

Fallen Angel

So high on this pedestal
Of thoughts you have placed me
And now thoughts belonging
To gravel and waste

My wings have been broken
My heart's life, it fell
I now live in hell --
But surely you've known
What it was like
Down there

I was forewarned that
Even guardian angels fall
And the feeling's descent
Of the highest, now small

Had I known your love
Not all would have been lost
But now I have nothing
At twice of the cost

Oh Cupid strike me tomorrow!
For I hope to fly again!
Because I long to love
More than I love
Life, Itself.

Fallen Angel Poetry For The Darkhearted Puresou:

Fallen Angel Thomas Frick,2004-07-01 The purpose of this book is to give the public a new view of those incarcerated that differs from the one most people hold they have committed a crime against society and humanity and deserve that which our judicial system requires Only as we allow ourselves to see them as God sees them can we reach out with Compassion to help them in their present state of captivity But for the Grace of God we could find ourselves in their place away from our families friends and society As we make ourselves available to God He can and He will use anyone to help those who feel hopeless and provide a way to freedom to those in captivity He will offer a Plan of Salvation to those bound by sin and show His love to those who are lonely seeking someone anyone to care what happens to them I am amazed to see their openness to find a purpose to life and a desire to become a happy and productive member of society To experience a transformation in one s life is beyond description All of us can become a part of this great adventure in our service to our fellow human beings
