Falling From Grace In Texas A Literary Response To The Demise Of Paradise:

Falling from Grace in Texas Rick Bass, Paul Christensen, 2004 Featuring more than 30 Texas writers this collection of essays fiction and poetry discusses environmental degradation from the panhandle to the gulf and from the Piney Woods to Big Bend

The Human Condition Paul Christensen, 2011 From the Chihuahuan deserts of Mexico to the cellars of the Pentagon and the flaming ruins of Iraq this poetry compilation merges the personal with the political While retaining an intimate and unembellished tone it confronts topical issues notably the United States wars abroad and explores various universal themes including aging coping honestly with regret dealing with fear and desiring forgiveness Powerful and lyric these poems cut to the heart of the often painful difficult and deceptive human condition

The Streets of Laredo José E. Limón, 2025-05-01 Arguing that the well known cowboy ballad The Streets of Laredo is an early expression of discontent with an encroaching modernity author Jos E Lim n draws upon ethnomusicology folklore history contemporary literature and other sources to provide a deeply contextualized analysis of the song He explores its place in the imaginative construction of the American West and its role in the interpretation of both Anglo American and Mexican American identity in the Texas borderlands and beyond With the ballad as his point of departure Lim n takes readers on a tour that includes formative experiences from his childhood in Laredo and Corpus Christi examination of the works of Am rico Paredes Larry McMurtry and others and considerations of American popular music cinema baseball and associated socio cultural phenomena The result is a complex and intriguing view of Texas and American culture as seen through the lens of a simple cowboy song It is my hope Lim n writes in his introduction that this account of these central figures in Texas history the ordinary cowboy and this ballad will prove useful as Texas deals with the current and deeply conflicted phase in its long struggle with modernity

The Streets of Laredo Texas Modernity and Its Discontents offers readers important new perspectives on how society struggles with understands and comes to terms or fails to come to terms with the inevitable changes wrought by an evolving culture

The Best in Tent Camping: Texas Wendel Withrow, 2010-05-10 As with all books in this series the campgrounds selected for The Best in Tent Camping Texas had to meet three criteria they had to be accessible by car but not overrun with RVs offer great scenery and be as close as possible to a wilderness experience Texas with its extraordinary diversity of ecosystems made author Wendel Withrow s search an exciting one Divided into the state s major geographical areas the book is based on the author s 30 years experience in following the back roads of Texas Along with a detailed profile and useful at a glance information clear maps show campground layout individual sites and key facilities Driving directions supplemented with GPS based coordinates for each campground entrance make getting there a snap Regional maps and a profile numbering system make the book easy to use and enjoy

Otero Mesa ,2008 Full color images by renowned photographers Stephen Strom and Stephen Capra unite with text by prizewinning nature and geography writer Gregory McNamee to document the subtle landscape of 1 2 million acres of remote Chihuahuan Desert grassland in southern New Mexico Home to many species of wildlife and native plants Otero Mesa is a place of extraordinary beauty and ecological significance faced with the increasing threat of oil and gas development that has plagued the Rocky Mountain West It is a strange and empty place a place whose contours suggest that those who do not know it are best to leave it alone as those who do know it will do in all events And as with all strange and empty places in this increasingly crowded increasingly monocultural world Otero Mesa is an important island in our geography of hope a place that warrants concern and protection Rightly for it is very much under threat Gregory McNamee in Otero Mesa The Best in Tent Camping: Texas Wendel Withrow, 2009-08-18 As with all books in this series the campgrounds selected for The Best in Tent Camping Texas had to meet three criteria they had to be accessible by car but not overrun with RVs offer great scenery and be as close as possible to a wilderness experience Texas with its extraordinary diversity of ecosystems made author Wendel Withrow's search an exciting one Divided into the state's major geographical areas the book is based on the author's 30 years experience in following the back roads of Texas Along with a detailed profile and useful at a glance information clear maps show campground layout individual sites and key facilities Driving directions supplemented with GPS based coordinates for each campground entrance make getting there a snap Regional maps and a profile numbering system make the book easy to use and enjoy Pride of Place David Taylor, 2006 Demonstrating what makes Texas diverse this book contains fourteen essays that are held together by the story of Texas pride the sense that from West Texas to the Coastal Plains the people and the landscape are bold and unique It addresses various major regions of Texas Sonnets and Salsa Carmen Tafolla, 2004 This major poetry collection is a fearless depiction of a Latina living in the best and worst of times A Students' Treasury of Texas Poetry Billy Bob Hill, 2007 A collection of 150 poems about Texas covering the history culture geography natural environment and ethnic diversity of the state Wearing the River James Hoggard, 2005 These poems inquire into what makes life worth living in a harsh environment Psst-- I Have Something to Tell You, Mi Amor Ana Castillo, 2005 Comprised of both a one act and a two act play this powerful dramatic pairing centers on Sister Dianna Ortiz who was kidnapped raped and tortured by U S sponsored Guatemalan security forces in 1989 Tropical Green Chip Dameron, 2005 Chip Dameron's Tropical Green is rich with images of the South Texas coastal regions Buzzards is a hilarious poem that links car engines Gas and sparking pistons compression buzzards and student aversion to poetry Cicadas is equally funny although in a quieter way comparing the insect mantra to a six legged Buddha sitting in his tree with his 17 year smile and thousands of incarnations Never pretentious or contrived Dameron's lines are crisp and insightful All the Young Swans describes the bloody toeboxes of young ballet dancers who floated to applause across a lake of illusion There is wisdom in these poems Instructing My Son shows a father's awareness that his son has stopped listening to him fifty yards ago that the boy is moving stride for stride to the sound of his own breathing Dameron's endings are particularly strong often coming as a sharp surprise and causing the poem to reverberate with sudden metaphoric force sweet against the bone and
