Thirteen Stories Eudora Welty, 1965-03-17 I've read her Thirteen Stories many times and I'm always awed by how much comedy pathos satire and lyricism she manages to squeeze into her stories Sue Monk Kidd A strong sense of place in this case Mississippi along with often larger than life characterizations of ordinary folk with all their glorious eccentricities and foibles and above all a completely distinctive voice come together in Eudora Welty's fiction to offer us a world that is sometimes sad sometimes comic often petty and always compassionate Here is a baker's dozen of Welty's very best including The Wide Net in which a pregnant wife threatens to drown herself despite fear of the water and a communal dragging of the river turns into a celebratory fish fry Petrified Man revealing the savagery of small town gossip Powerhouse Welty's prose answer to jazz improvisation and the emotional heart of the blues and Why I Live at the P O the hilariously one-sided testimony of a postmistress who believes herself wronged by her family With her highly tuned ear and sharp insight into human behavior Eudora Welty has crafted stories as vital and unpredictable as they are artful and enduring Miss Welty has written some of the finest short stories of modern times The New York Times Eudora Welty is one of our purest finest gentlest voices Anne Tyler

The Collected Stories of Eudora Welty Eudora Welty, 1980 Stories as good in themselves and as influential on the aspirations of others as any since Hemingway's These stories are honest and vastly entertaining

Coming Through Kincaid Mills, Genevieve C. Peterkin, Aaron McCollough, 2023-03-20 Oral histories of formerly enslaved people and their families along the South Carolina coast Coming Through marks the first complete publication of these interviews with former slaves and their descendants living in the Waccamaw Neck region of South Carolina as collected by Genevieve W Chandler as part of the WPA Federal Writers Project Between 1936 and 1938 Chandler interviewed more than one hundred individuals in and around All Saints Parish a portion of Horry and Georgetown counties located between the Waccamaw River and the Atlantic Ocean Her subjects spoke freely with her on topics ranging from slave punishment to folk medicine from conditions in the Jim Crow South to the exploits of Brer Rabbit A teacher artist writer and later museum curator Chandler had no formal training as an oral historian or folklorist yet the sophistication of her work as documented here anticipates developments in these fields of study a generation later Her detailed descriptions add social context to folktales and her careful and systematic renderings of the Gullah language have since been praised as foundational work by Creole linguists Chandler s Gullah speaking African American informants range in age from the 9 year old George Kato Singleton to 104 year old Welcome Bees A biography of each subject accompanies the interviews Collectively these interviews form an intimate portrait of a fascinating subculture of the Carolina coast and the Sea Islands as shared with a remarkable woman who has special access to converse with the people of this traditionally insular world Moreover they provide an unparalleled firsthand account of the African American experience in South Carolina in the words of those who lived it The volume is edited by Chandler s daughter Genevieve C Peterkin and two scholars Kincaid Mills and Aaron McCollough The three have carefully established the texts of the interviews in a manner that highlights Chandler s skills as a field linguist and have supplemented the texts with revealing documentation The collection is enhanced with a foreword by Charles W Joyner Burroughs Distinguished Professor of History at Coastal Carolina University appendixes respecting the WPA project and the nuances of Gullah language and culture and photographs of the subjects taken by renowned photographer Bayard Wootten many published here for the first time
