chalmers Leidenhag also discusses key concepts and issues such as emergence theory divine action and ecology She concludes that God created a universe from nothing which is filled with indwelling powers sacramental value and intrinsic experience This is a creation in which the Holy Spirit is internally present at every point a creation that worships God and a creation that human beings must protect and lead in praise Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie,2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Religion and Ecology in the

Public Sphere Celia Deane-Drummond,Heinrich Bedford-Strohm,2011-04-28 A collection of essays from top scholars in the field of Religion and Ecology that stimulates the debate about the religious contribution to ecological debate Essays on the Land, Ecotheology, and Traditions in Africa Benjamin Abotchie Ntreh,Mark S. Aidoo,Daniel Nii Aboagye

Aryeh,2019-08-21 The book explores how African Christians in Ghana can think eco theologically about the nexus of mining waste pollution water pollution and land degradation In 2017 the government of Ghana banned illegal mining and declared war against any activity that does not complement environmental protection and conservation of natural resources The Christian church needs academic resources to support the campaign against the destruction of the land water bodies and environment The papers presented generate theological imaginations in shaping the political campaign against the destruction of the land and the environment Reflection on areas related to the theme includes The Concept of Land in the Bible The Christian Church and the Galamsey Menace in West Africa The Fulani Cattle Headmen and Care for the Land The Bible and the Environment Towards an Agenda for Eco theology in African Theological Institutions Stewardship of the Land The Menace of Mining in Ghana Destruction of Water Bodies in Ghana and The Menace of Plastic Waste in Ghana This volume will serve as a textbook for theological students the church and other governmental agencies Women as Sacred

Custodians of the Earth? Alaine Low,Soraya Tremayne,2001-12-01 Literature on women development and environment is abundant The relationship between women and ecology has been analyzed by various disciplines by specialists from the North as well as the South This book offers a new perspective specifically to challenge the assumption that women have a special affinity with the Earth and therefore a historic mission for the care of the environment The book explores spiritual religious and philosophical beliefs concerning women and ecology and whether women are truly sacred custodians of the Earth This concept has evolved from ideas developed by eco feminists Whether and how different belief systems can be put to use to create an awareness to protect preserve and improve ecological conditions is discussed The collection of papers demonstrates the complexity of the issues and the variations and vulnerability of the assumed relationship between women and the environment in different cultural and political contexts The book challenges policy solutions which are devised to be on a global scale and to create unrealistic global aspirations and the value of targeting women in a particular attempt to achieve environmentally sustainable development

Sacred Custodians of the Earth? Alaine M. Low, Soraya

Tremayne, 2001 Challenging the assumption that women have a special affinity with the Earth and therefore a historic mission for the care of the environment this book asks whether women are truly sacred custodians of the Earth
